Harold Laron "Ron" Briggs

This world lost an amazing man, H. LaRon Briggs "Ron" 61 proudly of Dillon, Montana went to be with his best friend Jesus Christ in Billings, Montana on December 27, 2017. Ron was born in Dillon, Montana to Harold George and Joan Christenson Briggs on Aug 9th, 1956. He grew up on Briggs Ranch having great adventures with the 17 Briggs cousins who lived there. He married and loved with all his heart Julie Ann Wolfe, who was his best friend, on Aug 9th, 2002. He waited to get married on his birthday, so he could remember his anniversary. Ron was very proud of his status of living with type one diabetes for 56 years. When he was diagnosed at 5 years old he overheard the doctor tell his parents he would die before he was 10. That put him on a path for a very colorful life with a goal to experience as much of it as he could.

His first son Kasey came into this world when he was barely 17, Kasey was soon followed by Eric and Mitchell. He and their mother Patricia Ballard were later divorced. Patricia's parents Gwen and Mariner remained very special to him. He originally was planning to buy the mortuary in Dillon. His plans were postponed for a while as he went to Arizona on what he calls "a hunting trip" to find the perfect person to accomplish his goal. He became a step grandfather to 3 beautiful little girls who he cherished named Teresa, Tammy and Tonya. He then moved to Utah and was blessed with another beautiful son Jeff. After Jeff was born he found himself back in Arizona where he continued his search working in funeral homes. He finally met his very best friend Julie at the Tempe mortuary, where she was doing her internship. They hit it off right away and he knew he would spend the rest of his life with her.

Ron was a very generous, fun, caring, loving, amazing person who loved and prayed for everyone he met and those he loved. He often sacrificed his own self and wellness for others. He loved his family and community more than anyone will ever know. Ron was very private, not wanting anyone to know that he didn't feel well. He felt that made him less than everyone else, so he pushed himself often farther than those around him in perfect health most of his life. He knew that diabetes would claim his life at some point, but he gave it his best shot, telling Julie he was going to hang around at least until he was 75. This heart felt goal was just too enormous to fit in his diabetic heart. He is now in his forever home where he has no more pain and has been greeted by his special angels that have watched over him all these years. Ron's accomplishments through the years are far too many to list, just hold in your heart what he is to you.

He is preceded in death by his parents, brother Boe, special cousin Valaine, aunts and uncles. He is survived by his wife Julie of 15 years, sons; Kasey (Jeanette) of Dillon, Eric (Chantell) of Syracuse, Utah, Mitchell (Kelly) Depner of Cedar City, Utah, Jeffrey (Jennifer) of Midway, Utah, and step daughter Roxanne Smith of Tempe, Arizona. His grandchildren; Bane, Madelynn, Cole and Hunter, brothers: Brad (Julie), Theron (Susie), John (cousin), and sister Krista (Kent) and numerous cousins.

His famous last words are, "Let me know if there is anything I can do for you." He now has a perfect body. With his will and desires heaven is going to be rocking and rolling. Visitation is scheduled from 6-9 pm on Wednesday January 3rd, 2018 and Thursday from 8-9 am at Brundage funeral home. He will be escorted to the high school by his dear friends of the Dillon Law Enforcement Agencies who he served with as County Coroner for services at 10 am. He will go to Mt View cemetery after his services where he will join his family.

If he could tell you anything at this moment it would be to trust in the Lord and follow your heart. A guest book will be available online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com

AUTHOR ALAN WELTZIEN TO SPEAK AT DANCES WITH WORDS SERIES.

On Jan. 18, 2018, at 7:30 pm, author and Montana Western English Professor Alan Weltzien will present a reading as part of the "Dances with Words" series. Each performance in the series takes place at The Cup, Montana Western's coffeehouse located below the library on campus.

"Dances with Words" is also produced by Professor Weltzien. The series, free and open to the public, provides the community with a unique opportunity to listen to writers reading their own works, including Montana Western student writers.

Weltzien's presentation will focus on two of his recent publications, "Thinking Continental: Writing the Planet One Place at a Time," and "The Comfort Pathway: Walking and Writing Through Death and Grief."

As one of four co-editors of "Thinking Continental," Weltzien is the only co-editor or contributor with both an essay and a poem in the book. This interdisciplinary collection addresses bioregionalism and connections between the local and the planetary. "Thinking Continental" is premised on the notion that only through a local landscape and through the close study of that landscape and the human interactions with and upon it, can we make valid connections to the planetary, including climate change, the primary problem of the 21st century.

"The Comfort Pathway" is a personal essay, published as a chapbook, that concerns the final three weeks of Weltzien's mother's life and the painful ambiguities of so-called clear health care directives. During her slow-motion dying, Weltzien tries to capture many facets of her character.

For more information about the event, please contact Alan Weltzien by email at alan.weltzien@umwestern.edu or call 406-683-7431.

ATTENTION CITY OF DILLON DOG OWNERS

Dillon Municipal Code Title 6 - ANIMALS Section 6.04.020 requires all dogs within Dillon City limits to be licensed.

The City of Dillon will issue 2018 Dog Tags beginning December 1, 2017. Tags are sold at a reduced rate during the month of December. During that time, the cost for a City dog tag is $9.00 for dogs that are not spayed or neutered and $4.00 for dogs that are spayed or neutered. These fees will increase to $10.00 and $5.00 beginning January 1, 2018.

Proof of current rabies vaccination must be provided at time of license purchase if current proof is not on file with the City of Dillon. Dogs will not be licensed if rabies information is not current.

Pet owners who have not licensed their dog(s) by January 31, 2018 may be subject to a fine. If you no longer own a dog please contact City Hall at 406-683-4245 so you pet's name may be removed from our list.

Medicare Fraud Watch Program

The Southwest Montana Retired Educators' Association will host a special program Friday, January 5, 2018 at 1:00 pm in the day room at the Bicentennial Apartment complex.

The program will discuss Medicare fraud and ways to identify and avoid fraudulent practices. It will also provide seniors and the disabled with information on available resources needed to combat this type of fraud. We especially encourage all interested seniors and disabled people to attend. Come and learn about this growing problem and how you can join the fight to stop Medicare fraud. Refreshments will be served.

Dillon Middle School News

Here's the Dillon Middle School News for the week of January 3rd through 5th, 2018.

The lunch menu for the week is as follows: Today, Tuesday, we are still enjoying one more day of our winter break. On Wednesday, will have chicken alfredo served with biscuits. Thursday, we will enjoy pizza served with cheesy pinwheels and sauce. And on Friday, we will have a chicken patty on a school made bun with trimmings.

The results are in for the Montana Business Challenge. Congratulations to all teams who participated... it was a tight race all the way down to the end. The following teams have qualified for the Montana Business Challenge Finals: Pear and Company managed by Luke Sherwood and Treyton Anderson with a stock price of $127.82. And tying for the last spot in the finals with a stock price of $124.78 were the Blue Mustangs managed by Evelyn Hansen and Jordyn Walker and the team of Colter managed by Holter Santos and Conner Curnow. Congratulations and good luck in the finals.

After learning about the extraordinary power and importance of simple human kindness that small kind acts can produce, the 7th graders of DMS created kindness businesses. Students individually or in small groups created a business proposal consisting of an act of kindness that can be performed at school, home, or in the community. This plan could be as simple as shoveling a neighbor's sidewalks, creating positive messages and delivering them, sitting with a new student at lunch...these 'acts' didn't need to cost money or create any stress for kids or parents. However, the results have been positive.

The small acts of kindness have been filling our school and neighborhoods—treats have been found in lockers, houses have treats left on the porches, money has been raised for the Women's Resource Center... We're hoping that the kindness bug will spread. As wise people say, "It's better to give than receive."

We have the results of the Dillon Tribune's kids' greeting card contest. Around fifty middle school students from Mrs. Bartlome's art classes made Holiday cards for the contest. Congratulations to the winners. First place went to Quincee Anderson. Briannah Schroeder received 2nd place for her entry. And Asher Voss was the third place winner. Congratulations students. Thank you, Mrs. Bartlome for facilitating this fun contest. And thank you to the DILLON TRIBUNE for running this fun contest.

We also have the results of our Ninja Warrior Contest. The top girl was Emma Mitchell. The top boys were: John Kirkley and Gavin Garrison in a tie. Congratulations to our winners and all of our participants. Thank you, Mr. Williams, for running such an awesome contest. Thanks to everyone who came out to watch and cheer... what a great evening.

Girls' basketball starts, Thursday, January 4th after school. 7th grade will practice in the DMS gym. 8th grade will practice in the new gym. At 5:30 that same evening, there will be a parent meeting in the DMS gym. Parents, please attend this very important meeting. Girls' basketball pictures will be Friday, January 19th. 6th grade girls' basketball will begin next Monday, January 8th after school. Practice will be in the Parkview cafetorium. Sixth graders, please make sure you have your physicals, concussion packets, and permission slips taken care of, so you are ready to go.

We'd like to wish everyone a Happy New Year. We hope that 2018 is your best year yet!!

No court is scheduled for Beaverhead District Court for the week of January 2-5. Happy New Year.
