THE UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA WESTERN FINE ARTS GALLERY ANNOUNCES SHOW OPENING

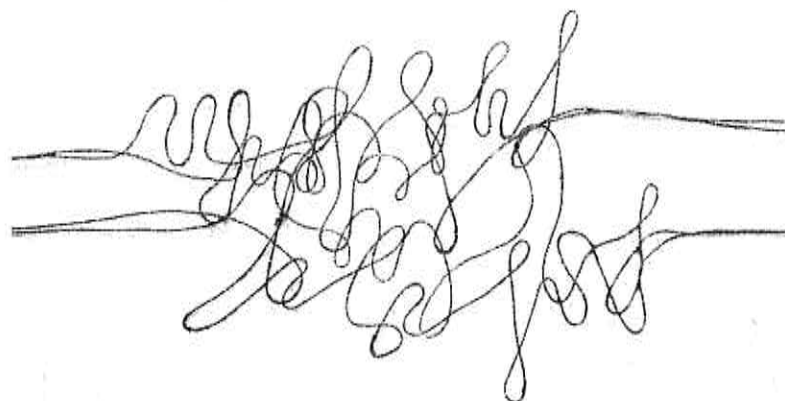

The University of Montana Western's Fine Arts Gallery has scheduled an opening reception of the new contemporary exhibit in the Corr Gallery titled "Establishing Connection" by sculptor Amy Petit from 5:30-7:00 p.m. on Thursday, Jan. 25, 2018. An artist's Q&A will take place at 6:30 pm in the gallery.

Pacific Northwest sculptor Amy Petit uses heavy materials such as cast metal and cast glass to create objects that explore the ephemeral themes of memory, loss, tradition, and nostalgia, and the changing nature of communication in an increasingly digital world.

The exhibit will be open Jan. 9 - Feb. 9, 2018 during regular gallery hours. Gallery hours are Monday-Friday from 1-3 p.m., or by appointment.

The Fine Arts Gallery is also proud to announce the arrival of new works from the Permanent Collection displayed in the Walton Gallery, including: "Winter Dawn on South Platte River" by Russell Chatham, and "Beaverhead, Big Hole, Ruby River Map" by L.L.B.

The event is free and open to the public, and complimentary refreshments will be served. The Gallery is located at the South end of Main Hall. For more information, please contact Aja Muringa Sherrard by email at aja.sherrard@umwestern.edu, or call 406-683-7313.

Victim Advocate Grant

By: M.J

At the Dec 19, 2017 council meeting Councilman Straugh ask for an outline defining why the county qualified for a victim advocacy grant. At the Jan. 3, 2018 meeting after Mary Jo O'Rourke was sworn in as the newly elected council member brought back to the table the issue of $20,000 dollars given by the city for the matching funds on a grant the county applied for to help fund the advocate position. The $20,000 is an accumulation of funds received from fines over a period of 3± years. Several months ago, the city council voted to pay the Women's Resource Center $10,000 to be taken out of the general funds for prior work they had provided. O'Rourke did not state her reasoning or present facts of why she brought the issue forward.

Currently, there is not a full-time advocate or victim witness in the County Attorney's office in Beaverhead County. It is difficult for small rural counties like Beaverhead to absorb the cost of employing a full-time victim witness assistant/advocate.

One part of a solution for the advocacy program is an Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) that outlines how the county and city will work together sustaining the position of Victim Witness Advocate. The MOU, with the benefits to the community and the agencies it will engender, will be sustained through that continued cooperation and mutual support. The cost of this program for the city will be 3,000± each year. The county will be providing the expense of office space, payroll, payroll taxes and providing benefits. The County Attorney's office will be working with City Attorney, Dillon Police, Beaverhead Sheriff Dept., collaborating with Child Evaluation Center, and the Community Support Center... The program will promote coordinated public and private efforts.

Question: Is it time that this issue be put to rest at the city council? The council has voted. Maybe we need to be appreciative that the city & county working with others have come together to provide a much-needed professional service for citizens. Mayor Klakken, City Attorney, Chief of Police and others participated in the formation of MOU. Mayor Klakken, City Attorney and Chief of Police have been keeping the council well informed at public meetings with written and verbal reports on the Victim Advocacy program during the past year 2017.

DPHHS Director in Dillon - Jan 12

The Beaverhead County Mental Health Local Advisory Council (MHLAC) hosts Sheila Hogan, Director of the Montana Department of Public Health and Human Services on Friday, January 12 at noon in the University of Montana Western Library's second floor conference room. The public is invited.

Ms. Hogan will address various issues related to state budget cuts in our area affecting targeted case management and other services, the community and statewide impact of the overall mental health related budget cuts, and the related closures of the Western Montana Mental Health Center Office and the Office of Public Assistance in Dillon.

Hogan will also meet with consumers and representatives from Barrett Hospital and Healthcare, School District #10, and the Yellowstone Boys and Girls Ranch prior to the MHLAC meeting at noon.

The MHLAC focus for the afternoon meeting is to balance the legitimate frustrations consumers and the community have with these budget cuts with discussions on positive, viable alternatives for service delivery and how to assist our community in supporting vulnerable citizens.

SIREN SYSTEM

Beaverhead County would like to announce that our new siren system is now fully operational. We will be resuming our noon-hour tests as well as sounding the alarm for any calls for Dillon Volunteer Fire Department. Please don't be alarmed when you hear the siren, but do be aware that there are volunteer responders that are trying to make their way to the fire hall or ambulance service and remember to move over for emergency vehicles. We would like to extend a sincere "thank you" to all the members of the community for being so patient while we got this system up and running.

Bible Truth...Not believing in Jesus Christ means you will die in your sins

---We believe the following: (1) the Bible was given by the inspiration of God, 2 Timothy 3:16-17; (2) all statements made in this and any ensuing articles will be based on what the Bible says; (3) the Bible only is the reliable source of spiritual & doctrinal truth; (4) all beliefs in conflict with the Bible are false.

In John 8:21 said "...I go my way, and you shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: where I go you cannot come." This is a reference to His return to His heavenly home (see Acts 1:9-11). Jesus told them in John 8:12 that He was the light of the world and that those who would follow Him would not walk in darkness but would have the light of life, but they refused to believe Him.

He then explains why they could not go where He was going in John 8:23, "...You are from beneath; I am from above: you are of this world; I am not of this world. I said therefore to you, that you shall die in your sins: for if you believe not that I am he, you shall die in your sins."

These scriptures make it very clear that if one does not believe in the Lord Jesus Christ as their Savior they will not go to heaven.

Now note the difference between one who does not believe and one who does. In John 11:23-26 Jesus told Martha after Lazarus died, "...Your brother will rise again. Martha said to him, I know he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day. Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead (physically), yet he shall live: And whoever lives and believes in me shall never die. Believest thou this?" Martha's response in verse 27 was, "Yes, Lord: I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God...."

Conclusion: If you pass from this life as a Pharisee...in a state of unbelief...you will not go into the presence of the Savior in heaven. The terrible lake of fire will be the eternal dwelling of all unbelievers as recorded in Revelation 20:11-15.
