THANK YOU

To the 7th Grade Class of 2017 - 2018

The Kindness Campaign

Thank you so much for your thoughtfulness during the days before Christmas this last year. I have no family here in Dillon and I was feeling somewhat sorry for myself. Then my doorbell rang. What a surprise because there was no one there. Instead, there was a white paper bag with a huge ? on it. Inside was a candy cane, 3 chocolate kisses, a peanut butter cup and a large balloon with a handle. It had a little card on it which said it was from the 7th grade Kindness Campaign.

What a nice thing for some young people to do. It really adjusted my attitude. I began getting some truffles together for my friends and my faraway relatives. That was a lot of fun for me and everyone loved the truffles and my relatives loved the truffles and the other little things I sent to them.

From what I could find out about this Kindness Campaign, when the students ran out of things for the bags, they used their own money to buy more things.

I say, "Hats off to the 7th Grade Class of 2017 - 2018!"

RECENT ACQUISITION EXPANDS FLEECER WMA BY NEARLY 200 ACRES

With the help of the Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation, Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks has purchased an adjacent parcel that adds nearly 200 acres to the Fleece Mountain Wildlife Management Area south of Butte.

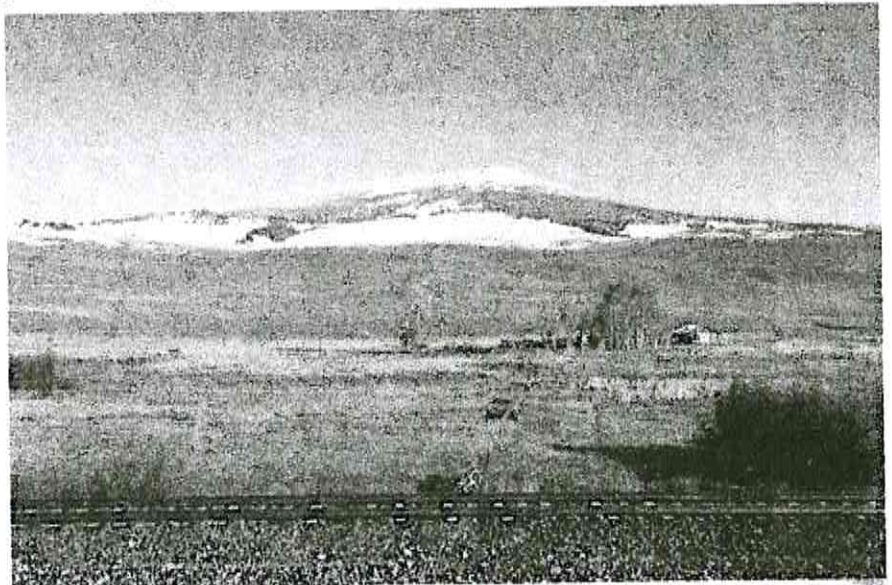

In addition to the increased recreational opportunities this will afford hunters, anglers, birdwatchers and other recreationists, the expanded WMA provides more protected habitat for wildlife and fisheries.

Specifically, the parcel will provide habitat for up to 800 wintering elk, 250 wintering antelope, nesting habitat for long-billed curlew and sandhill cranes in the spring, while also including two miles of riparian habitat and wetlands along Divide Creek.

The purchase for the appraised value of $620,000 was completed in mid-December and was funded through a combination of Pittman-Robinson, Habitat Montana, and Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation dollars.

FWP completed an environmental assessment for the addition action in spring of 2017 with a decision notice coming out in May of 2017.

Local biologists plan a celebratory "work" party on site with project partners, supporters and interested members of the public in June.

Council Jan 3, 2018

By: MJ

City Attorney December report:

1. Civil Cases: Oram v. City of Dillon – Mr. Oram continues to attempt proceedings to revive this case by filing another pro se motion before the U.S. District Court for the District of Montana and assigned council through MMIA, continues to defend upon Oram's claims. In particular, assigned council has argued and responded on behalf of the City of Dillon that Mr. Oram's motion is untimely and unsupported on the law and record in the final judgement was entered on August 23rd, 2017. A decision by the U.S. District Court in pending.

2. Turner v. City of Dillon, et.al. – (alleged wrongful termination). Council through MMIA, Cynthia Walker, Esq., was assigned to defend against the claim. On October 16th, 2017, the Honorable Kurt Kruger denied the City's Motion to Dismiss, and a subsequent Writ of Supervisory Control alleging a mistake of law by the District Court was denied on November 22nd, 2017. The City Attorney has assisted Ms. Walker along with the Mayor in defending the claim, and preparing the answer to Mr. Turner's complaint, which was filed December 1st, 2017.

Civil Work:

1. Water/Sewer Collection: The Water/Sewer Committee asked city attorney to weigh in on the collections process against non-paying owners for sewer bills. It was determined after research that the city's current contract with Collection Bureau Services, they can commence collection actions against non-paying sewer customers.

2. As per Deb Pierce the city attorney's office closed cases; (3) DUI, (1) Cruelty to Animals (neglect of dog), (2) Reckless Driving, (1) Failure to ID self (post-accident), and (1) Leaving scene of (accident).

Considerable preparation time and courtroom time were expended in preparing State v. Montoya for jury trial December 6th, 2017, however the defendant decided to plead out at the last minute.

The city attorney's office receives and/or fields phone calls from officers of the Dillon Police Department concerning requests for assistance and counsel regarding investigations in some cases.
