Dillon Public Library 115 Years Young!

February is Library Lovers Month and the perfect time to celebrate a landmark year achieved by our own Dillon Public Library. On December 27th, 2017, Dillon Public Library marked its 115th anniversary of serving the public here in Beaverhead County. Because of the busy holiday season, we decided to postpone the celebration. At this time, we are pleased to invite you to come join us for an

Open House Birthday Party honoring

Dillon Public Library

on

Wednesday, February 14th
from 10:00am to 5:00pm at the Dillon Public Library.

Gifts in the form of books will be welcomed and marked with a bookplate including the presenter's name and the occasion of the gift. If you, or your family, have a favorite title that you think would be a wonderful addition to our collection, please check with us to make sure that we do not already have it. For those who would like a suggestion, we have a list of titles that you could choose from. This list is in paper form at the front desk and may also be accessed on our website and Facebook page. Monetary gifts are always welcome and we will be happy to accommodate your wishes in how they are used.

Please drop in to help us mark this milestone!

Variance Board - Correction

Present board members were: Councilmen (not commissioners) Barba, Nye, Hand and public representative Ms. Sandra Berry and Ed Mooney.

The correction to councilmen was sent to me, however, I got the incorrect copy in the paper. Sorry for the error, Brenda Womack.

Jennifer Hughes - January 25, 2018

To our beloved community of Dillon,

Our beautiful and precious daughter, Jennifer was born to us Thursday, January 25, 2018. However, it was our Heavenly Father's will that she be taken to be with Him just prior of her arrival. While our hearts are broken, we are at peace knowing that Jenny's sweet spirit is now and forever with our Heavenly Father and she is now part of our eternal family.

Please know that your thoughts and prayers have and will continue to sustain us during this difficult time. We so appreciate all your love and support for us and our dear baby Jenny.

A Jennifer Hughes Memorial Fund has been created in her memory. Proceeds will be used to purchase a piece of playground equipment in her name for the Jaycee Park Renovation Project which Erin has been involved in organizing.

Donations may be sent to:

MONTANA WESTERN ANNOUNCES "PROOF" AND "DOUBT" AS PART OF THE BANK OF COMMERCE PERFORMING ARTS SERIES

The University of Montana Western Fine Arts Department, as part of the 2017-18 Bank of Commerce Performing Arts Series, presents two plays in February: "Proof" and "Doubt." The performances will be held Feb. 22-26, 2018 in the Beier and Small Auditoriums on the Montana Western campus.

"Proof" by David Auburn, follows the life of Catherine, a loyal daughter and her brilliant, but less-than-sane, mathematician father. After the death of Catherine's dad, her life is turned upside-down. Catherine struggles with the idea that she may have inherited her father's insanity, as well his affinity for math. "Proof," directed by Montana Western faculty member Larry Brazill, will captivate audiences through this story of romance, loyalty, and mystery.

Performance times are Feb. 22, 24 and 26 at 7:30 pm, and Feb. 23 at 1:00 pm in the Beier Auditorium.

"Doubt: A Parable" by John Patrick Shanley, is directed by Montana Western student Katie Bumgarner. Emotional and boundary-pushing, this play illustrates the power struggle between genders, race, and religion. Set at a Catholic school in the 1960's, the complex characters take the audience through the story of a priest and his relationship with one of his students, conveying a story of self-doubt, sympathy, and trust.

Performance times are Feb. 23 and 25 at 7:30 pm, and Feb. 26 at 1:00 pm in the Small Auditorium.

Both "Proof" and "Doubt" received a Pulitzer Prize and Tony Award for best play in 2001 and 2005, respectively. The Pulitzer Prize is one of the world's most prestigious awards for literature. Tickets for each show are $8 general admission and $5 youth (recommended for adults only due to language and mature themes). Montana Western students are admitted free of charge. Season tickets are $40 and are available at the door or by calling 406-683-7101.

A 125th Founders Day Celebration and Bank of Commerce Performing Arts Social will be held on Thursday, Feb. 22, 2018 at 5:30 pm on the first floor of Main Hall for the community and audience of "Proof" to enjoy refreshments, hors d'oeuvres and conversation before the show begins that night at 7:30 pm. The social is hosted by Montana Western Alumni and Friends and the University of Montana Western Foundation.

Museum Reopens

The Beaverhead County Museum is open to the public again after a busy month of changing displays and adding new ones. The museum directors have been working hard to offer new information so that the museum is relevant to Beaverhead County residents as well as the visitors who come through Dillon during the summer. Trustee, Jean DeVivo shared her aviation expertise to put together a case centered on early airplane history in the county, and early day aviator, Fred Woodside. Elfreda Woodside's role in preserving Montana History is demonstrated in the next case. Elfreda Woodside was an early trustee of the museum and is responsible for buying historic Bannack and convincing the State of Montana to assumed ownership of the property. Another new exhibit will center on Civil War soldiers who came to Beaverhead County after they served. Two other exhibits include a month-long display on the Dillon Pow-wow, a precursor of the Dillon Jaycee Rodeo and an exciting display titled, "The Reynolds Family, Three Generations of Rodeo Legends". Rooster Reynolds loaned a collection of objects and photographs to the museum for this display. The rodeo exhibits are the start of a project by museum personnel to collect oral histories from rodeo families here in the area. Admission to the museum is very affordable at $3.00 for an adult, with discounts for seniors and free admission for children under 12.

The creation of new exhibits in the museum entails carefully removing the previous exhibit and returning the items in it to storage. With limited storage, it becomes a challenge for personnel and volunteers to make room for each item. As each object is returned to its "home" location, the move must be recorded in the museum's software program. The same is true of each object that is pulled from storage to be put on display. Since it is generally not a good practice to put original photographs on display, those photographs used must be scanned and printed before they become part of an exhibit.

This year, museum volunteers and directors will continue focusing their attention on creating a more streamlined approach to cataloguing the existing storage within the museum campus. They will also be working on finding support funds through grants, sponsorships, and donations for continued programs and concerts at the Old Depot Theatre. "Volunteers are the backbone of the museum," says Lynn Giles. "We welcome those who have a heart for preserving our history and have numerous ways that people can help with the operation of the museum." Please call 406-683-5027 if you are interested in volunteering.
