William Richard "Dick" Crockford

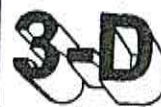

William Richard "Dick" Crockford of Dillon, Mont., 65, passed away from a heart attack early Thursday, February 8, 2018. He was born May 2, 1952 in Los Angeles to William "Bill" Crockford and Doris Driscoll Crockford. He married Deborah Westby August 17, 1974 in Missoula, Mont. Together, they have three daughters Heather, Rebecca, and Theresa.

Many know Dick from his newspaper work. He loved small-town Montana life and believed firmly in the importance of local newspapers in supporting the communities in which they served. He graduated from the University of Montana's School of Journalism in 1975 and began his career with the Ronan Pioneer as the editor. Dick then worked in the news department for KEIN Radio in Great Falls. He edited books for many counties for Montana State's Centennial. He, Debbie, and eldest daughter, Heather, born in 1978, moved to Rupert, Idaho where he became the farm editor of the Minidoka County News. While living in Rupert, his 2nd daughter, Rebecca was born in 1979. In 1982, the family moved to Shelby, Mont., where Dick was the editor of the Shelby Promoter. Their youngest daughter, Theresa, was born in 1983. In 1990, Dick was offered the position of editor at the Anaconda Leader. He continued in that capacity until 1999 when he served as editor for the A.W.A.R.E. Inc. newsletter. After legislative budget cuts, he returned to the hectic journalism world working for the Boulder Monitor and then the publisher/editor of the Big Horn County News in Hardin with Yellowstone Newspapers. In 2007, he and wife, Debbie, had the opportunity to return to their beloved Southwest Montana to his position as publisher for the Dillon Tribune, where he most recently shepherded their move from the original Tribune offices to their new home on Idaho Street.

To say Dick was an active member of his community would be an understatement. He and his wife, Debbie, lived a life of service to their many home towns, their family, and their church. Over the years, he was active in the Knights of Columbus, Kiwanis, the MISTER (Males In Service To Encourage Reading) Reader Program at Head Start and various elementary schools, annual trips to Tijuana, Mexico to build houses, Montana Catholic youth formation, Montana Newspaper Association, United Way, Beaverhead County Museum Board, also he volunteered as assistant cross-country coach in Anaconda, among so many other organizations. The loss of his presence will be deeply felt.

Dick adored his wife, Debbie, and they could often be seen attending local cultural events together ranging from Pow Wows in Eastern Montana to Butte's own Irish Festival, An Ri Ra. He loved cooking elaborate meals for his soulmate which often featured beer as an ingredient. Whenever sons-in-law or other out-of-town visitors were in Dillon, he loved to visit "the park" as he jokingly referred to the many wonderful Montana breweries. He was a man who loved to laugh and doted on his daughters. He went so far as to take his youngest on a service trip to Tijuana, Mexico when she was 16 to build houses with the Esperanza Program. While there he fell in love with the communities and families he encountered and continued to go South, sometimes with his youngest, sometimes with his eldest, sometimes by himself as the pull on his heart was so strong.

Dick was preceded in death by his parents, grandparents, many aunts and uncles, and his younger brother, Thomas Crockford. He is survived by his wife, Debbie Crockford, daughters Heather (Chauncey) Boese, Rebecca (Jeremy) Combs, and Theresa (Andrew) Unbehend, sisters Maryellen Crockford, Theresa (Matthew) Norman, Mary Pat Crockford, brothers, Paul (Shirley) Crockford, Patrick (Veronica) Crockford, and Christopher Crockford, as well as grandchildren Sydney, Lauryn, and Cayden Combs and Liam and Quincey Boese.

Visitation was held February 12th. The Funeral Mass will be on Tuesday, February 13th at 12:10 pm at St. Rose of Lima Parish 226 S. Atlantic St., Dillon, Mont.

The family asks memorials be made to Esperanza International, one of Dick's favorite organizations at <http://esperanzaint.org/>. There is a guestbook online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

THANK YOU

I am humbled by the gracious generosity of our community during Ron's hospital stay and after his death. A special thank you to Jessica Murolo, Paul Craft, Bob Parker and John Hossfeld, who took care of things at the funeral home. I was able to be with Ron because of you. I can't even begin to express the gratitude for the outpouring of love that was felt by myself and our family from our community. Those that participated in Ron's service; Dale Stewart, Calvin Christensen, Kelly Weinacht, Laurie Hagenbarth, Maggie Lundberg, Brett Irish, his brothers at the Masonic Lodge, Skip Bybee, the High School staff, our friends Keith Kneeland and Susie Boka, you all were such a blessing. I am forever grateful to all of you. Last but not least thank you to those that brought food, said a prayer, gave a hug, cleaned the walkways...

With Love and appreciation,
Julie Briggs and family

Beaverhead Search and Rescue News

Submitted By: Mel Rice - Public Relations Officer

The Beaverhead SAR held its monthly meeting Wednesday, February 7, at the Search and Rescue building. The meeting was called to order by commander, Wilbur Holt, with 29 members in attendance. In the past month there was only one callout that was critiqued. That callout was for individuals that became stuck in the Big Sheep Creek drainage while attempting to get over the top of the divide into the Medicine Lodge. Everyone was O.K., it was a matter of getting them out to safety.

The fish derby, which was held on the 27th of January, was discussed. Even though it was a blustery day, it was deemed a very successful event with a large number of fisherpersons on the ice. The unit cleared approximately $5900.00. There were some very nice fish caught and rewards included cash payouts for the 4 largest fish by weight in both ling and trout categories. Discussion of training was next on the docket. Training officer Mike Clarke let members know that on February 9 & 10 there would be avalanche training. It will be a two day course with Friday being class room work and Saturday being spent in the field. The field exercise was to be in the Grasshopper Valley. Next on the training agenda is CPR and First Aide. All members of S&R are mandated to have current cards. This training will be held March 3rd and 4th. Mike also spoke of the white water training to be held April 27, 28, & 29. Professional instructors will teach the class. The course will again include classroom presentations and then practical experience on the Big Hole River.

The meeting concluded with election of officers for 2018. Those elected are:

- ☐ Commander – Alan Holt, 2nd term
 - ☐ Vice Commander – Cody Schnee, 2nd term
 - ☐ Secretary – Tara Remely
 - ☐ Treasurer – Brian Vinson
 - ☐ Communications – Brad Wagner
 - ☐ Public Relations – Mel Rice
 - ☐ Training Officer – Lawrence Morrisroe
 - ☐ Equipment Officer – Chuck "Griz" Clark
 - ☐ Board of Directors – Parke Scott, Chuck Maddox, Trent Cotton
- Congratulations to all of the elected officers.

Please remember the snow condition in most areas is still very dangerous. Avalanches are very possible, even in minimal amounts of snow. Venture out to enjoy winter sports with enthusiasm but also with precaution. With the warm weather we have been experiencing, the ice on most of the lower lakes and ponds has started to deteriorate. Make sure you know what you are getting into. Enjoy, but take care....

Anyone wishing to join the Beaverhead Search and Rescue come to a meeting and see what we're about. If still interested, pick up an application and get it turned in.

The University Of Montana Western Announces Bridges To Business Speaker, Kolby Malesich

The University of Montana Western has announced a community gathering and presentation on Wednesday, February 21, 2018 as part of the "Bridges to Business" speaker series sponsored by Helix Business Solutions. The series is an effort to bridge communication and collaboration between the Montana Western campus and Dillon community.

Helix Business Solutions, a local technology company that employs several Montana Western alumni, has partnered with the Montana Western Business Department. The goal of the partnership is to bring industry leaders to the Montana Western campus to share insights and experiences in their industries.

"Helix is proud to be partnering with Montana Western," shared Kevin Sherwood, CEO of Helix Business Solutions. "We are excited about the impact this program will have on our community. We have strengthened our company by hiring Montana Western alumni and are invested in providing future UMW graduates and the community this level of exposure to the exciting innovations happening with some of the biggest brands in business today."

Each featured speaker will spend time on campus with Montana Western students, faculty and staff and then provide an evening speaking event that is open to the public. The evening event will be an excellent opportunity for campus and community members as well as Beaverhead County High School students to hear about a variety of industry topics first hand.

The first presentation will feature Kolby Malesich, Business Analyst with Cargill US Feed & Nutrition. Kolby will discuss the benefits and challenges of technology in the agriculture industry. Kolby grew up in the Dillon area on a farm/ranch before attending and graduating from Colorado State University with a degree in Ag. Business. Upon graduation, he began his career with Cargill as part of their Feed & Nutrition business unit where he remained for the past 15 years. He has overseen a variety of functions including purchasing, logistics, pricing, formulation as well as working with large ag retail chains across the US. He is currently in a newly created role of Business Analyst, providing analysis and insights for Cargill's US Feed & Nutrition business.

Kolby and his wife Laura have two children. Kolby was able to move his family back to his hometown of Dillon a few years ago and work remotely from his Dillon office.

The presentation begins at 7:00 pm on Wednesday, February 21 in the Swysgood Technology Center (STC) Great Room on the Montana Western campus. For more information, please contact Fred Chilson at 406-683-7178.
