SIX STUDENTS RECEIVE THE CHANCELLOR'S LEADERSHIP SCHOLARS AWARD FROM MONTANA WESTERN

The Chancellor's Leadership Scholars Award is a four-year, full-tuition scholarship awarded to exceptional students residing in the state of Montana who will be attending the University of Montana Western in the fall. Montana Western is proud to announce the six following high school seniors as the 2018-19 award recipients:

Shelby Austin

Austin is a student and star athlete at Helena Christian School, a captain on both the basketball and volleyball teams. Working as a camp counselor during the summers inspired her to pursue a career in elementary education.

Mattea Burke

Burke is a lifelong resident of Missoula. Her extracurricular activities include cross country, basketball, speech and debate, and tennis. She cites tennis as her favorite activity and has been the team captain for two years. She enjoys photography, podcasts, and hiking, and looks forward to living in Dillon.

Bethanney Foley

Foley will graduate from Butte High School in May and plans to study elementary education at Montana Western. She is a varsity volleyball player and coaches a team of seventh grade girls in the sport. She is also a mentor in the Big Brothers Big Sisters organization.

Isabel Hansemann

Hansemann, a Helena native, has her sights set on achieving her goals. A competitive archer, she represented Montana as a part of the 4-H National Archery Team in 2017.

The 2018-19 recipients of the Chancellor's Leadership Scholars Award will be attending the University of Montana Western this fall.

Celebrating 10 Years of Service to our Community

Retirement, wow, ever wonder what it would be like?

In the nearly 45 years I have been involved in Medicine-the thought of experiencing it had crossed my mind a few times. Now it has become a reality. As of Feb. 28, 2018, I'm praying I will be able to enjoy this beautiful country even more freely by spending time with my bride, 4 kids, almost 8 grandkids and great friends. I can't wait to take them fishing on the Beaverhead River, the Big Hole, the Madison and every steam in between. And oh, to be able to see the mountain tops from horse back again absolutely thrills me to my toes! President Reagen once said:"There's nothing as good for the inside of a man as the outside of a horse", and think I'll check that out again.

However, with every good thing there is some sadness. Ten years ago I had a dream to start up a small hometown Medical Clinic in Dillon, Montana. It kinda looks like it survived by seeing upwards of 3,000 folks yearly. Folks who I have been honored to call patients AND friends. Thank you all for allowing me the privilege of caring for and being apart of you and your families lives. I am humbled to have been able to serve my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, in that wonderful capacity. Thank you all again and we'll catch up with you down the trail. Oh, the clinic will re-open the first week in March. Come on down and say "Hi" to the new owners at 120 S. Atlantic St.

Log Haul Begins Near Philipsburg

The Pintler Ranger District is advising travelers in the Middle Fork Rock Creek area that log removal has begun southwest of Philipsburg. These log decks were created during fire suppression activities from the Meyers Fire in 2017.

Through 2018, travelers to this area are advised to drive cautiously due to log truck traffic and heavy machinery traveling the roads. There may be short delays along County Road #80 (Copper Creek Road) and Forest Service roads #5106 (Moose Lake road) and #5121 (Lone Pine road).

For additional information contact the Pintler Ranger District in Philipsburg at (406) 859-3211.

America's Farmers Work Doubly Hard For The Money

Tyrades! by Danny Tyree

In my 19 years of working for a farmers cooperative, I've seen all types of farmers and ranchers.

There have always been "weekend farmers" for whom farming is a lark, a small supplemental income or a tax write-off. Other herdsmen and planters have farming in their DNA. They yearn to be able to maintain farms handed down through generations and support their families SOLELY through the sweat of their brow in the croplands, pastures, orchards and dairy barns.

In a conglomerate-dominated business, things look less promising for "the little guys" all the time.

According to a February 26 Wall Street Journal article ("To Stay on the Land, Farmers Take Extra Jobs"), rising costs and depressed commodity prices are driving farmers to take desperate measures. On average, 82 percent of U.S. farm household income is expected to come from off-farm work this year, up from 53 percent in 1960.

Yes, farmers are reluctantly working extra jobs (on neighboring farms, in factories, etc.), missing their children's extracurricular activities and skipping weekend fishing trips in order to stay ahead of their creditors. Their work ethic is to be commended, but not every farmer is suited for every side job. Here are 10 examples of potential mismatches:

1. Valet parking attendant. ("I know there's no mud between the restaurant entrance and the parking lot, but mud just always seems to find me. Or IS that mud? Eww...no tip required, mister.")
2. Daycare worker. ("You say, 'photo I.D. for all children.' I say, 'Branding iron's ready.' Tomato, tomahto.")
3. Pollster. ("Do you think more pig slopping and less teenage backtalk would Make America Great Again?")
4. Football referee. ("7 p.m.??? Penalty for not getting up before the rooster crows to play this game!")
5. Associate minister. ("Yeah, yeah, Judy needs prayers for a lung transplant. But let's talk RAIN first!")
6. Undertaker. ("I just automatically sprayed herbicide on all those wreaths. Do you think my John Deere can outrun the next of kin?")

7. Fast food clerk. ("Of COURSE you want fries with that! I don't care what the world markets say â€' my potatoes are worth their weight in gold. And don't try that 'lactose intolerant' jazz with a dairyman who has 75 Holsteins to feed.")
8. Housecleaner. ("Well, MAYBE your rambunctious twins are responsible for the laundry being strewn in the floor; but I'm bringing my shotgun and my Jaws of Death trap just in case it's VARMINTS.")
9. Male escort. ("Perhaps I could interest you in a lecture about the benefits of artificial breeding?")
10. Archaeologist. Okay, that one's sort of cool - unless they find a cave drawing that taunts, "Bet 'primitive hunter-gatherer' doesn't look so bad now, Mr. Crop Planter!"

Let's brainstorm better ways to solve farmers' persistent financial stress. It's not good to entrust our food supply to someone who gets three hours of sleep. It used to be "Contented milk from contented cows." Now it's "Confused milk from cows that get mistaken for former schoolteachers."

And the dangers aren't just in the food supply. You know the bumper sticker that admonishes, "Don't cuss a farmer with your mouth full"? In the future the message may be, "No, don't cuss him with your mouth full. Spit the food out and yell, "Wake up, you commuting &*^%$ You're drifting into the wrong lane and about to hit my submarine! AIIIIEEEEE!"

February 27, 2018

Friends,

The Association is in the process of determining how to best utilize our / your Senior Citizens Center facilities and we need your help. Attached to the back of this letter this is a questionnaire that the Board has drafted to help us define how we can best serve the needs of our members, the senior population of Beaverhead County.

You do not have to be a member to participate in this survey; in fact you do not even have to be a Senior Citizen. We would like have all age groups input to accurately plan for the utilization of the Center.

Please take a moment and complete the questionnaire so that you can guide the Board in our planning efforts. We would appreciate having the questionnaires returned to the Senior Center by the 14th of March. After collecting the questionnaires, we will schedule a special board meeting to review the results and start our future program exploration.

Thanks,

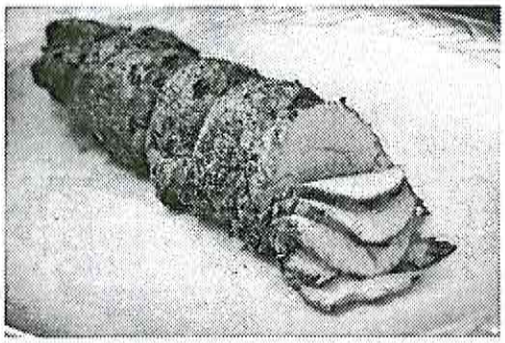

Jim Carpita
Association Vice-President
