Verona May Nettik Eby

Verona May Nettik Eby was born on June 7, 1935 in Dillon, Montana to Edward & Verna Nettik. She attended schools in Dillon, graduating from BCHS in 1953 and attending 1 year at WMC. She most enjoyed her work at the big dipper when she was younger. She grew up with 2 brothers, Ernie (Mary Ellen) and Mickey who made her afraid of cats. She met and fell in love with "her everything", George Eby and was married on August 1, 1958 at her parent's house in Dillon. Some bet the marriage would not last but this year would have been 60 years together. The couple lived in Butte where Sandi was born and then Ed came into the world there. Road construction took them back to Dillon where they had the makings of a "perfect family". Verona went to work at the Beaverhead County Assessor's Office where she worked for 35 years until her retirement in 1997. She also volunteered at the Dillon Elks for 30+ years and enjoyed every minute of it.

Verona & George were inseparable and enjoyed many years bowling, following the kids to their sporting events, getting a baseball mitt for her 40th birthday and road tripping with friends to Jack Pot, Wendover, Mesquite, Tahoe, Laughlin, Reno and Vegas. She and George determined each day who would be the "boss" by the best 2 out of three cribbage games. During her spare time, Verona was known for making afghans and the best chocolate chip cookies ever! When in High School Verona made a trip to Alaska and said she would NEVER fly again even though she had super flight benefits from Ed's employment. George & Ed did talk her into flying to Alaska to visit her special Aunt Toots - she didn't remember much of that flight but still didn't want to step foot on another plane. She very much enjoyed time spent playing pinochle with her Uncle Smokey and Aunt Betty Lou.

Verona loved intensely and was loved by her Granddaughter, Lindsey and Grandson, Evan who she considered her pride and joy because she waited 72 years for a Grandson. Now she has had the opportunity of meeting her 4 great Grandchildren and was deeply blessed!

Verona was preceded in death by her parents, numerous Uncles & Aunts and classmates. She is survived by her loving husband, George, daughter Sandi, son Ed, grandchildren and great Grandchildren plus brothers, aunt & precious cousins.

Memorial services will be held Monday, March 12th 11:30 at the Brundage Funeral Home with reception following at the Elks. There is a guestbook available online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com

DILLON YMCA AND THE DEN STEAKHOUSE RAISING FUNDS NIGHT A HUGE SUCCESS IN THE COMMUNITY!!

The Den Steakhouse and Dillon YMCA teamed up to kickoff the Annual Strong Family campaign on Tuesday February 20th. The evening was filled with 50/50 raffles, drawings, drink and dinner specials, laughter, fun, and an enormous amount of support from the community.

The event brought in over $2800 for the Strong Family Campaign. A huge thank you goes out to Lindsay and her staff at the Den and the community for making this a night to remember.

The Strong family campaign provides scholarships for children, teens, and families throughout Southwestern Montana who are unable to afford the cost of participation in the programs, memberships, or activities at the YMCA. The YMCA in Dillon is committed to working side by side with our community to make sure that everyone has the opportunity to learn, grow, thrive, and lead a healthy lifestyle.

If you would like additional information about the Strong Family Campaign please contact the YMCA at (406) 683-9622 or email crissie@swmtf-ymca.org.

Attention Beaverhead County Businesses:

Keep Dillon a Successful and Thriving Town
 Beaverhead Development Corporation is a local non-profit organization focused on improving the economic growth and sustaining the existing businesses to keep Dillon a successful and thriving town. We are currently assisting groups on a new park, bike camp and art installations downtown with Dillon Main Street Project. Our main focus is keeping businesses open through change of ownership, start up assistance and finding locally sourced products to keep the revenue in our state and locally when feasible. Two new potential start ups are coming soon and we are working on more ideas. We have been hosting networking events on the Third Tuesday of each month. These events have been very well received and the attendees find it extremely valuable and exciting. Stonehouse Studios, Judy Siring and Dale Gien have been hosts for January and February. We are finishing the video marketing campaign for potential residents and businesses to premiere at the Meet Up at Canvas/SWMAC on March 20th. Some events to look for in the future are Agriculture Tours, marketing events and the Montana Economic Developers Association Conference in April which will bring a spotlight to Dillon and a large group from across the state. There will be a social media for business class in the upcoming weeks as well. The office we opened here has funding from BDC/Headwaters RC&D for the span of 2 years. We already have several projects in progress that will be of great benefit to Dillon. Among others we are applying for a clean up and developing a property in a visible location in town, an updated top of the line downtown park with a splash pad, playground and amphitheater, a Beaverhead County Recreation Plan, and marketing videos to draw new business and promote our community. We are focused and determined to see the city and county thrive and grow. To inquire about how BDC can support and assist you email Katie Barba at kbarba@headwatersrcd.org or call 406-925-2810. The BDC office is open Tuesday through Thursday from 10am to 4pm.

Montana Retired Educators' Day
 Thursday, March 8, 2018 has been designated as Montana Retired Educators' Day. This day is set aside annually to honor the work performed by retired educators toward helping Montana's youth become well rounded, educated citizens.

Attorney General Fox Urges Swift Passage of Child Pornography Victim Bill

Montana Attorney General Tim Fox and a bipartisan group of 54 state and territorial attorneys general called on congressional leaders to pass legislation supporting victims of child pornography.

The bipartisan bill, the Amy, Vicky, and Andy Child Pornography Victim Assistance Act of 2017, would make it easier for victims of child pornography to obtain restitution. A similar bill passed the U.S. Senate in 2015 but failed to pass the House of Representatives. The letter is directed to House and Judiciary Committee leaders.

"The Internet and other new technologies make child pornography more easily attainable, leading to increased victimization and trafficking to meet the demand," Attorney General Tim Fox said. "While nothing can permanently erase these images from the Internet or the harm done to victims, Congress can act to make it easier for victims to receive meaningful restitution from perpetrators who produce, share, and view these images."

The attorneys general's letter is in direct response to a 2014 U.S. Supreme Court decision in Paroline v. United States, which held that while victims of child pornography are entitled to restitution, any individual defendant they sue is only liable for the harm caused by that one individual's possession of the images.

The Amy, Vicky, and Andy Child Pornography Victim Assistance Act will improve the law by:

Clarifying congressional intent that victims be fully compensated for all the harms resulting from every perpetrator who contributed to their trauma;

Establishing a more meaningful definition of "full amount of a victim's losses;"

Clarifying restitution owed to victims;

Establishing a process for victims to receive compensation from the Child Pornography Victims Reserve within the federal Crime Victims Fund and requiring judicial appointment of a guardian ad litem for victims of child pornography production;

Allowing victims and their attorneys access to images in which they are depicted which is crucial for victim identification, expert testimony, forensic review, treatment, and the prevention and prosecution of future crimes; and Requiring the U.S. Department of Justice to report on implementation within two years.

Attorney General Bob Ferguson of Washington and Attorney General Sean Reyes of Utah led the letter. All state attorneys general signed the letter, along with attorneys general from: the District of Columbia, American Samoa, Guam, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

Jaycee Park Renovation Project

Information for the Renovation Project at Jaycee Park as well as contact names and numbers. It will be coming in sections over several days. If you have questions for the committee - please send them to dillonnews@womacksprinting.com and we will get the answers for you or give you the contact to answer them.

Splash Pad

Besides the benefits of cooling down and getting exercise, there are many great reasons to play at a splash pad. Water play provides a rich sensory experience for the developing child. While they are busy having fun, kids can also begin to learn about and experiment with the physics of water as the different nozzles turn on and off. Children will be able to play for hours as they explore, imagine, and enjoy the new splash pad.

A big thank you goes to Phyllis and John Erb who have donated the funding for the splash pad.

For more information on this phase please contact RayAnn Sutton at 660-0184 or Wendy Dumke at 925-1089.
