Federal funding has been approved for the Butte's Veteran's Home according to Sen. Jon Tester

"This is a huge victory for Butte, long overdue," Tester said. It's because the community of Butte-Silver Bow never gave up, the legislators delivering at the state level, and Senator Tester being able to get the job done back in Washington.

"I'm very excited about this because it's going to be good for Montana and especially good for the veterans of southwest Montana," Tester said.

Democratic state Sen. Jon Sesso of Butte, who has been working toward a veteran's home in Butte for nearly a decade as a legislator and Butte-Silver Bow's planning director, credited Tester for getting the project "over the goal line."

Sesso said a 10-acre tract near Three Bears Alaska and Continental Drive donated by Don Harrington is still intact is where the "cottage-style" home will go.

Harrington, who ran the Pepsi bottling company in Butte for many years, died in 2013. Everyone involved in the project has lauded his donation, and his estate's continuation of it, as a key to the project's success.

The state will oversee the project and already has 35 percent of the architecture and design work completed. That can now be taken to 90 percent and it's possible ground could be broken later this year, said Sesso, who recently stepped down as planning director.

Jon Coen, counsel with the Veterans Affairs Committee, said that the Butte home was well down the VA's priority list. "It's based on population, so Butte would never have had a chance at this without the targeted funding."

Tester is the ranking Democrat on the Veterans Affairs Committee.

The 60-bed home has long been a need for veterans in Montana, particularly in this part of the state. Funding has been stalled at both the state and federal levels at various times for the past several years.

The about $8 million in federal funding amounts to two-thirds of the project's cost; the state has agreed to fund the remaining $4 million.

In order to get Butte's project funded, the VA's state veterans home construction grant program had to be funded to the level of $685 million, which the just-passed spending bill does, Coen said.

The home should be completed within about two years.

"I will be holding the VA accountable to make sure that construction gets underway quickly," Tester said.

Mick Ringsak, former regional SBA administrator and a force in Butte community development, said Thursday, "It's one of the best things that has happened for veterans in Montana in a long time, and it's great for southwest Montana and for the community. Sen. Tester deserves our thanks."

The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) announced the 2017-18
 Division I Men's Basketball
 All-America Teams on Thursday

Montana Western had three players receive the honor: Dom Robinson, Zaccheus Darko-Kelly and Brandon Jones.

Robinson, a 5-8 senior guard from Tacoma, Wash., was a Second-Team All-American selection last season. He was named First-Team All-American this season after leading the Bulldogs to birth in the NAIA quarterfinals. He led the Bulldogs in scoring and was 15th in the nation with 617 points. He was fourth in the nation is assists with 185, and 20th in total 3-point field goals made with 88. He also was named First-Team All-Conference, and received the Charles S. Stevenson Hustle Award, and was the team's Champion of Character.

Darko-Kelly, a 6-6 sophomore guard from Great Falls, Mont. was named Second-Team All-American. He was 29th in nation in total scoring with 539 points, 21st in total steals (21), and shot 51 percent from the floor. He was Frontier Conference Player of the Week twice this season, NAIA National Player of the week in February, and was a First-Team All-Conference selection.

Brandon Jones, a 6-5 guard/forward from Houston Texas, was named Honorable Mention All-American. Jones led the team in rebounds and was 18th in the nation with 264. He was 24th in the country with 560 points. He was named Frontier Conference Player of the Week and NAIA National Player of the Week in February. Jones was a Second-Team All-Conference selection.

"So very proud of each and every one of them." said head coach Steve Keller, "We have three All-Americans, first time that has happened here. That is why we were four points away from beating the team that won the title. All the credit goes to those three they worked hard and stayed disciplined, and it paid off for them."

The Bulldogs have had 14 All-Americans since the 2009-10 season; JaRon Brown (2009-10), Brandon Brown (2010-11 & 2011-12), Kyle Erickson (2011-12), Jake Owsley (2012-13), Stephen McCall (2014-15), Dexter Williams Jr. (2014-15 & 2015-16), Shyke Smalls (2015-16 & 2016-17), Dom Robinson (2016-17 & 2017-18), Zaccheus Darko-Kelly (2017-18), and Brandon Jones (2017-18).

Forest Service to Renew Outfitter and Guide Permits

The Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest permits outfitters and guides across the forest to provide services to the public for activities such as hunting, fishing, and day trips on horseback or foot. Currently, 18 permits are being reviewed across the forest that will allow holders of outfitter and guide permits to continue with their current plan of operations. There would be no changes to the type of service or number of days authorized.

For additional information about renewing outfitter and guide permits contact your local Beaverhead-

Brianna King Named First Team All-American

The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) announced the 2017-18 Division I Women's Basketball All-America Teams on Thursday. Brianna King was selected to the First-Team.

Brianna King was selected as First-Team All-American. She is the first Bulldogs to receive the honor since Katherine Sunwall in 2007.

King, a 5-5 junior guard from Spokane, Wash., led the Bulldogs to their first ever appearance in the NAIA Fab Four. She was fourth in the nation in scoring (694 points), sixth in the nation in steals with 84, tenth in points per game average (19.28) and eleventh in free throw percentage (81.2 percent). She was named Frontier Conference Player of the Week five times this season, NAIA National Player of the week in January, Frontier Conference Player of the Year, and Frontier Conference Newcomer of the Year. King was also named to the NAIA DI Women's Basketball Championship All-Tournament First-Team.

This season King set the Bulldogs record for points in a game with 37, then broke that record with a 40 point performance in the NAIA quarterfinals. She set the school and NAIA tournament mark for made free-throws in a game with 18. Her 694 points are second most in a season, falling just 15 points short of the all-time mark of 709 held by Bobbi Konen (Suhr) back in 2002.

"This honor is a reflection of the success our team had this season which Bri was a big part of it," said head coach Lindsay Woolley, "She has worked tirelessly to become the player she is and we are excited that she is part of our program for one more year."

The Bulldogs have had four All-Americans since the 2012-13 season; Sammi Bignell (2012-13), Aniese Palmore (2015-16 & 2016-17), Kaye Bignell (2016-17), and Brianna King (2017-18).

King is just the third Bulldog to being named to the first-team, following Katherine Sunwall (2007), and Bobbi Suhr (2003).

Everybody's Doing It, Doing It

by: Joe Barnhart

Here's the break you've been looking for. The Federal Tort Claims Act, crafted by Capitol Hill dwarfs, enables you to file negligence claims against the Federal Government. No, seriously!! Do you crave financial freedom? Well, your ship has just docked at Easy Street Harbor, USA.

FACT: The Federal Government constantly screws up. Have you ever messed up, maybe left the coffee maker on or woke up in a sleazy hotel room with a complete stranger? Who hasn't? Thousands of government employees daily make similar knuckleheaded mistakes. Can you say, "Mother Lode?"

Sue over anything. A paper cut while filling out a tax return – NICE. Flu vaccine nearly kills you. – GREAT. EPA approved sewage treatment plant causes your marriage to disintegrate – CLASSIC. Census department has you listed as the wrong gender. – THOSE BULLIES. Trip over an uneven sidewalk while visiting the Lincoln Memorial – MENTAL ANGUISH BONANZA! Quite frankly, imbeciles are raking in $$$$$. Why shouldn't you?

With the settlement you deserve, it'll be an instant shopping spree: 2018 Lamborghini Gallardo (pearl yellow) = $442,015, smoothie processor = $432.89, tropical island w/boat ramp = $3.4 million, winter gloves = $12.95, a nuclear reactor = $783 million w/o coolant system, or the third-world country you've always wanted (Prices vary. Ask your dealer). Adds up quickly, doesn't it?

Where does the money come from? Gee, what a stupid question. Who cares?! With a generous pay out you'll be asking, "Will this money ever stop?" And why should it? You're a taxpayer, right? The Feds are flush with moola (Heck, they print the stuff!). Don't give it a second thought.

There's a myriad of legal professionals clamoring to represent you. Be treated like royalty in the comfort of an impeccably furnished office. Coffee, tea, or a chilled pilsner – they're yours for the asking. Depositions -- no problem. Travel expenses -- no charge. Legal tablets and sticky notes -- more plentiful than diaper rash irritating a taco-loaded toddler.

Don't delay! Act today! Be the first on your block to claim that pot of gold. Give into the most fundamental desire – GREED. An estimated 11 out of 10 people want to be filthy rich without lifting a finger. Only a do-gooder sap, embracing the antiquated social morals of the Carter Administration, would have any qualms about this fortuitous opportunity. Just remember, in the new Trump era, #It'sAllAboutYOU!

Bible Truth... God's Grace seen in both Old and New Testaments of the Bible (Part 3)

---We believe the following: (1) the Bible was given by the inspiration of God, 2 Timothy 3:16-17; (2) all statements made in this and any ensuing articles will be based on what the Bible says; (3) the Bible only is the reliable source of spiritual & doctrinal truth; (4) all beliefs in conflict with the Bible are false.

After God created Adam and Eve He revealed His grace (favor) toward them by communicating with them face to face, Genesis 3. He provided everything they needed to live. He gave them instructions and the freedom to obey or disobey. He made it clear that there would be severe consequences if they disobeyed, Genesis 3:15-17. The tree of life revealed God's grace toward man and His desire for man to have eternal life. The tree of the knowledge of good and evil represented the way of life apart from God under the influence of the devil, which is why He commanded them not to eat of it. Man's disobedience brought sin & death to mankind, Romans 5:12. This act brought a curse on the entire creation, Genesis 3:14-19. In spite of man's sin God's grace is evident in His act of banning man from eating fruit from the tree of life. If they had done so they would have lived forever in a condition of sin and condemnation. Even in sentencing man to death for disobedience God revealed His love, mercy and grace by prophesying of the Savior who would provide forgiveness & deliverance from sin, Genesis 3:15. Jesus Christ was the fulfilment of this prophecy, Galatians 3:19.

Since sin brought death into the world salvation has always been the same as illustrated by Abraham...by grace through faith. Romans 4:4 states that the one working to obtain righteousness would receive it as if it were a debt rather than a gift given by God's grace. In verse 5 it states, "But to him that works not, but believes on him that justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness."

Conclusion: Righteousness that brings salvation can only come by grace through faith, "Therefore it (righteousness) is of faith, that it might be by grace..." Romans 4:16a.
