Attorney General Tim Fox and Former Owners of The Rex Announce Gift Card Reimbursements

Last year, The Rex Restaurant closed after serving the Billings area for 34 years. Soon after closing, it became apparent many Rex customers still held valid gift cards. The Rex recently sold its assets, and the former restaurant and the Attorney General's Office of Consumer Protection (OCP) are announcing The Rex will reimburse all gift card owners who hold a valid gift card with an outstanding balance.

"After news of The Rex closing made its way around Billings, my Office of Consumer Protection received dozens of calls from consumers asking about their gift cards," said Attorney General Tim Fox. This announcement confirms valid gift card holders will be made whole and that The Rex kept its word.

People who possess a valid gift card should follow the instructions below. Consumers with questions may call the Office of Consumer Protection (OCP) at (406) 444-4500 or toll-free 1-800-481-6896. If you intend to make a claim, or if you have already filed a complaint with OCP, please refer to the instructions below:

INSTRUCTIONS:

To make a claim and receive payment for the value remaining on a valid The Rex gift card, please send all of the following via US Mail to The Rex Gift Card Reimbursement, c/o Moulton Bellingham P.C., PO Box 2559, Billings, MT 59103-2559:

1. The original gift card(s) for which you are seeking reimbursement (please retain a photocopy until reimbursement is received).
2. A written and signed statement from the cardholder including:
 - a. Full name;
 - b. Mailing address;
 - c. Phone number and/or email address; and
 - d. The amounts believed to be remaining on the gift card(s).

To ensure you receive reimbursement, the above information must be received no later than May 25, 2018. Consumers should not contact the law firm directly about the gift cards.

Upon receipt of all the above listed items, The Rex shall issue reimbursement via US Mail in full satisfaction and release of the remaining verified gift card(s) amount(s). To the extent there are issues with the verification of a gift card or amount, The Rex will contact consumers directly to resolve any questions.

BCHS TENNIS REPORT

A report from head coach Lois Woodard states that with only 10 days of practice for the boys' and girls' tennis teams, they made a terrific showing for the first meet of the season. Playing in weather less than perfect with wind, snow and temps in the high 30's they showed true grit with the boys' lineup losing only one match to Stevi and returning Varsity girls winning their singles and doubles matches. Challenge matches will continue in the weeks ahead to determine the varsity lineups with much potential for depth in the boys lineup especially. The Beavers next meet will be held in Polson April 6 and 7 competing against Whitefish, Columbia Falls and host Polson.

Reasons NOT to Take a Guy Shopping

By: Joe Barnhart

Don't ask me why, but the other day I accompanied my wife shopping for a dress. I consider her semi-normal but after an eternity (roughly two hours Earth time) I was having doubts. Take a guy shopping and here's what you'll find:

He's not serious. Guys are concerned about sports and some brands of deodorants. Stuck in the Women's Outerwear section and within minutes he'll start wiggling like he's going to leave a puddle on the floor.

He lacks mission focus. The guy wants a low-cut, swanky dress with lace up sides but the goal was a birth-control jumper verging on nun apparel. You come out of the changing room hungry for oohs and ahhhhhs. Yet he's skedaddled to the giant flat-screen TV section.

He's scary. Face it, a baseball capped, flannel-shirted guy clumsily staggering through the lingerie section makes even a feral hamster feel creepy. Women will flee like cockroaches from a burning dumpster.

He is easily confused. Women's clothing measurements, including Vanity sizing, mean nothing. There's Misses, Petite, Junior, Regular Petite, Abnormal Young Junior Misses, and Mutant Junior Petite Quadraped. It's 'Confuse-O-Rama'. I thought "D-cup" was a free coffee mug promotion.

He shops to conquer. Guys ask simple questions like, "Does it fit?" Women bask in the shopping moment. Rushing that is similar to lighting a haystack doused with aviation fuel.

He never tries on clothes. A guy trying on clothes is like having him ask for directions. Women's "try on clothes" stamina can reach to the 'End-of-Days' - which to a guy, is roughly 42 minutes.

He no speak the language. He has no clue what a chemise or camisole is (he would perk up if you mentioned a bra). Women's clothing doesn't make sense, proven by the fact a silk blouse features shoulder pads but no helmet.

He whines. Guys will cling like leeches on a Mississippi swamp hound, constantly whining, "Are you ready?" Instinctively you want to slap him silly but will refrain because you know deep inside he has the maturity of a sniveling third grader.

Guys don't get shopping. Two hours and a he has a blank stare, spittle oozing from his gaping mouth, with one eye uncontrollably twitching. Am I going clothes shopping again with my wife? Is lame a good choice for workout shorts? (I can't believe I wrote that!) I can't wait to find a size -2, Yak wool, dropped chest, anti-symmetrical waist casual career evening dress. My advice: leave the guy home. You can thank me later.
