THANK YOU

The family of Verona Nettik Eby cannot begin to thank the many people who were blessings to her and to us. It was because of the many angels we were able to keep her home with us until Jesus came for her. First we would like to thank Dr Sandra McIntyre for giving us 14 more years with her. Marie Holt and her awesome/ team, Nancy, Gina, Cindy, Debbie & Laurie who helped immeasurably and came at the drop of a call.We'd like to thank Dr Singer for making/ fitting her a set of bottom teeth quickly when hers got lost in a hospital visit. The many, many people who ministered to us with meals & treats and to Mary Sturgeon (the Piano Lady) who continued to pray and lighten the Spiritual load. A special thanx to LouRae Myhyre-Weber who captured Verona perfectly in her memorial. Julie Briggs for guiding and helping us through the process.The Dillon Elks and Roger & Verna Cleverly for a very special luncheon. The many people who sent cards/flowers and condolences are much appreciated. Again all we can say is THANK YOU - Dillon is a beautiful town.

Council Meeting March 21, 2018

By: MJ

Present: Councilman Hand, Schwandt, Garry, Nye, Shafer, Graham and Councilwoman O'Rourke.

Councilwoman Katie Barba resigned her position as a Ward 4 representative do to personal reasons. Being a council representative requires countless hours. Members are required to serve on several committees that meet regularly as well as the council meetings every two week. They are presented with packets prior to council meetings that they must read and become familiar with before the meeting. These packets include committee meeting minutes, statutes, regulations, informational papers, financial statements…

HB473 requires Mt. Dept of Transportation to allocate accrued funds to cities, town, counties for construction maintenance and more of alleys, bridges, roads, streets… The city must request distribution and explain how and where the city would use the funds.

Council decided the city would not move the two buildings at the high school that will be torn down. At one time the city was considering disassembling these buildings and reconstructing them at the lagoon. After research, it was found that constructing new buildings would be more cost effective. Council voted to move forward with new buildings.

City Attorney Dolan spoke of a contract that would be needed with the city before the splash pad could be built. The pad must be approved by ADA and other entities. identify prevailing wages to be paid., how donations would be managed…

Director of Operations: Mr. Hazelbaker reported the street and alley crew are getting ready for spring. The ice skating rink will be taken down within the next couple of weeks. Water and sewer department continues to use the new GIS system to mark manholes throughout the community, working on a couple manhole issues and several leaks.

Cemetery: Councilman Hand explained the board was working with Vets to expand an area for "single men" lots. He presented pictures of the new monument that the American Legion Post #20 in Dillon will erect. Council approved. Hand reported there will be a tree maintenance program that will prune, remove old dangerous trees, and plant new ones. The cemetery committee works closely with the Tree Board.

Citizen Requests: Several pages of requests were addressed by the council from stray cats to be trapped, rabbits defecating in yards, dog problems, ice removal, vehicles traveling to fast, tree branches broken, garbage can overflow, property owners not shoveling snow from sidewalks…

City Hall Repairs: Council approved for the City Hall committee to go ahead and get bids for city hall roof repairs. The repairs are a necessity as there has been leaks.

Development, Improvements, and Enhancements

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks (FWP) proposes to acquire a Recreational Use Permit from Montana Department of Transportation on .79 acres of land in Dillon, MT to facilitate the development of a Fishing Access Site (FAS).

The property sits on the east side of the Beaverhead River adjacent to the Selway Bridge on the north side of Dillon. Once FWP secures the use permit, they will develop an MOU with Beaverhead Trails Coalition (BTC), who would improve and maintain the area as a FAS/public park.

The Selway Bridge property has long been used by the public as an access point to the Beaverhead River and currently has a pioneered loop road, pull-outs and boat launch, but the lack of formalized parking and engineered boat ramp has detracted from its recreational value and has resulted in some resource damage. Recognizing this, BTC, MDT, and FWP have partnered together to help improve the site, whereby MDT would offer a Recreational Use Permit at no charge to FWP, FWP would hold the permit and improve the existing boat ramp, and BTC would provide for the other necessary site improvements such as re-grading the loop road and creating formalized parking areas, as well as reclaiming pioneered areas and providing regular maintenance of the site.

The proposed project would improve recreational opportunities for fishing, boating, floating, picnicking, and wildlife viewing along the popular Beaverhead River. This EA is available for review in Helena at FWP's Headquarters, the State Library, and the Environmental Quality Council. It also may be obtained from FWP at the address provided above or viewed on FWP's internet website: http://www.fwp.mt.gov .

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks invites you to comment on the attached proposal. Public comment will be accepted until April 4 @ 5:00 pm.

Your Easter Assignment: Study to Show Thyself Approved

Tyrades! by Danny Tyree

In the nearly 43 years since my baptism, I have never really experienced a crisis of faith. But I'll admit that aggravating little questions have lurked in the corners of my mind.

For instance, I accept that God could create a great fish to swallow Jonah and release him alive three days later; but - realizing how difficult it is to get everyone to agree to ANYTHING - I always wondered how this lone Israelite prophet could then convince the entire Assyrian city of Nineveh to repent and stave off God's judgment.

Then I read the book "The Authenticity of the Book of Jonah," by Bill Cooper. Information gleaned from history and archaeology made the reason for Jonah's phenomenal success blindingly obvious. Cooper's books about Judges and Daniel have also made it easier for me to defend those accounts as history, not myths.

Ah, but those are all Old Testament books. At this time of year, people are more focused (positively, negatively or fence-straddlingly) on the central event of the New Testament: the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth.

I realize that even people with some grudging acceptance of a Supreme Being may have a hard time believing that (a) God sent his Son to be born of a virgin, (b) God would allow that Son to die on the cross for our sins, (c) God would have the power to restore that Son to life and (d) the teachings and miracles of Jesus could be accurately preserved for a 21st century audience.

But the Gospel message doesn't have to be something that is hard to understand or embarrassing to share.

You can be armed with well-researched, logically argued books that answer alleged contradictions, counter bald-faced skeptic lies and reassure you about God's plan for mankind.

Among the most helpful books I've found are "The True Jesus: Uncovering the Divinity of Christ In the Gospels" (by David Limbaugh), "The Wrong Jesus" (by Greg Monette) and "Conspiracies and the Cross: How To Intelligently Counter the Ten Most Popular Theories That Attack the Gospel of Jesus" (by Timothy Paul Jones); but the available resources go far beyond those examples.

I love books, always have. But page-turners about collectible hatpins or shortcuts in underwater basket weaving or the sex life of James Dean are mere vanity in the Big Picture. Books like the ones I'm recommending can affect the eternal fate of you and those you have an influence over.

I write with urgency because, while Jesus enlisted his disciples to be "fishers of men," too many Christians and potential Christians have instead fallen hook, line and sinker for all the "lost gospels" and conspiracy theories that invariably enrich dishonest "scholars" every Christmas and Easter.

Exchanges of "He is risen" and "He is risen, indeed" used to be mainstream greetings, but their continued existence cannot be taken for granted.

Even though religion continues to exist 136 years after Friedrich Nietzsche declared "God is dead," the enemies of the church are playing the long game. They patiently trivialize and stigmatize Christianity, slowly but surely making the call to repentance seem irrelevant or non-urgent.

Yes, wear your spring finery and hide some Easter eggs. But more importantly, buy yourself and your church library stacks of Christian apologetics books, before the arrogant opponents of Christ can chortle, "He is silenced; he is silenced, indeed."
