Montana. They are described as, "simultaneously modern, vintage and unique". From Canada, Trisha Gagnon will bring her vocals and gorgeous three-part harmonies to the stage. Using an unusual style on the five-string banjo, Nick Hornbuckle , a nominee for the Canadian Folk Music Award in 2015, will bring his love of "old-time gems". Greg Spatz is a world-class bluegrass fiddler, and Patrick Sauber will round out the group with "firecracker" guitar and harmony singing. Tickets are $12 per person and available at the Beaverhead County Museum or at the door before the performance. Reservations can be made by calling 683-5027.

"The Roots of American Music Concert Series "will be bringing at least one other concert to Dillon this spring. Blaine Sprouse and Friends will be performing on May 31st at the Old Depot Theatre. The museum theatre has become recognized by musicians and audiences as a wonderfully intimate venue with sterling acoustics. "We are so pleased to have Corinne, and Best of the West Properties, as a partner in preserving old-time traditions and newer expressions born out of historical music," says Jean James, Deputy Director for the museum. "I hope this series will become an annual offering each spring."

Our goal—a world free of MS

We've formed a team for Walk MS—an event that brings together a community of passionate people to connect and raise funds to change the world for everyone affected by multiple sclerosis. We'd welcome your generous support as we prepare for this incredible experience.

When you make a donation, you are changing the world for people affected by MS. Symptoms of MS range from numbness and tingling to blindness and paralysis. The progress, severity and specific symptoms of MS in any one person cannot yet be predicted, but advances in research and treatment are leading to better understanding and moving us closer to a world free of MS. Most people with MS are diagnosed between the ages of 20 and 50, with at least two to three times more women than men being diagnosed with the disease. MS affects more than 2.3 million worldwide, and there is not yet a cure. Every dollar raised matters to those affected by MS. Thank you for your support.

Learn more at walkMS.org Want to join our team ?

We'd love to have you. Come walk with us and share in an experience that will change lives----including your own.
