MT TeenVax Challenge is back!

The 2018 MT TeenVax Challenge is part of a multi-year campaign that focuses on increasing awareness about the importance of teen vaccines. The Challenge is in partnership with the Montana Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics, the Montana Academy of Family Physicians, Blue Cross Blue Shield of Montana Care Van program and the Montana Immunization Program.

Parents/guardians of 11-17 year olds can enter their teen into a drawing for a $50 Amazon gift card if they have received at least one Tdap, one MCV4, and one HPV. To qualify, the immunizations need to be administered and the entry received by October 31, 2018. However, the immunizations do not have to be administered in 2018. They could have been received in previous years.

One gift card will be awarded in Beaverhead County. The deadline for entry for the 2018 drawing is October 31, 2018. Winners will be announce in November 2018. Parents/guardians can enter the drawing through the Montana Immunization Program webpage at www.immunization.mt.gov, and then selecting MT TeenVax.

If you have questions whether your teen has received the recommended vaccines, please call Beaverhead County Public Health at 683-4771.

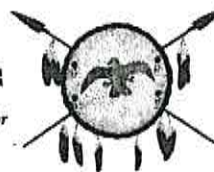

CLICK IT OR TICKET CRACKDOWN KICKS OFF WITH BORDER TO BORDER SEAT BELT CAMPAIGN

To kick off the 2018 Click It or Ticket seat belt initiative with the highest level of support, the Montana Highway Patrol is partnering with the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) to participate in Border to Border (B2B), a one-day national seat belt awareness event coordinated by participating state highway safety offices and their respective law enforcement liaisons. The B2B program aims to increase law enforcement presence by coordinating highly visible seat belt enforcement at heavily traveled and highly visible state border checkpoints. The B2B event will be held Monday, May 21, from 4-8PM, kicking off the Click It or Ticket week, which runs through June 3 and covers the busy Memorial Day holiday weekend.

"Past Border to Border initiatives have helped us spread the message about the importance of buckling up," said Major Lavin. The focus of B2B is on the evening hours, during which seat belt use is at its lowest. "We are working across state lines to do all that we can to keep our drivers and passengers safe. Wearing a seat belt is the number one thing that a person can do to help prevent death or injury during a vehicle crash," Lavin said.

The B2B program is also a successful study in collaboration between local law enforcement offices: During the 2017 B2B program, participating law enforcement offices issued citations for 5,695 seat belt and child car seat violations, as well as 14,619 citations for other traffic infractions. This, in turn, impacts future driving behaviors for the better.

According to NHTSA, nearly half (48%) of the passenger vehicle occupants killed in crashes in 2016 were unrestrained. At night from 6 p.m. to 5:59 a.m., that number soared to 56 percent of those killed. That's why one focus of this year's B2B and Click It or Ticket campaigns is evening enforcement. During the week of Click It or Ticket, participating law enforcement agencies will be taking a no-excuses approach to seat belt enforcement, writing citations day and night.

"In 2016/17, we lost 183 people in Montana because they did not buckle their seat belts," said Major Lavin. Almost twice as many males were killed in crashes as compared to females, with lower belt use rates, too. Of the males killed in crashes, nationally, in 2016 more than half (52%) were unrestrained. For females killed in crashes, 40 percent were not buckled up.

"If you know a friend or a family member who does not buckle up when they drive, please ask them to consider changing their habits," said Lavin. "Help us spread this life-saving message before one more friend or family member is killed as a result of this senseless inaction. Seat belts save lives, and everyone—front seat and back, child and adult—needs to remember to buckle up—every trip, every time."

Little Hogback-Meyers Salvage Project Open House to be held June 7

The Pintler Ranger District of the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest is proposing a timber salvage project in the Little Hogback and Meyers fire areas. The proposed project would salvage 1,531 acres of dead and dying timber mostly along Forest Roads, however, the proposed project would require the construction of 3.4 miles of temporary road in the Little Hogback area. The Forest has released the proposed action and preliminary effects review document for public review, initiating a 30 day comment review period.

The purpose of the Little Hogback-Meyers Salvage Project is to protect the health and safety of the public, recover the remaining forest product's economic value and benefit and restore portions of the landscape burned by the fires of 2017. Removal of the burned trees would also prepare the area for safe and timely reforestation with desired early seral tree species. Reforestation would expedite the re-establishment of a forested landscape where the natural seed source was lost or severely damaged by the fire. These actions are needed because existing conditions within the project area are currently not meeting Forest Plan standards and objectives due to effects from wildfires.

A public open house will be held Thursday, June 7 from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Granite County Museum located at 135 South Sansome Street in Philipsburg. "This meeting will introduce interested people to the salvage project proposal and gather their thoughts on our proposal as we start the environmental analysis process," Pintler District Ranger Cameron Rasor said. Team members will be available at the open house to discuss more details and/or answer any questions people may have about this project.

For those interested in this proposed project, go online to <https://www.fs.usda.gov/project/?project=53959> to review the proposed action and supporting documents. For more information about the project or open house, contact the Pintler Ranger District at (406) 859-3211.

BCHS TENNIS NEWS

The Beaver boys and girls tennis team traveled to Lewistown Friday, May 11 to participate in the Fergus Invitational with 5 other schools; Park, Belgrade, Havre, Hardin and Fergus. In spite of the washed out Friday afternoon matches, the Beavs were able to take on Fergus, Park, and Havre in 8 game pro sets on Saturday under damp, but playable conditions. In singles Brad Rakich, Matt Knight, Sam Jones, Nicole Hritsco, and Quinn Belderrain all were undefeated.

BCHS / PARK

Park could only field 4 positions so other schools to fill in: Nate Leonardson lost 8-0, Brad Rakich won 8-2, Matt Knight won 8-2, Sam Jones won 8-4, all doubles boys lost.

Ashlyn Sandall lost 8-6, Nicole Hritsco won 8-1, Quinn Belderrain won 8-0 and Chiara Mastandrea lost 8-1, all doubles girls lost with Nicole Hritsco and Ashlyn Sandall going into a tie breaker after 9-8 (7-1).
