"Trail of Trees" Tour
Thursday Evening, June 14 at 6:30 PM

On Thursday June 14 the Dillon Tree Board will partner with the Dillon Trails Coalition and Bike Walk Montana Inc. on a "Trail of Trees" tour of some of Dillon's most beautiful trees. The tour will start at 6:30 PM at Jaycee Park. People interested in walking or biking the "Trail of Trees" are welcome to participate. There is no charge for the tour, just come and enjoy some light exercise, have fun, and learn about the different species of trees that can be found here in Dillon. The tour will break down into two groups, those wanting to hike the trail and those that want to bike it.

The Tree Board published the "Trail of Trees" in 2017 as an outreach and educational promotion to promote the benefits and importance of trees, and to educate the public on some of the unique tree species that grow in Dillon. There are 13 different species of trees along the trail. Come and learn about their interesting history and characteristics. The tour will take approximately 30 - 45 minutes to complete. The "Trail of Trees" brochure can be found at your local nurseries, City Hall, Chamber of Commerce and on line at www.dillontrees.org Copies of the brochure will be passed out before the tour begins. Come join us for a fun, and educational evening. If you have questions please contact Jason or Tim at 406-683-6305.

Glendale St. Choose one of three sessions to attend. 1st session starts at 1 pm. 2nd session starts at 2 pm. 3rd session starts at 3 pm. We anticipate each session lasting approximately 40 minutes. Trail Work Day scheduled for June 9th from 9-12

We will be working on an exciting new trail that will have an easier grade to the top of Tim's Ridge and will also be installing a couple of gates to make the access easier, so you won't have to crawl over, around or through the barbed wire fence.

"Let's meet at the Dillon Town Overlook Trailhead on Ten Mile Road at 9 am. If you arrive after 9, you'll find us on Tim's Ridge trail: the parking lot, head North-West through the fence and turn left at the snake junction." map at https://www.beaverheadtrails.org/events/

Bring tools, especially shovels, if you can. We have some Montana Youth Challenge cadets coming and also some people with trail building skills for guidance. We'll have water and snacks for everyone and we have our fingers crossed that the weather will cooperate.

Camping in Bear Country

The Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest has finally thawed after a long winter, and we're all ready to revel in the summer months ahead. However, grizzly and black bears are also taking advantage of the warm weather and will be catching up on feeding through late fall. While you're out recreating in the forest this year, always be bear aware!

The Beaverhead-Deerlodge NF has a food storage ordinance requiring proper storage of all attractants. As more and more people are living and recreating in bear habitat and allowing bears to gain access to human food, there will be a higher rate of unwanted bear encounters. Once bears are food conditioned they are often removed from the ecosystem due to negative human-bear interactions (human safety). The only way to prevent this is to keep all attractive items with a smell away from the reach of bears.

To store attractants away from bears: 1) put in a hard-sided vehicles with windows and doors shut and locked; 2) store in a certified bear-resistant container; 3) hang in a tree 10 feet above the ground and four feet from supporting structures. Remember, regular coolers are not bear-resistant! Attractants include food, refuse, sealed cans and bottles, alcoholic beverages, hygiene products, pet food, fish parts, and chainsaw bar oil. Where possible, camp 100 yards from attractant storage and cooking areas.

Several campgrounds have bear resistant food storage lockers available for campers to use. Remember to remove your food and trash from these lockers when you are done camping. Officials also recommend changing your clothes before going to bed. Often smells from cooking food linger on the clothes worn while cooking and are considered an attractant to bears.

Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest Offices have a popular bear-resistant container loaner program to help forest visitors comply with food storage regulations. Forest visitors can check out bear-resistant horse panniers, backpacking "bear barrels" and the popular yet cost-prohibitive bear-resistant coolers for planned outings.

When hiking in the woods, your best defense is bear spray. Here are some tips on how to effectively use your bear spray: draw it from an accessible location; remove the safety cap and press the trigger; spray at 30-60 feet away; aim slightly down and adjust for crosswinds; discharge the spray in front of the bear's face; the spray will create a cloud in front of you; keep spraying until the bear changes direction. It is also a good idea to carry two canisters of bear spray if you are travelling alone. When you buy a can of bear spray, make sure is clearly marked for use against bears, not humans, and replace it when it has exceeded its expiration date.

Be prepared to play dead if attacked by a grizzly bear or to fight back in a predatory encounter (when a bear is following you or approaching unsurprised and unprovoked) with either bear species. Bear spray has proven to be extremely effective at preventing injury in 98% of encounters. Statistics show that people who use firearms against bears show the same rates of injury or death as if they had not used their gun at all. Remember that you can expect to see black bears and grizzly bears anywhere on the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest.

For information about local regulations or about bears, go to the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest website at www.fs.usda.gov/bdnf, or stop by a local Forest Service office.
