folk songs performed live in tribute to first responders who have been struck down while working on the roadway. The man who built the casket, veteran singer, songwriter Mike Corbin, is on hand to sing the Spirit Ride's anthem, Bless the Spirit Riders.

Processions of up to 100 trucks follow the casket which carries the message, Slow Down, Move Over. There is a Move Over law in each state of the Union, designed to protect first responders and other roadside workers, but according to the National Safety Commission, 71% of Americans are not aware of this law.

The Spirit Ride has been generating TV, Radio, Print and Internet media coverage of its ceremonies and processions all across America, and most importantly its message of Slow Down, Move Over.

RELAY FOR LIFE 2018

Relay for Life committee members are not planning to walk around a track in Dillon this year. Instead, they will travel to Butte to participate in their Relay for Life event inside the Civic Center on September 23rd. Community members that would like to sign up can go online to relayforlife.org to register for the walk that is planned from 11:00 am-8:00 pm.

Area sponsors are still needed for the team named the Dillon Survivors and Caregivers. There will be a FUNdraiser at Pizza Hut on Tuesday, July 17th in Dillon. Twenty percent of all orders from 5-9 pm will be donated to the team, whether they are dine-in, carry-out, or delivery. You are also able to buy Pizza Hut gold cards from team members or at 3-D and Womack's Printing. The gold cards have coupon savings to use for one year.

Relay for Life is a fundraiser for the American Cancer Society, to assist those diagnosed with cancer, as well as fund research. Relay is taking on a new look across the state and nation. The traditional walk is being replaced with golf tournaments, car shows, fun runs, and brewfests. Dillon will continue to recognize the survivors of cancer with the annual Survivor Dinner to be held this fall. There are plans to sell the popular luminaria for that event to honor loved ones.

Organizers are hoping to bring Relay for Life back to Dillon next year. Anyone interested in helping with events this year, donating to the team, or planning for next year, can call Judy Westfall at 683-8832. Those seeking assistance from Relay for Life funds may call 1-800-227-2345.

City Maintenance and Hydro Flushing

Also, the City will be doing maintenance on the sewer system during the next couple of months. They will be hydro flushing the sewer lines. Please do not hesitate to call the City at 683-4245 if you have any questions.
