Joyce Corning Hahnkamp, 86

Joyce Corning Hahnkamp, 86, of Melrose, MT passed away Sunday, July 15, 2018 with her family by her side. Joyce was born March 29, 1932 to Harry and Virginia Corning in Casper, Wyoming. Her father purchased a ranch on the Big Hole River and moved his family there in 1942 and ranched while also operating businesses in Billings and Casper. Joyce attended grade school in Melrose and later graduated from High School in Billings. She then attended the University of Montana.

In 1957, while working in Miles City at the Veterans Hospital, she met and married Charles Hahnkamp, the love of her life. They started their endearing adventure ranching together on the Tongue River south of Miles City. After the birth of their first son, Lee, they moved to Joyce's family's ranch on the Big Hole where she worked as hard as any man. She loved every moment of riding, working cows, calving, haying, raising chickens and geese, while raising their two sons, Lee and Jay. She could make the most delicious meals out of whatever she had on hand, and still found time to read and work on her oil paintings. Her "timeout" was her Wednesday night bowling league with the girls, which continued for 25 years!

Charlie and Joyce spent many years and countless miles side by side traveling to rodeos. Joyce competed in barrel racing, and then watched as her sons competed in rodeo and then her grandsons. She truly was a generational rodeo mom! Joyce's presence was always known at her grandkids' events, whether it was cheering from the sidelines of a basketball or volleyball game or from the bleachers at a rodeo. She was their #1 fan. A highlight of her life was working as a horse wrangler and providing stock in the filming of Return to Lonesome Dove. Another highlight was riding side saddle in the Diamond Jubilee in eastern Montana.

Joyce was an extremely smart woman with a sharp-witted sense of humor. She had strong opinions on many topics and wasn't afraid to speak her mind. She lived a cowgirl's life, married to her forever cowboy.

Joyce was preceded in death by her parents. She is survived by her loving husband of 61 years, Charles Hahnkamp, and sons Lee (Dalene) Hahnkamp of Dillon, Jay (Denise) Hahnkamp of Melrose. She is also survived by six grandchildren, Mandy Hahnkamp of Dillon, Darcy (Matt) Schuetz of El Dorado KS, Samantha (JR) Davis of Great Falls, MT, Charlee (Matt) Reed of North Pole, Alaska, Dillon and Cord Hahnkamp of Melrose and seven great grandchildren. Joyce is also survived by her brother Jim (Joanne) Corning of Billings, MT and sister Nancy Pendergast of Hamilton, MT, and held a special place in her heart for her many nieces and nephews and their families.

A memorial service will be held Sunday, August 5, 2018 at the Church of the Big Hole in Melrose, MT at 2:00 pm with a reception to follow.

Attorney General Fox Joins FTC and Other States to Combat Fraudulent Veterans, Service Members Charities

Montana Attorney General Tim Fox joins the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) and law enforcement officials and charity regulators from every state, the District of Columbia, American Samoa, Guam and Puerto Rico in announcing "Operation Donate with Honor," a sweeping new donor education campaign to help donors spot and avoid fundraising solicitations that falsely promise their donations will help veterans and service members. The new campaign is released in conjunction with announcements of new and recent law enforcement actions by the FTC and many states.

"Every year, grateful Americans repay the sacrifices made by those who serve in the U.S. armed forces with contributions to charities that promise to deliver needed help and services to veterans and service members," Attorney General Tim Fox said. "Most of these charities live up to fundraising promises, but a few attract donations by lying about services not actually delivered. In the process, they harm not only well-meaning donors, but also the many legitimate charities engaged in important work on behalf of veterans and service members."

Operation Donate with Honor was developed by the FTC and the National Association of State Charity Officials (NASCO), the association of state offices charged with oversight of charitable organizations and charitable solicitations in the United States. The initiative pairs enforcement actions with an education campaign to help consumers recognize charitable solicitation fraud and to identify legitimate charities. This includes a new video that highlights tips on how to research charities and give wisely to veterans organizations.

Veterans fundraising fraud schemes target potential donors online, via telemarketing, direct mail, door-to-door contacts, and at retail stores, falsely promising to help homeless and disabled veterans, to provide veterans with employment counseling, mental health counseling or other assistance, and to send care packages to deployed service members. Many schemes solicit nationwide.

When donating to charity, Attorney General Fox advises:

- Ask for the charity's name, website, and physical location;
- Ask how much of any donation will go to the charitable program you want to support;
- Search the charity's name online with the word "scam" or "complaint."
- See what other people say about it;
- Check out the charity's ratings at the Wise Giving Alliance, Charity Watch, or Charity Navigator;
- Never pay with cash, a gift card, or by wiring money; and
- Consider paying by credit card, which is the safest option for

Bible Truth...Satanic statements that lead to eternal punishment

(#88)

---We believe the following: (1) the Bible was given by the inspiration of God, 2 Timothy 3:16-17; (2) all statements made in this and any ensuing articles will be based on what the Bible says; (3) the Bible only is the reliable source of spiritual & doctrinal truth; (4) all beliefs in conflict with the Bible are false.

Jesus states of the devil in John 8:44 that, "...there is no truth in him...he is a liar, and the father of it."

One of Satan's greatest lies is that as long as you are sincere in what you believe, God will grant you an entrance into heaven. But God's word clearly teaches that believing in Jesus Christ (John 3:18) is an absolute necessity to escape the condemnation of the eternal punishment referred to in Revelation 20:15.

A warning from God regarding man's thinking in Proverbs 16:25, "There is a way that seems right to man; but the end thereof are the ways of death."

The Hindu is sincere, Sun-worshippers are sincere, Muslims are sincere, but God's states in 1 John 5:11-12, "And this is the record, that God has given to us eternal life, and that life is in His son, he that has the Son has life, and he that has not the Son of God shall not see life." Repentance of sin is also required by God as recorded in Luke 13:3-5. From these references it is obvious that sincerity only counts if it is based God's command to repentance & faith in Jesus Christ.

Another lie is that we just have to live a good life. That may sound like a good philosophy, but how good is good enough and who determines the standard? God inspired Paul to make it clear in Romans 3:10 & 13 that all are sinners, stating that "...there is none righteous, no, not one..." and "...there is none that does good, no, not one."

Acts 4:12 makes it clear that neither sincerity nor goodness brings spiritual salvation mankind. It can only be accomplished by belief in the crucified, risen Christ: "Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is no other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved."
