MONTANA WESTERN RANKED AMONG THE BEST ONLINE COLLEGES IN MONTANA

The University of Montana Western was recently ranked second among the top ten "Best Online Colleges in Montana for 2018" by OnlineColleges.com, an education information resource. The ranking is based on factors including graduation, acceptance and retention rates. UMW was also listed first among the site's most affordable online four-year colleges in the state.

The University of Montana Western offers multiple career advancement and certification courses online through the School of Outreach, which has been providing industry, healthcare and teacher professional development opportunities for 40 years. These offerings provide flexibility for rural Montanans and extend Montana Western's unique experiential learning model, called Experience One, through its online degree programming by requiring students to "practice what they learn" in their respective environments.

U.S. News & World Report has also bestowed The University of Montana Western, a public institution founded in 1893, with several impressive rankings in the Western region. The rankings include #8 in Best Regional Colleges, #4 in Top Public Schools, #5 in Best Value Schools, and #6 in Best Colleges for Veterans. One of the most unique aspects of Montana Western is the Experience One program, an innovative scheduling system that allows students to focus on a single course at a time.

For more information about the University of Montana Western's online learning opportunities, please contact School of Outreach Program Coordinator Ryann Gibson by email at ryann.gibson@umwestern.edu or call 406-683-7304.

Racetrack Road Temporarily Closed for Public Travel

The Pintler Ranger District will temporarily close Racetrack Road (#169) to all vehicle traffic July 25 through July 30.

This popular road has been closed to full sized vehicles after high water flows from rains in June 2017 washed out a short segment. Flood waters eroded the slope and caused substantial damage reducing the road by more than half its original width. The washout occurred approximately two miles west of Racetrack Campground. Once the repair work is completed, the road will be opened to full sized vehicle travel into the scenic area for all types of recreation. Racetrack cabin will not be available for rental until July 31.

The road work will utilize large rock found on site to create a riprap wall with large bank barbs and vanes incorporated into the structure which will reduce flow of 19.2018 sediment downstream into high quality fish habitat while maintaining natural stream function.

For additional information contact the Pintler Ranger District at (406) 859-3211.

Be Civil, by George!

By Tom Purcell

"Can you believe that a man dumped a drink on a teenager because the teenager's baseball cap favored the president? What's happening to civil discourse in our country?"

"That's a question on a lot of people's minds. Our political discourse is at a fever pitch. Like or dislike President Trump, his sharp rhetoric isn't helping matters."

"So what if he attacks his opponents with nasty comments and tweets? He's a rough-and-tumble New Yorker fighting back the way New Yorkers do!"

"Maybe so, but a president has the power to set the tone, and the tone President Trump is setting is getting people fired up. Other political leaders are also stepping over the line. But the truth is civil discourse has been on the decline for years."

"If you say so, you jerk!"

"Psychology Today reports on a recent study that found people are rudier to each other online for the simple reason that they don't make eye contact, as they do in face-to-face discussions."

"That explains why so many dirty rats leave nasty remarks on my Facebook posts!"

"Look, it's easy to be rude. Being civil and polite requires effort. Civility is the cornerstone of all well-functioning societies."

"Says who?"

"Did you know the word 'etiquette' originated under Louis XIV in the 1600s? Etiquette and manners define what social behavior is and isn't proper."

"I ain't following rules drafted up by snooty old French people!"

"Then consider someone nearer and dearer to your heart: As a teenager, George Washington hand-copied 'The Rules of Civility,' a list started by French Jesuits in the 1590s that was translated into English around 1640."

"His mother probably put him up to it!"

"Washington's 110 rules are still relevant. Here's one that we all should heed: 'Show not yourself glad at the misfortune of another though he were your enemy.'"

"You mean we ought to stop posting items on Facebook that gleefully celebrate election losses by our most reviled politicians?"

"Something like that. Here's another Washington rule that we ought to heed: 'Speak not injurious words neither in jest nor earnest. Scoff at none although they give occasion.'"

"If Trump heeded that advice, he'd have to shut down his Twitter account!"

"Washington's rules include this one about the company we keep: 'Associate yourself with men of good quality if you esteem your own reputation. For 'tis better to be alone than in bad company."

"If people started doing that, Congress would have nobody to talk to!"

"You get the point. Look, Judith Martin, better known as Miss Manners, says good manners are the philosophical basis of civilization, that it's essential folks have a common language of civil behavior that restrains their impulses."

"But impulsiveness is my favorite hobby!"
"She says that what used to be an insult is now called slander. What used to be meanness is now called hate speech.
What used to be boorishness is now called sexual harassment.
If the rules of civility and etiquette were stronger, fewer people would engage in actions that are now considered crimes. We all can and must do better. Civility and incivility are contagious.
If we want more civility, we each need to practice it. And press our political leaders to do likewise - by George!"

"Slander, meanness and boorishness is against the law?
There goes the weekend!"
