Charles "Charlie" Calvin Zimdars

Charles "Charlie" Calvin Zimdars passed away July 25th, 2018. He was born August 5th, 1981 in Billings, Montana to Calvin Charles Zimdars and Lorie Waller Zimdars.

In 1989, Charlie's family moved from Circle, Montana to Polaris, Montana where many childhood adventures were created on the ranch. Charlie attended Polaris Rural School until 8th grade. He was a 2000 graduate of Beaverhead County High School. After graduation, the passion to farm was strong and he began working for his grandparents, Helen and Gordy Waller and Uncle Harold Waller in Circle, Montana. In 2003, Charlie began taking courses at Montana Tech in Butte. Charlie made honor roll several semesters while attending Montana Tech. However, the need to be outside won over sitting in a classroom any day of the week. The passion to farm and ranch was calling him home and he decided to return to the family ranch in Polaris, Montana in 2005. Charlie took on many responsibilities at the farm and ranch. Many friends and neighbors took notice of his hard work ethic and enthusiasm to get a job done right while on the ranch.

In the spring of 2006, Charlie met his future wife, Dawn (Spath) Zimdars, at the Grasshopper Inn after she complimented him on his patched jeans that his Grandma Helen had mended for him. Charlie and Dawn married on October 11th, 2008 in Dillon, Montana. In April 2010, Charlie and Dawn welcomed their first child, Lyle, into their hearts and lives. They completed their family with the surprising arrival of their twins, Anne and Koy in October 2015. Charlie loved his children passionately and patiently--always providing for them.

Charlie was an outdoor enthusiast. Some of his favorite hobbies were fishing, snowmobiling, tinkering with and driving his old 1965 Chevy C10 pickup from his Dad, and froggin' with his brother and sister at Crystal Park. When the opportunity arose, exploring new country on dirt bikes with his brother, Jay and son, Lyle was a favorite way to spend a day off.

Charlie was kind, caring, had a quick wit, and a knack for telling a good story. Charlie was a jack of all trades. He would tinker and craft many projects for his family and friends. One year for Christmas, everyone received a "Charlie-made" horseshoe coat hanger that was a moose.

Charlie worked for several different places in Dillon over the years. He enjoyed his time working at East Bench Irrigation District until 2012. He worked for the Bureau of Reclamation and took great pride in the maintenance and landscaping at Clark Canyon Reservoir until 2017. Most recently he began a new position as the Maintenance Manager at the Beaverhead Villa Apartments. He enjoyed the people at the Villa and the treasures they left behind. At the end of the day, he'd often arrive home from work with a story about how he helped a stranger in need, never asking for anything in return.

Charlie loved spending time with family and friends. He especially loved the time he spent with his Dad, Calvin. They enjoyed fishing at Agnes Lake, hiking to Sawtooth Lake, storytelling, and trying to beat each other at card games. Charlie's hope for his beloved father, was that he ran off with a beautiful woman to Hawaii. May they be reunited again when the time arrives.

Charlie is survived by his wife, Dawn (Spath) Zimdars, their three beautiful children, Lyle, Anne, and Koy Zimdars; his mother Lorie Waller Zimdars of Dillon, Montana; his sister Clarissa and her family, Tye and Cydney Brown of Basin, Wyoming; his brother, Jay "Spivey" Zimdars of Dillon, Montana; his maternal grandparents, Gordon and Helen Waller of Circle, Montana; two amazing nephews, Grayson Spath of Cloverdale, Oregon and Pierce Edgar of Dillon, Montana and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and endearing friends.

He is preceded in death by his cousin Elliot Waller, his paternal grandparents Julius and Arduis Zimdars and his Aunt, Mary Redlich.

A memorial service and celebration of Charlie's life will be held at Brundage Funeral Home on August 2nd at 2:30 pm. A pot-luck reception will follow at the Vineyard Church. In lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation to your local mental health crisis center or the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention.

Big Hole Valley Historical Society wants your stories

The Big Hole Valley Historical Society wants your stories about people and events in the valley for the book they are working on to get printed. How many of you know about the youngest volunteer in the Battle of the Big Hole? Have you heard the story about the "Spook of the Ajax"? What about the shootings that happened in the valley? In 1929 the students at the Wisdom School made a righteous resolution- want to hear about it? We have stories about the Civil War Military burials in most of the cemeteries in the Valley right up to the Vietnam War. If you have been in Jackson- you would have walked where Clark and Sacajawea did in 1806 on their return trip. Our early pioneers left great stories that we want to share- Please share any stories or photos with us. You can send them to Box 847-Jackson, Mt 59736 or give them to our members, Dodie Husted, Pat Peterson, John Wilke, Sandra Lapham, Jim Boetticher, Beverly McDougal, EB Rebish, Heidi Hirschy, Alta Miller,!

Carol Harvey, Ellen Rai Thiel, Bob Nelson, Mary Rangitsch or Ruth Little

Also we need to have money donated to get the books printed. We are a 501C3 so it is tax deductible. There will be a Snowplane exhibit at the Beaverhead County Fair where we will be selling raffle tickets at $10 each or 3 for $25. We will also pre-sell the book for $50 down and $25 when you get the book there. Thank you.

Plant identification at the High Trails Range Days

The Range Days organization will set up their plant identification field at the High Trails in 2019. What a great way to learn more about what's growing there and how to protect native plants! But that's not it, Range Days offers a myriad of learning opportunities around rangelands.

If you are interested in participating in the 2019 Range Days, please see below the information concerning their organizational meeting next Wednesday August 1st at 9am at the 4-H building.

Beaver Head Hunters Genealogical Society

The Beaver Head Hunters Genealogical Society will host the eighth annual Cemetery Walk on Friday, August 3. Meet at the cemetery at 6:00 pm. Watch for the balloons. This year we will learn about Elmer Mikus, the Driscoll family, and Jean Bishop. It is recommended to bring a folding chair and water. At the end there will be refreshments. In case of inclement weather (lightening and rain), we will meet in the Depot Theater.

Letter to the Editor

UM Western Professor Michael Joseph Francisconi, the self-described socialist, quotes favorably his two favorite (Karl & Karl) patron saints. However, let us not forget that Karl Marx (1818-1883) gave us the Murderous Regimes of Stalin's USSR, Mao's Communist China, Pol Pot's Cambodia, and today's North Korea. Karl Polanyi (1886-1964) gave us the stagnant, poverty-stricken economies of today's socialist nations such as Venezuela.

Contrary to Francisconi's bold assertion, socialist Karl Polanyi is Not "the dean of economic historians." Instead, the multiple idea-leader deans among economic historians are Michael Polanyi (The Logic of Liberty, 1951; Personal Knowledge, 1958), Nobel laureate Douglass North (The Rise of the Western World, 1973), Harvard University professor David Landes (The Wealth and Poverty of Nations: Why Some Are So Rich and Some So Poor, 1998), and Northwestern University professor Joel Mokyr (A Culture of Growth: The Origins of the Modern Economy, 2017).

These leading economists and economic historians have identified several key success factors (KSFs) for prosperous and peaceful economies. These KSFs include (1) clearly defined and justly acquired private property, (2) lightly government-regulated prices that correctly signal the relative scarcity of goods, (3) highly dispersed, consumer-centric information that signals complex preferences, (4) culture of entrepreneurship that invents and innovates, (5) incentive systems that financially reward risk-takers, (6) fair and free trade, (7) ability of employees to organize labor unions, (8) rule of law that protects property rights, (9) fair and free elections, (10) federalism system where government responsibilities are decentralized among local, state, and national levels, (11) clear separation of government powers among the legislative, executive, and judicial branches, and (12) robust civil society that includes voluntary organizations such as our churches, sports groups, and community clubs like 4H, FFA, Elks, Kiwanis, Lions, and Rotary.

Francisconi loves to boast of an "Ethical Economy" where everyone gets "free" stuff: Free Education, Free Health Care, Free Food, Free Housing, and no doubt Free Horses and Free Cars. In Francisconi's socialist world, someone else must pay for all this "free" stuff.

Prof. Francisconi, are you willing to pay 80% of your income in taxes to support this "free" stuff? Are you willing to pay 90% of your published book royalties in taxes to support this "free" stuff? Are you willing to pay 100% more house property taxes to support this "free" stuff?

Prof. Francisconi's Karl & Karl patron saints have created deep misery for multiple millions who are forced to live in perpetual poverty.

Loose talk around town

By: MJ

The word "loose" might be interpreted to mean negative judgmental words used in a conversation without the data to back them up. Example: I hear around town people making blanket statements like; "what has our mayor done for us", "what's with the disagreement at sheriff's department, President Trump is not my president... Rarely do you hear the factual data behind these statements. In today's world people in elected offices can and do seal records for reasons they perceive important. At this point getting the factual data is non-existence for the average person.

There is a problematic psychological disposition that is rightly called "being judgmental." It is getting a kick out of making negative moral assessments of other people. It's enhancing your own sense of moral worth by comparisons with the (supposed) lesser moral status of other people. It's finding satisfaction in seeing others fail because it shows you are better than they are. People who tend to feel morally inferior feel relief when they see others fail; by comparison that they are not so bad after all. People who lack appreciation of their own potential for moral failure enjoy having their false sense of moral superiority reinforced.

What is judgment anyway? The ability to make considered decisions or come to sensible conclusions. Judgement distorts our perception of others. Judgment often offends or disappoints somebody because each of us have different thoughts and views in life.

'We don't see the world as it is. We see the world as we are.' Our sense of right and wrong are based on what we have experienced in life. Every human being undergoes a different experience in their life and develops a different understanding of the world based on his own personal experiences. It is for this reason that we fail to understand other people since their experiences and our experiences are never the same. We need to know where the other person fits into our picture, so that we can know who we are and where we are. We make a judgement.

If you wanted to stop judging, you would need to acknowledge that you are the primary author of your own assumptions and projections. You would have to admit that your picture of the world and of others is yours alone. Recognizing this would turn your world as you know it today upside down.

Don't fear being judged. You will learn a lot more about yourself if you know how others perceive you. Don't be afraid of criticisms because you are not perfect, no one is. It is human nature to judge. We all do it. It is part of our brain. Judge with facts and not opinions or emotions.

Challenge yourself for one day to be conscious of how many times you make a judgmental (negative) statement about someone.
