Nashville Recording artist/author Coming to The Bookstore

Robert Hunter is an accomplished entertainer, author, poet and Nashville recording artist. He has released a new record as well as a new novel and is promoting them by traveling to ALL 50 States in 52 Weeks. The nationwide "Relapse and Revival Tour," is set to be at The Bookstore on Thursday, August 9th. Hunter will be reading from his book and performing acoustic renderings of his music from 6:00-8:00 pm. Known best for his unique brand of lyrical alt-country-rock, Robert's first two EP's Afterglow and Outta My Mind were celebrated critically and described as "magnetic and hard wiring, after a single listen." Songs like Gone for Good and Ditto Baby found a home on FM Radio, and helped pave the way for future success in Nashville and beyond.

Robert's albums have been praised for their lyricism, but it is now clear they have been a symptom of a much greater problem: Robert Hunter is a novelist. The album Revival, is just half of a much greater story. A story that needed a book to tell it. Relapse: A Love Story is about a novelist that must overcome writer's block and survive a wayward trip to the North Woods of Maine with his new bride. A love story at its best and wild ride at its drunkest. Relapse careens through shaman led weddings, car heists and the inner workings of a mind rife with possibility and absolutely unaffected by the moonshine. Is it relapse, or is it revival?

The inspiration for the tour was Robert's young wife Becky - his best friend and favorite muse - who was diagnosed in 2016 with an aggressive and difficult form of cancer. At that time the outlook was bleak. And yet, Becky insisted that he publish the novel, and produce the record she loved. Having the possibility to travel, and see the country, on tour, was also her idea. It served as motivation for her, and for Robert, throughout Becky's yearlong treatment; through countless chemotherapy sessions, and surgeries.

We are happy to report that Becky is in remission! The pair are embarking on this nationwide tour to celebrate life, love and the madness of it all. The book is getting rave reviews, and the new record may be Robert's best yet. We look forward to seeing you at The Bookstore. Call 683-6807 for more information.

THANK YOU

On behalf of your City Police Department I would like to once again thank the community for their continuing support of the police department. Your support in passing the mill levy last November remains humbling and appreciated. I want to take this opportunity to keep Dillon updated and informed of our progress, as it is your tax dollars which you have entrusted in us.

The funding has allowed the addition of two new officer positions and the ability to continue 24-hour patrol coverage. Also, it will allow the schedule to accommodate two officers on most shifts, which is important for the safety of our officers and with the number of calls we receive continually increasing the added coverage allows our department to respond to multiple calls at once making our community safer and response times quicker. Also, I am confident that this will alleviate the fatigue issues the officers have been fighting with for far too long by allowing officers well needed time off.

I am continually researching areas where we can implement efficient and effective ways to continue to build our community oriented department. Currently, we are implementing increased foot patrol and presence in and around the schools, as well as the downtown area. I believe our department's greatest asset is the quality of the officers. Studies show when the public and police are in close contact during positive situations the team philosophy builds and safety increases.

The most recent additions to our department are Officers Eric Pedersen, Jace Maroney, and Jared Rumsey. I am very impressed by their development and the positive attributes they bring to the department. Please keep in mind that all the new officers will need to attend the three-month Montana Law Enforcement Academy in 2019. After this training is completed, we will be able to fully enjoy the benefits of the new officers.

The department has also been able to purchase a new patrol vehicle. Currently, the Police Department currently has only three vehicles, two of which are patrol equipped. The vehicles are an unmarked 2010 Impala with 40,000 miles, a 2013 truck with 113,000 miles and a 2016 Impala with 30,000. We have been very frugal in making sure we keep vehicles as long as we can. With the addition of our new vehicle, we will also be going through a change in the way the vehicles appear. We are attempting to return to the traditional police black and white vehicles which are easily visible and identifiable as the City Police.

Once again, thank you and please contact our department with any questions or concerns. Together we will continue to make Dillon the place everyone else wishes they lived.

Sincerely,

Don Guiberson

Chief of Police
