TRIFECTA

Donna Gordon recently moved to Dillon and people ask her "Why are you here?" And she replies "Because my art is here."

Fall of last year she received a text from a fellow artist, a photographer here in Dillon, and was asked if she would like to have her art in a gallery in Dillon and Donna's response was "I don't Dillon". Needless to say, she entered her art in the Tendoy Fine Art Gallery and her reply to why are you here? Is "Because I love it."

Donna moved to Dillon from Helena in June of this year and since then has "hit" what she considers the TRIFECTA- her layered painted glass artwork is exhibited in the Tendoy Fine Art Gallery- her watercolor art can be seen on the art wall at the Sweetwater Coffee and her photography is displayed at the Pioneer Furniture store.

Donna's unique approach to the layered painted glass art is to peak the onlookers interest to notice the "dimension" of the art as the three pieces of painted glass make one question the validity of his or her perspective. Donna smiles when she says, "I'm the only one I know who does this" ---and so you can also visit her work at the Arts Factory at 107 E Charleston in Las Vegas Nevada.

Please come to the Tendoy Fine Art Gallery Tuesday August 21 during the business hours of 10-5 to choose one of Donna's signed note cards that are suitable for framing.

Donna would also like to than Sara from the Sweetwater Coffee, Dan from the Pioneer Furniture store and fellow artists at the Tendoy Fine Art Gallery for making this TRIFECTA the best ever.

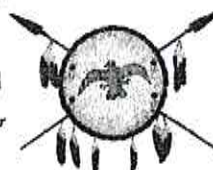

Happy Birthday Shirley

Western Montana BLM issues fire prevention order for its lands in several counties

The Bureau of Land Management's Western Montana District has issued a fire prevention order for lands it manages in multiple counties due to area wildfires.

The order is effective at 12:01 a.m. Aug. 17 and lasts until rescinded. It pertains to all BLM lands lying within the following counties: Beaverhead, Madison, Silver Bow, Deer Lodge, Powell (south of Interstate 90 and Montana Highway 12) and Granite (south of Interstate 90 and east of the Lolo National Forest boundary).

The order prohibits building, maintaining, attending or using a fire or campfire except for those which are within metal fire pits at the following BLM recreation sites: Deadwood Gulch Campground, East Fork Blacktail Deer Creek Campground, Red Mountain Campground, Trapper Springs Campground, BLM designated fee campsites with metal fire pits between Warm Springs and Blacks Ford along the lower Madison River, Kobayashi Beach Day Use Area, Ruby Creek Campground, Palisades Campground, Axolotl Cabin, Henneberry Cabin, Divide Bridge Campground, Upper Divide Bridge, Dickie Bridge, East Bank Campground and East Bank dispersed sites with metal fire pits on the west side of the upper Big Hole River.

The order also prohibits smoking, except within an enclosed vehicle or building, a developed recreation site, or while stopped in an area at least three feet in diameter that is barren or cleared of all flammable materials.

A copy of the closure order is available at the Dillon Field Office, 1005 Selway Drive, Dillon, MT 59725; the Butte Field Office, 106 N. Parkmont, Butte, MT 59701; and the Missoula Field Office, 3255 Fort Missoula Road, Missoula, MT 59804. For more information, call (406) 533-7600.

Zoning Committee Aug. 7, 2018

By: MJ

Director of Operations: Mr. Hazelbaker announced that Councilman Garry had resigned from council and would no longer be serving on the zoning committee. He presented to the committee a draft of 'requirements' to be included in a packet that would be given to people applying for a building permit. Mr. Mooney spoke about the 'requirement sheet' also including information on penalties if permits are not complied with. He stated that a draft of Hamilton's penalties may be considered.

Compliance Certificate # 2537: (Approved) Steadman was in attendance to speak on behalf of his building permit. Mr. Mooney had questions about landscaping in the front yard and parking in front. Steadman asked for an interpretation of "front yard." "Stack" parking was discussed as being a safety hazard. Mooney noted several zoning regulations that he felt Steadman was out of compliance with.

Compliance Certificate # 2539: (Approved) Mr. Chance Bernall was present to present his permit for a commercial building to be located on Helena Street. There was no public comment.

Unzoned Areas: Discussion for initiating a "U" zone. This would allow a transitional period where requirements can be identified by the zoning committee and council before making the final zoning decision. Examples; no adult only businesses, types of animals that would be allowed, take into consideration the history of the land, what it is being used for now ... A "U" zone would provide the committee with a blank slate to work with, and freedom to discuss many ideas before making the final zoning decision.

Mr. Mooney expressed his view on the large unzone area on the northwest side on Hall Road off Swenson Way. Mr. McIsaac spoke of concerns the committee and council being aware of the existing uses and the contribution to the community. Example: The Bi-Centennial apartments are in an unzoned area.

Letter to the Editor Bake Sales?

As young parents on a learning curve, we discovered that threats were a poor approach to gaining our children's cooperation. As we began growing up together, the more credible information we could provide, the more peace reigned in the household.

To threaten closing and selling Dillon's parks is a poor and even counter productive approach to educating citizens about this currently volatile issue.

TAX! - red letter word! "Hell no, no more!" Building a bastion is not helpful to conducting the business of city government. Could there be other approaches? In fairness we believe the word TAX deserves to be demythologized.

Tax is not a dirty word, and deserves some clear light on it., and although we aren't financial people (we'll leave that to the money-wise), we do believe there's more to taxing citizenry than has been shared on this issue.

First off, we'd like to read some accurate data on what $2.65 monthly, $31.96 yearly, on a $100,000 property means in a household budget. $31.96 in Dillon will allow one person to enjoy a top rate dinner out with wine. We haven't been given a number on what that important police mill levy will cost per $100,000 property, but believe it should be part of this public information.

What does my tax money buy me? It pays for potholes being filled, for dead trees removed from parkings, clean water from the faucet, flushing toilets and street lights at night. It brings a patrol car after a call to 911. On the highway, despite travel delays for construction and occasional windshield chipping, it gives us good roads, thanks to gas tax. And these things don't come because some of us have gotten together to hold a bake sale. Tax money does for the common good what can't be done alone.

Do we Montanans forget that WE DON'T PAY SALES TAX until we drive across a state line!!! That's how other states help pay for needed public services.

To our mind, owning a home in today's world is a privilege, and with that privilege comes a cost. We are part of a community (dictionary definition: a body of people living near one another and in social relationship, emphasis relationship). It costs to provide roads, water, sewage, lights, safety and a pleasing environment- and bake sales won't cut it.

Hundreds of Dillonites, and friends, have just poured sweat, energy and money into the fun of cooperative hard work to upgrade our pleasing environment. We dare to believe that watching our parks brown out and disappear isn't acceptable to people who share a vision for the common good, any more than they want to wait an hour for a patrol car after calling 911.

We may be optimists, but we see taxes as the common price we pay to live here, and want to hear more about what increased mill levies actually cost a household? Paying our taxes benefits us all, and it's a dirty shame when this public responsibility gets used as a scare tactic or a club.

Most sincerely, Harry and Val Neeley
