Leonard A. Benjamin (80)

Leonard A. Benjamin (80) died of natural causes on September 11th, 2018; at his home outside Dillon. His ceremony will be a private memorial at his beloved family cabin in the mountains above Lima, Montana.

He is survived by Joye Benjamin, Dillon, Montana; children; daughter, Bonny L. (Benjamin) Peterson, Eureka, Montana; son, Vince L. Benjamin, Seward, Alaska; his sister, Victoria; and grandchildren, Virginia Cope, Clinton Kolschefskey and Cassandra (Benjamin) Kough, Eureka, Montana; Wade Benjamin, Michael Benjamin, Seward, Alaska; and four great grandchildren.

Leonard was born in Shelby, Montana to Dr. Leonard M. Benjamin and Anthony (Striedenger) Benjamin on April 8th, 1938. His early years were dictated by his father's medical school training. This took him through Missoula, Minneapolis, Denver, Butte and finally Deer Lodge in 1946.

Leonard was "Lenny" throughout his school years in Deer Lodge. Lenny spent a lot of time with his beloved grandfather, Harry Benjamin, in Shelby and on the farm at Oilmont, north of Shelby. After High School Graduation in 1956 he attended the University of Montana for a brief period making the "dean's list" as he would say. The "dean's List" where you drink beer and don't go to school until they invite you to leave college that is. Leonard was in the Army National Guard at the time and upon taking the deans advice to leave the U of M, joined the Army.

He put in 2 years in the Army, much of it in Fort Knox, Kentucky. On his way to Fort Knox, at 19 years old, in an old Buick he drove through Chicago. Upon stopping at a stop sign a man with a knife jumped in the passenger's side of the car demanding he get out so he could steal the car. At the same time, Lenny and the thief looked down at the seat at Dad's 38 revolver. The thief's eyes got really big and out he went, exiting the same door he entered. Lenny never said a word, but did lean over and lock the passenger's side door.

Upon returning to Montana, Lenny spent the early 1960's mining, ranching, trucking and driving school bus from the Jackson ranch, where he worked in Jackson, to Dillon, where he attended college. This is where he met the one and only love of his life, Joye Van Gilder. Leonard and Joye were married in 1961 and soon had 2 children. Lenny was now "Leonard" and his first teaching job was in Browning, after 4 "interesting" years in Browning he enrolled in graduate school back at the U of M. This time, he made the correct "dean's list" while completing his Master's degree in School Administration. Leonard took the superintendent of school's position in Geyser, in the summer of 1971. Leonard got out of the school business and went back to his true love of ranching in Stanford in 1975. He took pride in teaching his children his passion of hunting and fishing in the Judith Basin of Montana. All the while, instilling the work ethic that Montana ranch kids seem to learn. After his children finished high school in Stanford, Leonard and Joye moved back to the favored Dillon area in 1982 where he ranched and drove semi-truck.

Living out a lifetime bucket list, he followed his son to Alaska in 1993. While in Alaska, he lived in Nome, Valdez, Dillingham and Seward. Leonard enjoyed the outdoors of Alaska as much as Montana. Hunting and fishing with his two children was a priority in Alaska.

Finally retiring from Southwest School District in Dillingham, Alaska he moved to Seward, Alaska in the year 2000 to help his son build a business. Leonard's dry humor and gentle nature made him a man of many friends in Seward. Leonard had his "spot" at his son's restaurant in Seward. The locals knew his spot and looked for him when they entered. He loved to talk at the restaurant. It was fun to watch. Leonard loved kids, dogs, and tolerated the rest of us. He would walk the restaurant floor nearly every evening with free candy suckers for the kids.

The last 10 years of his life were spent outside of Dillon, Montana in a small house that he built. Much of his time was dedicated to gopher control, the gophers won that battle. Leonard also gardened, and spent time at the family cabin outside of Lima. Joye was with Leonard till the end, talking with him and helping him with his needs. He was very grateful of Joye's kindness. Leonard passed away with dignity in his home outside of Dillon, just as he wanted to.

Leonard was preceded in death by his parents, and his brothers Harry Benjamin and Darrell Benjamin of Deer Lodge.

Memorials are suggested in the form of hugs or a phone call to your family and friends as that is what Leonard would have wanted.

Beaver Head Hunters Genealogical Society

The Beaver Head Hunters Genealogical Society will host its monthly meeting Tuesday, September 18 in the Museum Research Room at 7:00 pm. After our brief business meeting, we will begin studying a series of lectures entitled Discovering Your Roots by John Phillip Coletta, one of America's most popular genealogical lecturers. He has written three books that are well known amongst genealogists, one being They Came in Ships: A Guide to Finding Your Immigrant Ancestor's Arrival Record. This month we will discuss interviewing our families and searching for sources at home. As always, the public is invited.

Please, "Consider the Owners"...

Consider the Owner of Whole Foods, Amazon, Blue Origin and The Washington Post, whose investments also include Technology, Transportation, Space, Artificial Intelligence, and Federal Data Management. Do his goals mirror your own? Consider the Saudi co-Owners of Booze-Allan-Hamilton, Renaissance Tech., Cambridge Analytica, Black Water, Black Rock, Citibank, Halliburton, The Carlyle Group, Disney, Fox, The Wall Street Journal, Goldman-Sachs, Apple, ATT, AIG. Do theirs?

Consider that 80+% of ALL US Stock Investments are owned by 10% of total investors. The average worker retirement account is $12K, but USA's Top 350 Corporate CEO's make an average of 312 to 1 their average worker (EPI 8/16/18). (1989=50 to 1) Average $19+M salary (OpenSecrets.org)

Consider, long term investments like GE, Autos, Savings and Loans, have lost their value to the working investor. Either by change in markets or Executive misdirection, the Baby Boomers last fifty years of investments are marginalized by financially and politically empowered wealthy dominance while the new price to buy in, is high enough to exclude the majority from benefit or control.

Our collective public authority out-weighs wealth, but in a financially empowered Democracy, where most do not share any market dominance, it is cheaper to buy dominance thru public policy than adapt to public need. Would those most likely to benefit from control seek to co-opt our authority? Would those most able to afford it also be more likely to abuse their financial influence in our public power? Total Banking Industry lobby on Dodd-Frank Regulation $800M, Insurance on Obama-Care $243M, 2017 TaxnJobs Cut Act, P.Ryan R(WI)$357K, O. Hatch R(UT)(TPP)$314K...

Their Result. Cost of healthcare up 20%. 5 Largest Banks share of Wall Street Assets, 1990 9%, 2007 35%, 2015 44%. 6 Multi-National Corporations own 90% of ALL American Media and much of the world's as well, and 83% of total benefits in The 2017 Tax cuts and Jobs Act went to the richest 10% of US population while adding $1.5 TRILLION to the National Debt and raising taxes on incomes Under $70K over ten years. Public(Private) debt is a profitable handle of control on public policy.

In 1952 Corporations paid 32% of total Federal Tax revenue, in 2013 only 10% on a much larger market share. The total share of US 'Income' given to the top 1% : 1976 9%, 2015 28+%. The Top Marginal Income tax rate 1950 80%, 1979 70%, 1980 25% and today an Effective 19%. 62% of all US wealth is held by 5% of its population. The world's 1% share of total wealth is greater than all other 99% combined and there are 8, yes, 8 individuals who wield wealth greater than Half the World. Economic Financialization (debt) is a lazy tool of oppression. Is it any wonder the working man feels squeezed?

Since 2000 90% of all US income Growth has gone to the 1% but inflation has left my Dollar less able to buy what it could in 1975? Worker Productivity has increased 74%, but wages only 9%. 70% of Americans have less than $10K in savings and live paycheck to paycheck, while 40% make less than $30k with full time work. Who'll afford to raise the kids, pay for college, insurance, transport, information, survival, and pay/advocate Public(market) policy? Only a small group escapes unscathed.

If only Collective Authority can balance wealthy influence, would it be an objective of that wealth, especially generational wealth, to influence or co-opt our Constitutional mandate for their own profit? Are they more likely than you or I to aspire to this? How? Majority ownership in industry, media, Gov't, markets, and Legislative regulation is both a means and Modus Operandi right? It is not inevitable we compete to afford freedom/survival, but it is a very profitable class warfare.

Should the few conspire to orchestrate such a coup, would it manifest as our media cacophony of contradiction obscuring a miscreant conceit? Would a useful gambit be to turn our collective authority against itself? Thereby invalidating its intent, dividing its solidarity, and cloistering wealth into command against its own accountability? The less we many manifest faith in our collective, the less authority it has. Money in elections, lobbying, de-regulation of Finance, Insurance, Pollution, Surveillance, debt. The Commerce Clause vs States Rights vs War Powers? The collective must embody their Constitutional imperative against their own exploitation or wealth will monopolize market control inevitably. The only collective symbol we have against wealthy abuse is our Constitution. The 'Owners' oligarchy demands just 5 more States to initiate a Constitutional Convention. Don't do it. Please. 9/18
