Little Hogback-Meyers Fire Salvage Environmental Assessment Completed

The Pintler Ranger District of the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest has prepared an environmental assessment for the Little Hogback-Meyers Fire Salvage Project.

The Little Hogback – Meyers Fire Salvage environmental assessment summarizes the environmental effects of two action alternatives including, No Action and the Proposed Action. The proposed action includes salvage harvest on 1,531 acres of National Forest System lands and the construction of up to 3.7 miles of temporary roads, as well as replanting where needed.

"This project is intended to recover economic value to contribute to local employment and income, reduce hazards to human health and safety, and re-establish forested conditions to aid in recovery of the burned area", said Pintler District Ranger Cameron Rasor.

Environmental Assessments are prepared to determine if a proposed action could have a significant impact on the human environment that would warrant preparation of an Environmental Impact Statement. This analysis does not indicate a potential for significant impact from the two alternatives explored. The project was designed to avoid sensitive areas and minimize adverse effects.

Approximately 2.4 percent of the fire areas will be salvaged, leaving 97% of the remaining fire areas to recover naturally because of economic or environmental constraints. Timber salvage as proposed in the Little Hogback – Meyers Fire Salvage project will contribute to employment and income in local communities.

For more information on the proposed project and/or to review the Environmental Assessment, go online to https://www.fs.usda.gov/project/?project=53959 or contact the Pintler Ranger District at (406) 859-3211.

Montana Attorney General Tim Fox joined with Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) Regional Administrator Jeff Hinson and representatives of senior organizations to announce the mailing of new Medicare cards to Montana residents. Social Security numbers have been removed from the cards and replaced with random numbers to prevent identity theft.

Speaking at a Helena press conference, Attorney General Tim Fox said, "It's important for all of us to be diligent in protecting our Social Security numbers. When they get into the wrong hands, they can be used to open new credit cards, bank accounts, and mortgages. Thieves can even seek medical care with stolen Social Security numbers. Thanks to the folks at CMS, these new cards will deter scammers from using Medicare benefits illegally, while protecting our senior citizens and our tax dollars."

Nearly 223,000 of the new cards have started to arrive in mailboxes across Montana. Jeff Hinson, CMS Regional VIII Administrator, said, "We're excited to be mailing new Medicare cards to our beneficiaries in Montana, which will help protect our beneficiaries from identity theft and the Medicare program from fraud."

Other speakers at the press conference included Renee Labrie-Shanks from Montana's Senior Medicare Patrol, and Tim Summers, State Director of Montana AARP.

For more information on the new Medicare cards, visit https://www.cms.gov/medicare/new-medicare-card/nmc-home.html or call 1-800-633-4227.

For identify theft prevention tips, visit the Montana Department of Justice's Office of Consumer Protection webpage at https://dojmt.gov/consumer/identity-theft/, or call 1-(800) 481-6896 or (406) 444-4500 during normal business hours.
