Leta Jewel Grogan

Leta Jewel Grogan, age 86, passed away on October 10, 2018 at Pioneer Care and Rehab in Dillon. She was born Feb 27, 1932 to John and Alpha Abbott Wright in Eldon, Missouri.

Leta was a compassionate, hardworking, caring person. Her youth years were spent in Eldon and the family later moved to Kansas City, Kansas. She graduated from Argentine High School in Kansas City. She was very involved in school, achieving good grades while being involved in journalism and Beta Sigma PHI Sorority. After graduating, she worked at Ralph Atkisson Studios, then worked as a secretary, then married the love of her life, Harold F. Grogan. They moved to Southern California, and later to Tacoma, Washington when Harold was called back into service. In 1963, they moved to Dillon, Montana. They lived on the Christiansen Ranch where she cooked for the crews and helped in the lambing shed. Leta and Harold also had milk cows and chickens. After moving closer to town, she worked at JC Penney, then later they purchased the Montgomery Ward Catalog Agency. When Montgomery Ward closed its catalog division, they opened a tourist gift shop naming it Dillon Discount Depot, the customers then nicknamed it 3D. The store quickly expanded into a variety store selling Montana made products, shoes, clothing, toys, nick knacks, jewelry, printed shirts, or anything else she could sell. She was president of Soroptimist International of Dillon, member of Dillon Jaycee Auxillary and was involved in the local Chamber of Commerce. Leta retired from Dillon Discount Depot in 1994, then traveled with Harold in their motor home visiting friends and family around the country. She began working summers in the visitor center at Bannack. Both Leta and Harold enjoyed spending part of their retirement time volunteering at Buenos Aires National Wildlife Refuge in Arizona. Leta enjoyed visiting with tourists from all over the world and was especially proud when grandkids came to the park.

Leta enjoyed cooking for guests for meals and could cook for a crowd in Wright family style. People who did not have any place to go for Thanksgiving or Holidays were always welcome. Even while working at various jobs, she still took time for cooking and canning and passed those skills along to the next generation. She also was a skilled quilter and enjoyed crocheting as well. Harold and Leta were so proud of their commitment to Bannack that they held their 50th Wedding Anniversary Vow renewal ceremony at the park, during Bannack Days. They turned their Elkhorn cabin into a home, hosting friends and family who could take the time to come visit.

She was preceded death by her husband Harold and parents John and Alpha Wright, Sister Rosalie Bradford and Brother John Wright JR. She is survived by sons Mitch Sr. Grogan, Mike Grogan (Barbara), Harold Lee Grogan (Joan), Darrell Grogan (Steffani), Daniel Grogan (Roxy) and daughter Dorothea Kay Grogan, along with 17 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren and 1 great-great grand child.

Visitation will be Sunday October 14th, 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. at Brundage Funeral Home. The Celebration of Life will be at 10:00 a.m. on Monday, October 15th at Brundage Funeral Home.

Domestic Violence Awareness Month

October marks domestic violence awareness month and there are several things happening here in Dillon to remember those whose lives have been impacted by intimate partner violence.

Throughout the month the Community Support Center
(CSC) will encourage businesses and other folks to take part in the "Light the Window" campaign by displaying a purple light as a symbol of support toward ending domestic violence and creating safer communities for families throughout our great state.

CSC will also be hosting the Silent Witness Silhouettes, displayed around town from Oct. 9th - 16th. These wooden silhouettes each feature a plaque with a story of a life lost to domestic violence.

And finally, on Thursday Oct. 11th, CSC will host a Candlelight Vigil at 6:30pm in Depot Park.

If you or someone close to you has been impacted by domestic violence, please consider taking part in any of these events and let's stand together in solidarity against violence in families.

Parents, Do You Know Where Your Love Letters Are?

Tyrades! by Danny Tyree

Maybe I shouldn't share something so personal with the world, but...my love affair with books continues unabated.

I've just finished Willie Nelson's autobiography ("It's A Long Story") and Lebanon Levi's "Amish Confidential." I'm already up to the post-World War II section of "Even This I Get To Experience," the memoir of nonagenarian TV producer Norman Lear.

And next? I've stumbled across a 2007 book by Bill Shapiro that certainly gives me that Come Hither look: "Other People's Love Letters: 150 Letters You Were Never Meant To See."

Oh, yeah, my inner voyeur is panting over the prospects of diving into such a salacious volume. If the publisher had emblazoned "Wet Paint" across the cover, it would have been just icing on the cake.

But I'm not quite ready to commit to the book. My inner voyeur has to share room with my inner arsonist and my inner jaywalker and my inner vagrant and my inner polka dancer and all the rest. ("Ow! Get your elbow out of my eye. And who had beans and cabbage for lunch? Inner arsonist, don't think of lighting that match!")

Reviews for Shapiro's book found many of the exchanges cute or sweet, but let's not overlook the "guilty" in the "guilty pleasure" aspect of such a project.

Deep down, most of us realize that someday someone else will be boldly remodeling our family's beloved home and total strangers will be walking their dogs near our graves. But we don't necessarily think about some flea marketer or demolition team perusing all the pet names, sweet nothings, sappy sentiments and crazy dreams in our courtship correspondence.

We hate to throw out the potentially embarrassing letters because we always think we'll have one last chance to dispose of them before we're dead or incapacitated. We procrastinate about burning them, in case we find a convenient rainy afternoon and can haul them out of the attic to do some romantic reminiscing. ("Those smells bring back memories, don't they, honey? For instance, that perfume is...my sister's brand!! Okay, are you going for dead or incapacitated, Romeo?")

Of course, some letters would be embarrassing just for how stiff, restrained and BORING they are. ("What happens at a closely chaperoned church function stays at a closely chaperoned church function!")

You know what I'm talking about. Some letters make it sound like the couples had buckets of flat latex paint listed on their wedding gift registry. ("Oooo, if the hotel doesn't catch us, we can watch it DRY on our honeymoon!")

Love letters (and letters in general) are a dying artform. We can only hope that someday a taciturn citizen who typically lets his sex robot scan his embedded barcode for instructions will try something retro. ("Z7BG3, I want you to call me Sugar Lips and talk really dirty about that black-and-white analog TV factory your parents are going to set us up with!")

In conclusion, just put some thought into what becomes of your old love letters. Hey, if you really want to prank future generations, get rid of the originals and replace them with clever forgeries.

"Sis, you won't believe this! We were conceived on either the Nina, the Pinta or the Santa Maria! Wait, that doesn't sound right. I wish I had spent more time listening in history class instead of writing timeless love texts to What's-Her-Name."
