Montana Western Hosts First Home Meet

The University of Montana Western Cross Country team hosted their first-ever home meet on Friday with both teams finishing in third place.

The course was at the old Sleepy Hollow Golf Course and was the most challenging course the Bulldogs have faced all season. The course was along the rolling hills and ponds of the golf course and offered views of the surrounding mountains. At over 5200 feet of elevation and factoring in the unseasonably warm weather made the course challenging to all competitors.

"It's a tough course," head coach Dylan Zitzer said, "You definitely have to have core strength here."

Senior Mindy Kaufman was the top NAIA runner finishing third overall with a time of 19:55, Gabi Gomez finished ninth with a time of 20:28. The women as a team finished third overall behind the College of Southern Idaho and Rocky Mountain College.

"We were maybe a little too eager for our first home meet and started a little to fast, and the toughness of the course came back to bite us" Zitzer added. "But overall we ran well and now we have to prepare for the Conference meet in two weeks."

On the men's side, Russell Kujala added a top-ten finish to his resume crossing the line in ninth place with a time of 27:55. Matt Wilson (28:38) and Tanner Lehr (28:51) were just a few spots behind to finish in 12th and 13th place respectively. The Bulldogs as a team finished third overall behind College of Southern Idaho and one-point behind Carroll College.

Grace UMC Pasty Bake

The Congregation of Grace United Methodist Church in Dillon is again offering the Dillon community authentic pasties on Saturday, October 27, 2018. Pasty baking has become a twice year tradition for the Methodist Congregation. The event started about 2001 when Perrie and Logan Crampton, Sara Karlsgodt, and John Cregor who were members of the church youth group at the time went to Butte to help with a pasty bake there. They were taught the skills so they could have a youth fund raiser in Dillon

The first year with some help from congregation members the youth group made pasties at the church in two ovens. The demand for pasties grew beyond a simple youth group program, and the entire congregation with help from community members used ovens and the kitchen at the elementary school a couple of years and then were hosted by the local Elks Club. When more space was needed to meet demand, Mary Karlsgodgt and Patti Ordaz took over management and streamlined the preparation and baking process in compliance with food service rules.

To provide for the pasty bake that now produces over 1,000 pasties twice a year, the National Guard Armory was enlisted and the process begins with preparing potatoes and meat on Friday and onions and the baking process completed on Saturday by 2:00 PM when pasty orders can be picked up at the Armory off Highway 41 North or, if people like, can be delivered by volunteers. Over the years community helpers have bolstered the congregation from the girl scouts, Montana Youth Challenge, and any relative or friend that someone can recruit. The fellowship of pasty baking day is enjoyed by many folks including some that are beyond doing much work, but provide moral support.

Pasties are said to have originated with Welch miners in Butte who took the meat pies in the mines and heated gravy with there lamps for their lunch.

Pasty orders can be placed by calling 406-683-4594 and leaving a message up until Saturday, October 27 at 11:00 AM.
