Paula "Bubbie" Jane Davis

Paula "Bubbie" Jane Davis, age 64, passed away on Tuesday, October 16th, 2018. She was born on Saturday, June 5th, 1954 in San Jose, California, to Morris and Vora Katzman. Paula grew up in the bay area, California. She spent time in White City, Oregon, before moving back to California at the time she was married to Gary Shuler, the father of her two daughters; Marina Jane and Pamela Rose.

Paula became a single mother, raising strong independent daughters, whom she loved more than anything. Paula received her Associates Degree in Early Childhood Development at DeAnza College in Cupertino, California. She truly loved children and had a passion for teaching pre-school and kindergarten. After her divorce, she started working in the heart of Silicon Valley at Zilog, where she stayed for 17 years. She made so many friends through the years! On May 10th, 1997, Paula married Dusty Davis. They became cub 1 and cub 2. Their love of the beach led them to their honeymoon at Pajaro Dunes. Paula loved that the beach was covered in sand dollars and brought tons home.

Paula, Dusty and Marina moved to Dillon, Montana on August 1st, 2000, Paula missed Margo Heberling, her best friend (of now) 50 years. Pamela moved up to Montana not too long after. The family was excited to all be reunited!

Paula was the most kind-hearted person we've ever known. She was there for anyone who needed her. She found joy in children, plants, food (especially Blue Cheese), her pets, a good clean joke...and of course glitter. Anyone who knew Paula, knew her glitter obsession was real. So much so, she became known as the glitter queen!

She also had an addiction to schlocky talk shows like Jerry Springer, Maury Povich and her favorite (and secret crush) Steve Wilkos. She even managed to get an autographed picture of Steve! Paula was a best friend to many and a second mom to those who needed her. She loved any reason to decorate and celebrate! Paula also loved America and patriotism.

Paula joined her parents, stepfather, and her beloved sister Amy in heaven. We know they're all watching over us together, probably covered in glitter.

She is survived by her loving husband, Dusty, 2 and air search was started and the Beaverhead Search and Rescue unit was deployed. Sunday's search did not locate the hunter. The search area was expanded on Monday and the Montana Army National Guard was contacted for assistance with the aerial search by SAR incident commander Brian Vinson. A UH-60M Blackhawk helicopter deployed from Helena with five soldiers. The helicopter picked up Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office Sergeant Mulkey at 12:10 and at 13:30 a ground team located the missing hunter and notified the helicopter crew. The hunter was found in a ravine pinned under his ATV. He had been there for about 44 hours and was in critical condition. A flight medic stabilized the man and he was flown to Barrett Memorial Hospital in Dillon, where he was treated and eventually transferred to St. Patrick's Hospital in Missoula.

The assistance of the Lifeflight crew and the Montana Army National Guard crew were absolutely crucial to the success of the rescue of the injured hunters. I am grateful for their rapid deployment and willingness to assist. We are also blessed to have such an outstanding search and rescue unit with volunteers who respond so professionally and give of their time and talents, as well as the men and woman of the Sheriff's Office and Dispatch Center.

RED HAT SOCIETY NEWS

The Red Hat Belles met at the Pizza Hut on Tuesday, October 23rd with 16 ladies attending including Janie Falconer, who was welcomed as our newest member and Ronda Feuerstack, who came as a guest today. Now we hope to see Ronda again soon, as a Red Hat Belle.

Co-hostesses, Phyllis Davenport and "Pete" Tarleton had decorated the tables with a Halloween theme, including some creepy, crawly critters on the tables. Very appropriate.

Alyce Wassail took up a collection for the Beaverhead Animal Shelter.

Door prizes in the form of gift certificates were given out to Glenda Olsen and Linda Shaw. Congratulations!

Mary Staples, Darlene Rose and Janie Falconer volunteered to co-host in November, thank you. Time and place will be announced at a later date.

Thank you to the staff at the Pizza Hut for their fine food and service. Last but not least. Thank you to Phyllis and "Pete" for co-hosting this event. Everyone had a fun time.

NON-DISCRIMINATION LAW

Did you know that Montana's statewide non-discrimination law, the Montana Human Rights Act, protects people from discrimination based on race, sex, disability, and other personal characteristics, but does not include sexual orientation or gender identity? As a result, 22,300 LGBTQ people in Montana lack statewide protection from ongoing discrimination? For more information about protecting the LGBTQ population, please contact PFLAG @ plagdillon@gmail.com.
