MONTANA WESTERN FINANCIAL AID OFFICE OFFERS FREE FAFSA WORKSHOPS

The University of Montana Western's Financial Aid Office is providing a series of workshops to help Montana Western students and members of the community complete their 2019-2020 Free Applications for Federal Student Aid, or FAFSA.

Current or future college students who have questions or need assistance with completing their FAFSA applications can come to one of four scheduled sessions in November and work with the Montana Western Financial Aid team. All sessions will be held in the Swysgood Technology Center (STC) in room 004 (Multi-Media Lab B).

A FAFSA application needs to be submitted each year in order for students to apply for federal student aid, such as federal grants, work-study, and loans. For more information, visit https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/fafsa.

FAFSA Workshop Session Schedule:

- Thursday, November 1, 2018 – 11:15 a.m. to 1 p.m.
- Friday, November 2, 2018 – 3:15 to 5 p.m.
- Wednesday, November 7, 2018 – 11:15 a.m. to 1 p.m.
- Thursday, November 8, 2018 – 3:15 to 5 p.m.

The Financial Aid team also invites Montana Western students to use the computers in the library to complete their FAFSA applications earlier or if the times don't fit with their schedules.

If at any point a student needs help with their application, they are invited to stop by the Financial Aid Office or call (866) 869-6668 and the Financial Aid staff will be happy to provide assistance.

For more information, please email Financial Aid Specialist Jenny Fox at Jennifer.Fox@umwestern.edu.

Forest Service Offers Tips to Hunters

Good luck to all hunters looking for that trophy bull elk or other game animal in the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest. The Forest Service hopes you have a good hunt and offers some tips for making your hunt even more enjoyable.

here are some more tips:

Camping

You can camp most anywhere in the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest, within 300 feet of a road, with just a few exceptions. Be a good neighbor and don't set up your gear at campsites you aren't really using.

There's a 16-day limit on camping in any developed or undeveloped site. After leaving the location, a minimum of seven days is required before any group or persons may reoccupy the site.

Keep your camp at least 200 feet from any lake or stream, to avoid harming the soft soils near the water.

A complete list of Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest campgrounds is at www.fs.usda.gov/bdnf.

Fires

The current fire danger for the Beaverhead-Deerlodge is posted at www.fs.usda.gov/bdnf and on signs around the forest. The higher the danger, the easier it is for fires to spread.

Choose a site for a campfire carefully, near water if possible, and clear it of combustible material.

Remember, just because it's cold in the morning doesn't mean fires can't spread quickly! NEVER walk away from a smoldering campfire. ALWAYS make sure a fire is dead out. Mix water, earth, and embers and stir them until they're cool enough to hold in your bare hand.

Most human-caused fires in Southwest Montana start in the fall, either from cigarettes or warming fires. Also, watch out for catalytic converters starting fires under vehicles. Remember to bring along a shovel and bucket.

Rental Cabins

You can rent some of the cabins in the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest during hunting season. To reserve a cabin, call toll free, 1-877-444-6777, or go to http://www.recreation.gov/. For a complete list of the Beaverhead-Deerlodge cabins, go to www.fs.usda.gov/bdnf.

Rocky climbs to top of Frontier Conference with 43-14 win over Montana Western

The No. 13 ranked Battlin' Bears climbed to the top of the Frontier Conference with a 43-14 landslide victory over No. 16 ranked Montana Western.

The Battlin' Bears most recent loss came to Montana Western in the final minute of play in September. Despite being ranked higher nationally, the Battlin' Bears needed to beat the Bulldogs in order to replace them at the top of the conference.

Montana Western scored first as quarterback Jon Jund found Walker McKitrick for a 23 yard touchdown.

On a fourth down with six to go, Rocky's Matt Larson notably faked a punt and tossed a pass to Tyler Eberhardt for the conversion. Rocky seized on the opportunity with a thirteen yard Jacob Bakken to Max Gray touchdown pass.

In the fourth quarter, the Bears would block and catch a punt and run it in for the score.

Montana Western's Sean Miller responded with a two yard touchdown pass to Nate Simkins, but it would be too little too late.

DILLON BEAVERS TAKE WIN FROM WHITEFISH

The Dillon Beavers took advantage of 5 turnovers by Whitefish to start their postseason play Friday night at home with a 27-7 win. Whitefish had some good defense against the Beavers in the red zone to keep the Beavers to 27.

Justus Peterson threw to Bradley Rakich for an early touchdown and Johnson also ran one in late in the first quarter. He also got out of the pocket a lot and that helped with getting past the defense and move the ball down filed.

Rakich had a great game with receptions and then he forced a fumble and got the recovering.

The Beavers however got in the red zone at least 3 times and could not score.

The win was a boost in confidence for the Beavers after their lose last week. The Beavers now head to Billings next week to play the top team in the east, Billings Central.
