BCHS Students Raising Money for Service Learning and Language Immersion Trip to Peru

Just in time for the holidays! The BCHS Peru Travelers are selling coffee from November 1-December 15 through Ghost Town Coffee out of Bozeman to raise money for a service learning and Spanish language immersion trip to Peru in June of 2020. If you would like to support them by buying specialty sustainably harvested coffee roasted right here in Montana, go to www.ghosttowncoffee.com, click on Coffee, then Coffee for a Cause, and choose any of the different Dillon Beavers coffee selections to purchase and select your delivery method! We have the Beaver Blend, Dillon Decaf, and DB Pride! You can have your coffee delivered in Dillon (we will deliver once every week or two), mailed to you (best option if you need it by a certain date!), picked up in Bozeman, or mailed anywhere in the country. All proceeds from the fundraiser go toward helping students pay for their service learning and language immersion trip to Peru in June of 2020. If you know of a particular traveler you can mention their name in your order notes and your funds will go directly to their trip, otherwise your funds will be split evenly to help all travelers. Thank you for your support! Gracias por su apoyo!

Montana Western Hosts Visiting Glass Artist Sally Prsch

Sally Prsch, a visiting glass artist from Montague, Massachusetts, will present a public artist's lecture on Thursday, November 8 at 5:00 p.m. in the Mary Baker Emerick Art Annex Lecture Room at Montana Western. With a background in both scientific glassblowing and fine art, she will be working with UMW students in class November 5-9. Prsch got her start in the art of glassblowing at age 13 working as a part-time apprentice at the University of Nebraska. She received her BFA in Furnace Glassblowing and Ceramics from the University of Kansas. Upon graduating, Prsch started her own glassblowing business.

After receiving her Certificate in Scientific Glass Technology from Salem College in New Jersey, Prsch worked for AT&T doing large quartz work for the semiconductor industry. She continued her education by completing a degree in Applied Science from Salem College and went on to teach scientific glassblowing and the properties of glass to graduate students in Chemistry and Physics at the University of Massachusetts.

Please join us for this unique opportunity to learn more about artistic and scientific glassblowing. The lecture is free and open to the public and refreshments will be served.

For more information on Prsch's visit to Montana Western, please contact Michael Hengler by calling 406-683-7344 or email michael.hengler@umwestern.edu.

KIDS INVITED TO FREE "BAG AND BOX THEATRE" HOLIDAY PLAYS AT MONTANA WESTERN

The University of Montana Western's Fine Art's Department presents "Bag and Box Theatre: Holiday Plays for Children" as part of the Bank of Commerce Performing Arts Series held November 8-11 on the University of Montana Western campus.

"With the switch of a box -- which can become a car -- and a bag, which becomes the pizza delivery man's hat, the Bag and Box concept reminds audiences that anyone can create a fun play and a pretend world with little to nothing," said visiting Director and Montana Western alumna Tawsha Jones.

Theatre Professor and Technical Director Marcus Todd, with a team of student technicians, are creating a magical and colorful forest of cardboard trees, oversized gift boxes and a zany cutout airplane to highlight the holiday theme for children.

All kids are invited to join the fun for free by attending the performances, which will be held on Nov. 8 at 6:30 p.m., Nov. 9 at 4 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. and Nov. 10-11 at 1 p.m.

All performances are held in the Small Auditorium (Main Hall 314) on the Montana Western Campus. Children under the age of 11 must be accompanied by an adult.

These shows are made possible by generous funding from the Bank of Commerce and ASUMW/Student Senate.

Individual tickets for adults are $5 and Montana Western students are admitted free of charge. Please email judy.ulrich@umwestern.edu for reservations and more information or call (406) 683-7422.

Thompson Park Closed for the Season

The visitors to this area may park at the highway entrances and continue to walk in for recreation purposes. During this time maintenance services will not be provided at any of the developed sites within the park boundary. Visitors should plan to "Pack In and Pack Out" everything they may bring with them. Park visitors are also reminded that the discharge of firearms or other implements inside the Park boundaries is prohibited.

Forest Service Clarifies Use of Electric Bikes

Electric bikes (e-bikes) are now becoming popular throughout the United States and there has been some confusion about whether they are considered motorized vehicles and where people may ride them. The Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest would like to clarify where e-bike riders are allowed to ride.

The Forest Service recognizes that technology continues to rapidly change, including the design and capability of e-bikes and other related modes of travel. As a starting point, certain applicable laws provide direction to how e-bikes are defined and where they may

The Forest Service Travel Management Rule defines motor vehicles as any vehicle that is self-propelled, with the exception of a vehicle that travels on rails or fits the vehicle criteria for "mobility use" for mobility impaired individuals. The Forest Service considers technologies that merge bicycles and motors (gas, batteries or electric powered) as motor vehicles. E-bikes, therefore, would be considered a motorized vehicle and not allowed on non-motorized trails.

Exploring the Beaverhead-Deerlodge NF 3.3 million acres is a favorite past time for many. Over 55% of the Forest is open to summer motorized use and 60% is open to winter motorized use. Over 5,600 miles of roads and over 1,000 miles of trails are open to motorized recreation. E-bikes are welcome in these areas and travel routes. Here are a few guidelines for riding e-bikes on the Forest:

Motorized travel off a designated road or trail is prohibited.
