RUTH BOGUE SUTTON

Our mother, Ruth Sutton left us to join our father in heaven in the afternoon hours on November 5, 2018.

She was born in Alder, Montana on October 5, 1931 to Jim & Ivel Bogue. Ruth spent her childhood years in the Madison Valley. Ruth met the love of her life, Fred Sutton, when she was 18 while working at the Blue Anchor Restaurant in Twin Bridges and married shortly thereafter. Ruth was a loving mother, grandmother and great grandmother.

Ruth was a devoted mother to her three children Dan, Connie &

Russ. Ruth and Fred moved several times throughout their lives, eventually settling down in Dillon for the past 42 years. Ruth worked at Clancy School; Barrett Hospital and at Western Montana College, where she eventually retired from in 1993.

Ruth was preceded in death by her parents, husband Fred, daughter Connie McEachern and numerous brothers and sisters.

She is survived by her sister Doris (George) Brewster, sons Daniel (Linda) Sutton and Russell (RayAnn) Sutton and son in law Bob McEachern. Grandchildren Cory (Kendra) Sutton, Kurt (Tianna) McEachern, Karmen McEachern, Keon Sutton, Shane (Annie) Sutton, Dustin Sutton, Karson (Marc) Evans. Great grandchildren Kayla, Cass, Kai, Dylan, Tyler, Parker, Luke, Joey, Kolter, Rain, Bradley, Logan, Joshua, Noah & Bodie.

The doctors and staff at Barrett Hospital were wonderful to her and she always appreciated the care they gave her. They will always be treasured by her family for the loving care they provided.

Service will be at the Brundage Funeral Home on Monday, November 12th at 1 pm. Interment will be held at the Point of Rocks Cemetery following the service. Celebration of Life gathering to be held at the Elks Lodge in Dillon.

There is a guestbook available online at WWW.brundagefuneralhome.com

Letter to the Editor

Once again Richard Turner reveals his true character with an ad hominem attack that impugns the character of anyone who disagrees with him rather than refute the specific statements with which he disagrees. In an earlier letter to the editor, Sept. 9, 2014, I asked him to cite specifics of documented cases of discrimination against homosexuals in housing or job markets in Dillon. Four years later, he has failed to do so. My letter at that time was in response to another of Turner's ad hominem attacks on City Attorney, Dolan (and, gratuitously, against others), for his legal advice to the city counsel not to pass a non discrimination ordinance devised by Turner which would probably invite a lawsuit against the city. He called the attorney's advice "a legalistic smoke screen" and "excuses for the judiciary committee" and implied that attorney, Dolan, lacked the courage of the Bozeman City Attorney, whose city was being sued for passing just such an NDO. In that same letter, Turner pretended to be mimicking Attorney Dolan by saying, "Oh dear, what if we pass an NDO and someone sues us?" He then assumes a macho voice of his own and says, Well, yes, it could happen. So what? ... If the City of Dillon is sued by a bunch of well funded homophobes, .. I say, bring it on." He then identifies the "well funded homophobes" as the Montana Family Foundation, which he describes thus: "Despite their warm and fuzzy name, this group's main focus is on fighting against gay rights by spreading lies and stirring up fear". He fails, however, to cite any specific lies spread by the MFF nor does he show how they stir up fear. Not content with maligning the MFF, Turner then attacks its president, Greg Laszloffy, for "mak(ing) a good living (he took $80,000 dollars from his foundation in 2011 and no doubt earns a lot more now." Is this to be construed as shameful or criminal? Notice the word took, not earned, implying that his salary was somehow fraudulently obtained. Not content with maligning the Montana Family Foundation and its President, Turner then turns on recently re-elected US representative, Greg Gianforte" "If Dillon passes an NDO, Laszloffy will almost certainly get involved. He'll bring his considerable financial resources, most of it(sic) provided by out-of-state right wing organizations like ALEC and some of it from in-state bigots (my emphasis) like the Gianfortes, to bear against our city." Note, once again, no specific examples of funds supplied by out-of-state right-wing organizations, nor examples of what Turner considers bigotry.

Now let me address his attacks on me. He describes my letter asking for a referendum on the NDO to take the responsibility for such an ordinance off the shoulders of the city counsel and put it squarely on the shoulders of the majority of the voters of Dillon, as "a cheap homophobic attack against those of us working for equal rights for all in Dillon" Surely equal rights for all in Dillon should include the right of employers to hire whom they wish and the rights of homeowners to rent rooms or their entire homes to whom they please. He then alludes, again without substantiation, to an alleged Supreme Court statement to the effect that there is nothing "special" about laws that prevent people from losing jobs and homes because of who they are." I would like to see the citation for that case so that I can ascertain that it is "on point" and not dicta. And thus another example of Turner's penchant for misconstruing or innuendo to support his point of view. See examples above.

Next, he says "there is nothing 'arbitrary' about PFLAG trying to protect a segment of the population who have experienced a long, painful history of abuse including being fired, evicted, and denied access to full participation in their communities.

Again, I ask for specific examples of any of these abuses occurring in Dillon.

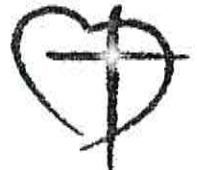

Turner also attempts to redefine common words in the English language to suit his purpose. He says heterosexual is not the norm despite the fact that there are infinitely more heterosexuals than homosexuals. He says that there are fewer blacks than white people in Montana, but whites are not the population norm in Montana despite the fact that there are more of them in Montana. There are infinitely more heterosexuals than homosexuals at least in western countries. And I believe, though I don't know, that this applies to mid-eastern countries. I do know that Saudi Arabia imposes the death penalty for homosexuality, so I assume it does apply. Not, I hasten to add, that I consider that punishment, or any punishment for sexual practices outside the norm, acceptable. Let me make my position crystal clear before Turner again exercises his propensity to misconstrue. People's sexuality is emphatically their own business, and is not, and should not be, subject to scrutiny by the judiciary.

Finally, Turner accuses me of "(releasing (my) full venom)" when I pointed out that making Dillon "inclusive and amiable for all people" was asking for an Utopia that never was and never will be, because "all people" covered convicted rapists, pederasts, child molesters, flashers, murderers, thieves, kleptomaniacs etc. I specifically included murderers, thieves and kleptomaniacs etc. to ensure that my observation was not limited to, as Turner calls them, sexual deviants, but included all sorts of undesirables. But Turner chooses to call this "His cheap insinuation that gay people should "obviously" (his word again) be lumped with deviants and criminals was especially shameful." And concludes, "Does anyone actually believe this B.S?"

If anyone has demonstrated venom and cheap shots it is Turner. He is the master of innuendo, and manages to misconstrue any statements he disagrees with. He uses words like "out-of-state", and "deep-pocketed" and "wealthy" as insults as if they denoted something shameful, thus implying that only middle class Montanans who agree with his point of view have virtue."

To our community friends:

Hello all! I am writing in regards to the Christmas Dinner at the Dillon Elks Lodge. This will be our 8th Christmas dinner at the Elks Lodge. The past 7 years have been a great success for our community. We had an exceptional outpouring of the volunteers, food and cash donations.

We serve elderly on fixed incomes. low income families with small children, disabled veterans, handicapped residents and the general public. There is no charge for this meal.

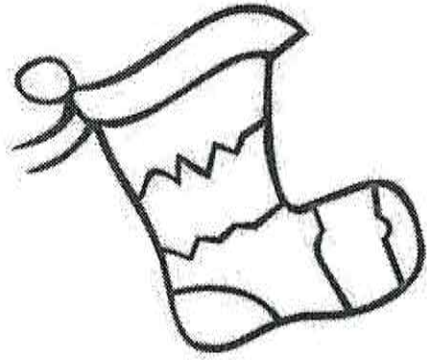

We would like to provide more for the residents of dillon. We are in need of funding for enough food to feed everyone. We also would like to be able to provided gifts for the children that attend the Christmas dinner.

As you know, the Elks is a non-profit organization. W greatly appreciate your generous donations in the past years and look forward to working with you again this year. Your donation in any amount is genuinely appreciative. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Bible Truth...Three-fold Sanctification in the scriptures (Part 2)

----We believe the following: (1) the Bible was given by the inspiration of God, 2 Timothy 3:16-17; (2) all statements made in this and any ensuing articles will be based on what the Bible says; (3) the Bible only is the reliable source of spiritual & doctrinal truth; (4) all beliefs in conflict with the Bible are false.

In part one of this series, scriptures were given regarding spiritual sanctification. Those scriptures stated that spiritual sanctification is by the shed blood of Jesus Christ. It takes effect when an individual repents of sin and puts his faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Sanctification of life begins after our spiritual salvation and is based on the choices we make during the course of our life.

Paul writes to the Christians in 1 Thessalonians 4:3-12 instructing them to sanctify themselves by avoiding immorality & forbidden cravings. He commands them not to steal, to have brotherly love toward one another, to mind their own business, to work for a living and to be honest. Choosing to do what is right contributes to a sanctified (holy) life.

In 2 Corinthians 6:14-18 Paul instructs this church regarding the need of separation/sanctification in service to God from those rejecting God and His word.

Jesus stated in John 17: 17 that His disciples are sanctified through the truth found in His word.

Romans 6:15-23 refers to yielding ourselves to God and becoming "servants of righteousness unto holiness" and not serving sin, uncleanness & iniquity. Holiness is synonymous with sanctification, purity & separation.

1 Peter 3:14-15 states that those who have been saved are to live "As obedient children..." and to "be holy (sanctified)" in every aspect of life.

The final sanctification of the children of God is that of our mind, spirit and body. This occurs at the Second Coming of Christ and the resurrection.

Philippians 3:21 states that Christ will "change our vile body" into a glorious (sin free, pain free, disease free) body.

1 Cor. 15:51-53 speaks of our bodies being raised and becoming incorruptible & immortal.

Finally, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 makes it clear that all believers, living and dead, will be "caught up together" and will "meet the Lord in the air."

In fellowship hall, downstairs.

We would love you to share a hearty soup luncheon and great fellowship. Come to learn about a program much used but little known in our county.

Shelli Schuett, rancher, will talk about the H2A Program which is a legal guest worker program for agriculture in the US. Shelli will explain how it works both for the migrant worker, the rancher and the community. And how it provides huge benefits to our local agriculture as well as our foreign workers. We may also have a member of the Ag Worker Health & Service office explain health care and outreach service in this part of the country. It's Free!

You will no doubt recognize friends and absorb some hopefully new, relevant information about life, people and the work around us. Questions: Chris 865-0722 or
