American Education Week Nov. 12-16, 2018

Tuesday-School Board Trustees Day

Today, School District #10 would like to honor and recognize our local trustees and their numerous contributions to our district. School board members tackle difficult jobs and shoulder enormous responsibilities. These men and women are elected to establish policies that provide the framework for our schools. They provide vision and leadership in their roles as advocates for public education.

Board members serving District #10 are Chairman Jed Petersen, Vice Chair Kathy Hilton, Estee Aiken, Sharon Anderson, Marti Laknar, Sharon Morehouse and Todd Rouse. Thank you for a job well done!

GREAT HARVEST IS RAISING DOUGH

The sales will benefit the Beaverhead County Mental Health Local Advisory Council. They are raising money to launch the Resilient Oriented Community program. This program helps county residents understand health issues such as depression, suicide ideation and suicide attempts. It also educates county residents on how to confidently react and refer folks to appropriate resources.

Come by and meet our new bakery owners here for training from Stow, OH and Shelby Township, MI. We are featuring our Stuffing Bread, Cranberry Orange Bread, Pumpkin Chocolate Chip Muffins & Teacakes, Pecan Pie Bars, Thanksgiving Rolls, Biscuits, Muffins, Tea Cakes, Cookies, and all your favorites!

We will be offering our full sandwich lineup. This month's special is the BBQ Chicken Cheddar Melt.

Letter to the Editor

It's not pie. There is plenty for all.

As some of you might know, PFLAG Dillon has asked the City of Dillon to adopt a non-discrimination (otherwise known as expansion of the definition of protected persons) city ordinance. This request is not the first of its kind nor will it be the last. Local communities throughout the state and the country have asked their governing bodies to consider similar ordinances. Missoula 2010, Helena 2012, Butte 2014, Bozeman 2014, Whitefish 2016, and several states, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Hawaii, Illinois, Iowa, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Nevada, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, Michigan, Oregon, New Hampshire, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Utah, Vermont, and Washington have all adopted the inclusion of sexual orientation and gender identity in their state's civil rights law. We are not asking for anything new or novel. This country and this state have seen their fair share of granting equal protections to persons who tend to be discriminated against based on their condition of not being a member of the majority class. I recognize that this might still irritate some of you and honestly, there is nothing I can do for you. There is no amount of logic I can use to convince you that every single American citizen deserves the right to rent a home, maintain employment, and receive public accommodations without fear of losing any of those things.

I am a straight white female and I am constantly checking my privilege without shame or fear that someone else might enjoy the same rights and privileges I have. There are plenty of rights and privileges to go around. We are not talking about pie. We are talking about the American belief, the American ideal that all people are created equal and as such deserve equal rights under the law. I ask my fellow Dillon citizens; my fellow Americans to stand on the right side of history and support a non-discrimination city ordinance.

To learn more and to review the proposed city ordinance please go PFLAG Dillon Facebook Page or email pflagdillon@gmail.com and we will be happy to share with you the proposed ordinance.

Thank you!

Editor
Dillonite Daily
126 N. Montana St
Dillon, MT 59725

Dear Editor,

The Dillon City Council is considering a non-discrimination ordinance for the city. I hope everyone considers the economic impact of this change.

Fair business practices are good for business. When your customers know that your business is fair, they trust your products and services. When your customers know that you treat your employees fairly, the customers can be confident that your services are high quality. With fairness, employee retention improves and service with it.

A body of more than 30 research studies demonstrates that fairness and non-discrimination impact business outcomes. The impact leads to lower costs and/or higher revenues, both of which improve the bottom line. Employees benefit and show greater job commitment. [Source: M.V. L. Badgett, L.E. Durso, A. Kastanis, and C. Mallory. The Business Impact of LGBT-Supportive Workplace Policies. The Williams Institute. 2013.]

For our college, the University of Montana Western, being located in a town known for its fairness will improve the ranking of Western. With a higher ranking for UMW, we will attract more students and better students. UMW will also attract more grant funding and more scholarships for students.

In public accommodations, if customers are treated fairly, they will return. Tourists will think of returning to our town, and they may bring their friends and family to visit. Fairness and non-discrimination are good for business, good for higher education, and good for tourism.

To all the business-minded people in Dillon, I challenge you to see the benefits of the proposed non-discrimination city ordinance. Please join me in supporting the ordinance and our economy.

Sincerely,

Brent Kirkpatrick, Ph.D.
Founder and Researcher

To the Editor:

Dick Turner's favorite epithets appear to be "cheap, homophobic, right wing, deep-pocketed, wealthy, bigoted, and out-of-state." And, if he can get all of them into one sentence, he is in hog heaven. He has also demonstrated a remarkable penchant for: 1. attributing the least desirable interpretation of statements normally not even open to alternate interpretations; 2. attributing his interpretation to the writer; and 3. then attacking the writer for his, Turner's, interpretation. This is not an admirable quality. If Turner is not a typical example of the members of PFLAG, they should be ashamed of him and disown him. If he is typical, we should be ashamed for them. His vitriolic attacks on inoffensive people like Greg Gianforte, and organizations such as Montana Family Foundation (and its president whom he attacks by name), and which he characterizes as "a well-funded bunch of homophobes," are really beyond impenetrable. Perhaps he would benefit from a class in anger management.

I heartily agree that sexuality should not be a cause for persecution or ridicule, no matter how much it differs from the norm. Always, of course, provided that people do not try to force their sexuality on unwilling participants or minors. For example, the recent and ongoing scandals involving certain Roman Catholic priests.

However, I most heartily disagree that a person's sexual orientation should be a reason for putting such persons on a pedestal and according them certain "rights" and privileges not available to anyone of less unusual sexual orientation. Speaking of rights, what about the rights of employers to hire whom they please; and of home owners to rent rooms or even the whole house to whom they please. Shouldn't their rights be protected? Where in the Bill of Rights does it state that people of differing sexual proclivities shall have special rights in matters of housing and employment?

The First Amendment does, however, state the following: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting (my emphasis) the free exercise thereof;

Many, perhaps even most, Christians do not approve of homosexuality. For Muslims, it is a capital offense. Doesn't passing a law or ordinance requiring devout Christians and Muslims to employ or rent their homes or premises to such people violate their constitutional rights? That this is not a typical Turner "straw man" argument can be seen from the fairly recent case of a devout Christian baker who was publicly humiliated for refusing to bake a wedding cake for a homosexual wedding.

Finally, the fact that a government body, such as the U.S. Congress, for instance, has passed a law or act doesn't mean it is desirable or even enforceable. Witness the flaunting of various drug laws, "more honored in the breach than the observance," (Hamlet). And witness that monumental failure, the 18th amendment, that gave rise to an unprecedented period of lawlessness and gangsterism, with Al Capone as the apex gangster, until it was rescinded 14 years later with the 21st amendment on December 5, 1933.

Lunch & Learn

Tues. November 13th at 11:30 am
First Presbyterian (Glendale & Pacific)
In fellowship hall, downstairs.

We would love you to share a hearty soup luncheon and great fellowship. Come to learn about a program much used but little known in our county.

Shelli Schuett, rancher, will talk about the H2A Program which is a legal guest worker program for agriculture in the US. Shelli will explain how it works both for the migrant worker, the rancher and the community. And how it provides huge benefits to our local agriculture as well as our foreign workers. We may also have a member of the Ag Worker Health & Service office explain health care and outreach service in this part of the country. It's Free!

You will no doubt recognize friends and absorb some hopefully new, relevant information about life, people and the work around us. Questions: Chris 865-0722 or Adele 683-2655

You Can Make A Difference...

Butte Rescue Mission Blanket Drive and Fundraiser

Currently, Butte does not have a homeless shelter. Their previous shelter closed in April 2017 due to over-capacity and fire codes. They were sleeping an average of 45 per night and feeding 130 per day in a single family dwelling. In April 2018, they purchased property at 610 E. Platinum Street in Butte to build a new rescue mission to serve men, women, children and families and help them get back on their feet.

They are delayed in opening until December 2018, and there is no other available temporary housing for the homeless to go. This month long blanket drive and fundraiser will assist them in opening their doors as soon as possible with their new 56 bed shelter and community center, and in meeting the needs of the homeless who stay there. The Butte Rescue Mission is a non-profit Christian organization serving the hurting, hungry and homeless in seven counties throughout SW Montana. The seven counties are Silver Bow, Jefferson, Madison, Beaverhead, Granite, Powell and Deer Lodge. To read about the new facility, go to ButteRescueMission.org and click on Center of Hope. They are doing more to meet the specific needs of the homeless in our cities, but it's a community effort to make a real difference and change for them. – Shelly Davis, Dillon
