JULIUS CAESAR TO BE PRESENTED AT MONTANA WESTERN BY SHAKESPEARE IN THE SCHOOLS

Adrian Sanchez Gonzalez.

The University of Montana Western is pleased to announce a production of William Shakespeare's Julius Caesar as part of the 2018-19 Bank of Commerce sponsored Performing Arts Series. The shows will take place on December 6, presented by Montana Shakespeare in the Schools (MSIS).

Unlike traditionally-performed Shakespeare stage plays, MSIS creates an interactive environment to engage the audience. "For our production of Julius Caesar, audience participation is critical. The audience acts as citizens of Rome who play an important part in determining the course of the play. We invite the audience to listen carefully, be alert and respond to what is happening when called upon," stated MSIS.

The play is set in 44 BCE, when political greed and dishonesty were at an all-time high. Julius Caesar was a bright spot in the thriving Roman empire. After being appointed dictator for life the Senate organized a plan to murder Caesar based on their fears that this would harm the Republic. This production allows the audience to ponder upon the plot, motivation, intentions and thirst for power and beliefs through the words and actions of the central characters.

Julius Caesar will be performed on December 6, 2018 at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. in the Beier Auditorium at UMW. The performances are 80 minutes in length. Tickets will be available at the door; $10 general admission, $5 seniors and youth, and $2 per student in student groups (recommended for grades 6 and above). Please contact judy.ulrich@umwestern.edu for additional information.

47th Annual St. Rose Christmas Bazaar set for Saturday, December 1

The 47th annual St. Rose Christmas Bazaar will be held Saturday, December 1, from 9 am to 1 pm at the St. Rose Family Center, 226 S. Atlantic St. Ethnic foods, homemade baked goods and candy will be sold. Also available: crafts, decor, Advent Wreaths and Advent Candles, as well as raffles. Coffee, doughnuts and a light lunch can also be purchased. Admission is free. For further information call 683-2882, 683-4329, or 683-0062.

Christmas Tree Permits Available

If your Christmas spirit gets a boost from going to the woods to cut your own Christmas tree, then the Forest Service and Bureau of Land Management can help out.

With a permit, you can cut a Christmas tree in all the national forests in Montana and on public lands served by BLM's Missoula, Dillon, and Butte field offices.

Forest Service offices selling permits in Southwest Montana are located in Philipsburg, Butte, Dillon, Wisdom, Sheridan, and Ennis.

Christmas tree-cutting permits are $5, and each family may purchase up to three permits. Cutting trees without a permit is subject to a citation and fine.

Free Permits for 4th Graders! As part of the 'Every Kid in a Park' (EKIP) national initiative which strives to connect youth with nature, the Beaverhead-Deerlodge NF and the BLM are offering one free Christmas tree permit to every fourth grader. To participate in the free holiday tree program visit www.everykidinapark.gov. Fourth graders must present a valid EKIP Pass or paper voucher at their local Forest Service or BLM office (not vendors) to receive their free permit.

Tree cutting is not allowed in wilderness areas or in BLM-administered wilderness study areas.

When you purchase a permit, you will also receive a helpful information sheet that gives advice on how to best cut and care for your Christmas tree.

Forest Service and BLM offices are open weekdays, from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The following locations also sell permits:

- Lima: Ralph's Exxon
- Sheridan: McLeod Mercantile

You may also buy permits by mail. Send a check for $5 to the nearest Forest Service office (make the check out to "USDA Forest Service") or to the nearest BLM office (make the check out to "USDI Bureau of Land Management"). Be sure to include your name and address.

For more information contact the Forest Service at (406) 683-3900, or the BLM at (406) 533-7600.

Mr. Anderson's technology classes have been designing phone App's. The culmination of this project is the App challenge. The first group that made the semi-finals had a chance to present their idea to a panel of judges. This group consisted of: Nadia Ledbetter and Abigail Kizzar demonstrating their app "Nabigail" which is a blue tooth phone charging system. Eden Kindberg and Madison Carroll, came up with "Shoe Plus"...a fitness tracking device for the shoe. Milo Glossa presented his "symptoms" app, which allows a person to enter their symptoms and find out why they are sick

Quincy Andersen and Laura Martin made the "Super Shopper" app, which makes grocery shopping easier, as well as finding out the expiration dates of products. Sammy Roberts and Abigail Lemelin demonstrated their "Pitch Perfect" app, which helps music listeners find out what their friends are enjoying. John Peterson and Kee Christiansen presented their cow monitor app which allows cattle owners to check the health of their cow herd. Going on to the finals next week, will be the "cow monitor" and Nabigail. Congratulations Nadia, Abbi, John, and Kee. Next week we will hear who gets to continue on to the finals from the second group.

Letter to the Editor

Once again Dick Turner indulges his shameless propensity for reckless character assassination of anyone who dares to oppose (or whom he even thinks might oppose his views) by applying a pejorative connotation to earnest, reasoned statements in search of an amicable solution to a contentious issue initiated by Dick Turner.

In defense of his NDO ordinance proposal four years ago (Dillonite Daily 9/1/14), Turner sneeringly accused City Attorney Dolan of setting up a "legalistic smoke screen" and "excuses for the judiciary committee" in his legal advice to the city counsel to avoid passing Turner's NDO because of the possibility of a law suit against the city. He implied that attorney Dolan had less courage than the Bozeman City Attorney who was even then immersed in defending Bozeman against just such a suit as Attorney Dolan had cautioned could happen.

Not content with smearing Mr. Dolan's reputation, Turner, without justification, turned his libelous attacks on innocent, uninvolved people such as The Montana Family Foundation, which he describes as "a well-funded bunch of homophobes . . . whose "main focus is on fighting against gay rights" and its president, Greg Laszloffy, who, he says, "took (my emphasis) $80,000 from his foundation in 2011". Thus slyly implying by innuendo that the money was defalcated rather than earned. Turner then attacks the inoffensive Gianfortes, and organizations like ALEC. None of whom had thus far said anything about Turner's NDO proposal.

In my reply to Turner (Dillonite Daily, Sept. 9, 2014), I asked him three questions: 1) How are homosexuals or trans-sexual people identified by potential employers and landlords? 2) Are there any documented cases of homosexuals being discriminated against in Dillon housing or job markets? If so, would you cite the specific cases. 3) If not, Why did you introduce this proposed ordinance?

Despite his intemperate personal diatribes since these questions were put to him four years ago, Turner has not answered a single question. Instead, to my reasonable proposal to put his NDO ordinance to a referendum at the next election provided the members of PFLAG can prove with documented, specific evidence that homosexuals, bisexuals and trans-sexuals have suffered discrimination in housing and employment in the city of Dillon, he once again trots out his favorite epithets, describing my letter as "a cheap homophobic attack against those of us (my emphasis) working for equal rights for all in Dillon".

Notice how, in that last phrase he slyly wraps himself in the mantle of virtue and righteousness while actually trampling on the rights of homeowners and employers in Dillon.

Observe also how he vaguely alludes to "people losing jobs and homes because of who they are." (no references as to when and where) with the subtle implication that this has happened, or is likely to happen in Dillon, if we fail to pass his NDO. That makes about as much sense as saying because 6 million Jews were murdered in the concentration camps in Germany and Poland in WW2, we should pass an ordinance against such things happening in Dillon, today.

Turner is undoubtedly a master of propaganda and character assassination. But he is also like a rabid dog who attacks any and all who dare to disagree with, or even question him.

Before this issue comes up again on Nov. 27, I would like to see concrete, specific answers to the three questions I put to Turner four years ago.
