Assistant Athletic Director Hired

University of Montana Western Director of Athletics Bill Wilson has announced the hiring of Dave Glass as Assistant Athletic Director.

Glass has spent the last two years as a manager at Green Meadow Golf Club in Hudson, N. H. overseeing day-to-day operations of the club's two 18-hole courses.

Previously he spent two and a half years as the equipment manager at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He oversaw the budget, managed department staff, and equipment operations of 33 varsity athletics programs.

Before his time at MIT, Glass worked as the athletic operations coordinator at Stonehill College. During his time there he worked as coordinator of camps and clinics and was the home events coordinator.

"I am excited that Dave has decided to join the Montana Western Athletic Department as our Assistant Athletic Director," Bill Wilson said. "He has great experience at some prestigious universities. His energy and commitment to intercollegiate athletics will greatly enhance our athletic department."

Glass also spent time coaching varsity and junior varsity baseball and basketball at local high schools

Glass obtained his masters of education in sports management from Springfield College and his bachelors of science in business management from Westfield State University where he played baseball, winning two conference championships.

Glass is expected to begin his duties at the beginning of January 2019.

Forest Service Seeks Stolen Sign

The Beaverhead-Deerlodge NF is seeking assistance from the public that will lead to the recovery of an interpretive sign that was stolen near the forest boundary along the Birch Creek Road (#98) north of Dillon. The new sign had been installed on May 5 and was reported missing in mid-August.

"The theft is very unfortunate because it was a nice interpretive sign designed to orient visitors with information about the Birch Creek area and its history," said Dillon District Ranger Scot Shuler. The sign along with materials and employee time to install it is valued at approximately $6,000.

The Forest Service is offering a reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the individual(s) involved in the theft of this sign. If anyone has knowledge of who stole the sign and where it is located, contact Matt Mickelson at (406)-683-3963.

Seven more deer found suspect for CWD along the Hi-Line

Seven mule deer bucks were found to be suspect of chronic wasting disease in the last week.

Four were harvested in CWD-positive areas in Blaine and Carbon counties. Three were harvested in new areas in Valley and Daniels counties. In Valley County, a positive deer was harvested about 18 miles west of Opheim. In Daniels County, a positive deer was harvested 15 miles northwest of Scobey near the Canadian border, and another just inside the Fort Peck Reservation about 15 miles southwest of Scobey.

In addition, a mule deer buck was confirmed positive in Hill County. As a result, Hill County, north of U.S. Highway 2 is now a CWD positive area.

FWP conducted CWD surveillance across the Hi-Line during the general big game season, which ended Nov. 25. Samples from the surveillance efforts are coming in weekly, with a new batch of results expected the middle of next week. Once the majority of CWD sample results are collected, FWP officials will determine next steps, which may include expanding current CWD positive areas and expanding CWD transportation restriction zones.

For more information on CWD in Montana, go online to fwp.mt.gov/CWD.

Used Christmas Stockings Sought

Your surplus used Christmas stocking can make Christmas brighter for poverty stricken children in San Luis, Mexico.

Local businessman, Jim McIsaac, and Tillie Butts work closely with missionaries that serve the desparate children that live in cardboard shacks, at the dump and on the streets. Jim and Tillie have been working with this ministry for several years and will be taking a team down in April to help.

Jim and Tillie are putting together Christmas dinner and Christmas stockings for 85 children that Tillie will take down Dec. 11. They are seeking donations of used stockings to fill with small gifts and treats to distribute to the children along with beans and rice to the families.

By donting used Christmas stockings, locals can help without any actual expense. Titllie does what persons wishing to give additional help to know that they will gladly accept gift items and donations for Jehovah Sma Ministries.

You can contact Tillie Butts at 406-249-3075 or drop things off with Jim McIsaac of McIsaac Appraisals in the Evergreen Center on Montana Street.

Letter to the Editor

Many people in Dillon, especially if they're old like me, consider homosexuality a bad thing – a sin, a perversion, unnatural. So why would they favor an ordinance that would protect homosexuals from being evicted, fired, or denied access to public accommodations because of their sinful, perverted, unnatural "lifestyles"?

Most young people don't carry this prejudiced (and false) view of homosexuality. They've met and come to like some gay people. They know that sexual orientation is not a "lifestyle" or even a choice. It's innate and therefore as natural, though not as common, as heterosexuality.

But these young people are not in positions of authority. The Dillon City Council, the body that will decide the fate of the proposed anti-discrimination ordinance, is comprised of people almost as old as I am. As they were growing up, they internalized our culture's anti-gay prejudices, the same ones I internalized. The difference is that while I've attempted to shed my old prejudices, I suspect they haven't.

In the post-"Ellen" and "Will and Grace" era, of course, it's not acceptable to express anti-gay sentiments openly. So these prejudices get dressed up as other things – fiscal responsibility (we'll be sued if we pass this ordinance); libertarianism (we don't need more laws, there are already too many); or absurd fantasies (we don't want men showering with our young daughters).

But maybe the City Council will surprise me by showing some sort of moral courage. Maybe I'm not giving them enough credit.

Richard Turner
