FEATURED AUTHORS AT THE BOOKSTORE

Local Dillon people, Penny Walde and Deb O'Neil will be the featured authors at The Bookstore tonight during the annual Christmas Stroll. Both have worked with children extensively, raising their own and instructing youth through church and school. They have organized Sunday School curricula, taught Sunday School, written Christmas and Vacation Bible School programs and both taught in the local public school. Now that their own children have grown and they are not as directly involved with the writing of Christian curriculum, they feel inspired to continue sharing stories with children. Combining hard work, creativity, and laughter, they decided to try authoring a children's story. Through this story, they hope to help children make good choices. In their new creation called Morris, Somewhere Out There the main character chooses to run off on his own seeking greener pastures. His choices require others to come to his rescue.

Come to The Bookstore on December 7 from 5 to 8 for your opportunity to purchase a copy of this story. If you would like to reserve an autographed copy please 683-6807

Enjoy treats and Meet the new Pastor Tonight!

Beaverhead River Cowboy Church will be participating in the stroll tonight. We'll have some hot chili, hot chocolate, and hot cider to warm you up, along with goodies. Everyone encourage to stop by and meet our new pastor.

MADE IN MONTANA POTTERY

There will be a Montana made Pottery Sale for Beaverhead Animal Shelter at the No. 1 Ladies Quilt Store on Idaho Street during the Parade of Lights on Friday night 7-9 pm in Dillon.

Stop in and check out this awesome pottery.
