James Lee Crawford II, 73

James Lee Crawford II, 73 of Dillon, MT passed away at Barrett Hospital and Healthcare on December 19, 2018. He was born in Birmingham, Alabama on April 1, 1945 to James Lee and Marion Elizabeth Crawford.

James is survived by special friend, Lorraine King of Dillon, Montana, children; Geraldne Dickerson of Columbiana, Alabama, Jude Crawford of Belforest, Alabama, Nedra Knavel of Holland, Michigan and Montana Crawford, of Killeen, Texas and sister; Pat Lecuyer of Selma, Alabama. There are no services planned at this time.

Emmett Thomas Hogan

Emmett Thomas Hogan was born April 3, 1929, the first of 9 boys and 1 girl, to David Patrick and Marian Hollenback Hogan. He grew up and worked on the ranch at Gold Creek, MT surrounded by a large and loving extended family.

He attended the Gold Creek grade school and Powell County High School. Emmett was a tough cowboy, even as a young boy. He contracted Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever while in grade school and then polio as a senior in high school. With his determination and hard work, not only did he beat polio and walk out of Shodair Hospital in Helena that year, but he also completed his studies and walked through commencement with his graduating class in May.

Emmett married Dorothy Wilsonoff and began married life in Butte as a cattle buyer for Montana Livestock Auction. They moved to Dillon in 1960 and began raising 4 children, where the neighbors were our friends, classmates and teachers. The family enjoyed picnics at Birch Creek, fishing the beautiful streams of southwest Montana and long drives through Yellowstone Park. Loading cattle on rail cars and in semi-trailers were also part of the family activities through the years.

In 1977 Emmett partnered with John Erb to buy Beaverhead Livestock Auction and his brother, Pat, worked for him at the yards. Uncle Pat became legendary with family friends in those years, a joy and great source of many adventures.

Emmett worked tirelessly to build up the yards and the Livestock Auction over the next 25 years. Emmett and Dorothy worked side by side feeding cattle in fair weather as well as in forty below zero. Incredibly, they calved out around 250 head in the worst Montana winter conditions. He remembers loading cattle when the mercury didn't rise out of the bulb. After retirement and until his health restricted his activities, Emmett was at the yards twice a day to keep involved with friends and the yards.

The family wishes to thank Judy Tash as well as the management and staff of Legacy Assisted Living for their loving care given to dad over the past 3 years.

Emmett was preceded in death by his parents, wife Dorothy, daughter Connie, brothers David, Jerry, Patrick, Gene and sister Mary Ann and brother-in-law Russel. Emmett is survived by children Peggy Hogan (Ray) Blize of Spokane, WA, Phil (Britt) Hogan of Ft. Myers, FL, Debbie Hogan (David) Lampert of Worley, ID. Emmett is survived by grandchildren, Bree (Brian) Hickman, Brandon (Emily) Blize, and Phil Blize all of Spokane, WA, Krista (Jeff) Cloward of Pueblo, Colorado, Ashley (Corey) Eckhoff of Alexandria, MN; Cory (Shannon) Hogan of Park Rapids, MN; Dr. Peter (Sarah) Lampert of Madison, WI; Danny Lampert, John Lampert both of Seattle, and Kathryn Lampert of Spokane. Emmett is survived by 8 great-grandchildren. Emmett is also survived by his brothers Donald (Betty) of Great Falls, Thomas (Judy) of Gold Creek, Alan (Eileen) of Spokane, WA, Sam (Linda) of Gold Creek, and sister-in-law Myrna of Tacoma, WA.

There is a visitation scheduled for Thursday, December 27th from 6 - 7 PM with a Vigil Service and Rosary following at 7 PM at Brundage Funeral Home. A Funeral Mass will be celebrated at St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church in Dillon at 10 AM on Friday, December 28th with committal services the same day at the Hillcrest Cemetery in Deer Lodge, Montana at 3 PM.

Seasonal mental health

1. HAVE A HEALTHY HOLIDAY SEASON

Stay mentally healthy during the holidays. The holidays are a time of year when people have expectations about fun, togetherness, and spending time with family and friends. One of the best ways to deal with social isolation is to reach out to friends or family for support. You can also try talking to a therapist. They help you figure out where your feelings come from and develop solutions to overcome them. Need to talk to someone? Call 1-800-273-TALK or 1-800-273-8255 or text "MT" to 741741. Call or text 24/7. Someone is always there to listen.

Avalanche Safety and Snow Update

Many backcountry enthusiasts seek out deep snow in mountain terrain on the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest. Whether on snowmobile, skis, snowboard, or other devices, unstable snow in steep avalanche-prone terrain can be dangerous and even deadly.

Although snow depth and structure around the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest varies significantly, the majority of the Forest has a shallow and weak snowpack. The forecast is calling for snow throughout the holiday week which will add stress to this weak snowpack and may increase the likelihood of avalanches.

If you are planning on enjoying the new snow over the holidays, please be very cautious and heed the following advice:

- GET THE GEAR: Ensure everyone has an avalanche transceiver, shovel, and probe on their person and knows how to use them.
- GET THE TRAINING: Take an avalanche course.
- GET THE FORECAST: Make a riding plan based on the current avalanche and weather forecast.
- GET THE PICTURE: If you see recent avalanche activity, cracks in the snow surface, or collapsing of the snowpack, this means unstable snow exists and riding on or below steep slopes is dangerous.
- GET OUT OF HARM'S WAY: Limit your exposure to dangerous terrain. Travel one at a time on risky slopes. Don't group up in avalanche runout zones. Don't help your friend find a lost ski or get unstuck in hazardous terrain; keep your distance so one of you can rescue the other in the event of an avalanche.

Forest Service avalanche specialists advise avoiding avalanche terrain, between 30 and 45 degrees steepness, as the most effective way to safely recreate when snow stability is poor. Signs of recent avalanches, cracking, and/or collapsing of the snow, otherwise known as "wumpling", are what avalanche specialists call "bullseye data" – clear warning signs that the snow is unstable. Trails and low-angle meadows, without steep slopes above, are safer terrain choices at times of poor snow stability, as is avoidance of avalanche runout zones below steep slopes.

For more information on snow conditions in your area contact your local Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest office. More information is also available through the following links: www.avalanche.org, www.mtavalanche.com/education, and www.missoulaavalanche.org/education-events.

CITY FINANCE COMMITTEE MEETING

2:00 P.M.

1. Approval of December 2018 Claims
2. Public Comment on Items of Significant Public Interest
Not on The Agenda And Within The Jurisdiction of The City
3. Adjournment

Letter to the Editor

Mike Mosolf is exactly right. The future of Beaverhead County does not lie with barrels of oil, board feet, or even tons of forage. It lies with how successfully we can transform our economy into one that is more amenity-based. I travel all over the west, and the towns the size of Dillon that have the most vibrant economies are the ones that have incorporated recreation opportunities into the mix. The ossified extractive industries work against that. By sticking with them, we're torpedoing the future.

There are literally hundreds of possibilities. For example, the leadership of Beaverhead and Madison Counties could work with the Federal government to create a new National Park from the Gravelles/Snowcrest/Centennial complex. The area has better wildlife habitat than Yellowstone, and a Park that featured wildlife viewing would mesh well with the landscape. All those placer claims between Alder and Virginia City could be bought out and a stream recreated that would support a fishery that would offer a much different experience than the big-river fisheries. There's enough workload on FS and BLM lands to support a restoration industry, if the agencies could be talked into doing more of that kind of work.

Nobody wants to live in another Jackson, Moab or Sedona. But nobody wants to live in another oil and gas boomtown either. I've done that. It's not pretty. In the coming years local leadership will have to be progressive enough to realize what needs to be done, and wise enough to navigate the pitfalls along the way. With the shenanigans played with the WSA issue, I don't see that.

Bible Truth... Biblical Celebrations of the Birth of Jesus Christ

---We believe: (1) the Bible was given by inspiration of God, 2 Timothy 3:16-17; (2) all statements made in this article will be based on what the Bible says; (3) the Bible only is the reliable source of spiritual & doctrinal truth; (4) all beliefs in conflict with the Bible are false.

Those who honored Christ at His birth weren't distracted by an array of wreaths, candles, trees, lights, parades, or gift exchanging.

1. Mary's testimony in Luke 1:46-55: she magnified God; rejoiced in the coming Christ as the Savior; gave God the glory for all that he was doing; testified of His great strength and power over the proud and mighty; refers to His love and care for the humble; and acknowledged His mercy in helping Israel in fulfillment of the promise He made to Abraham and his descendants.
2. Lk. 1:67-79: Zacharias praises God and refers to the coming Redeemer, Christ, in fulfillment of many prophecies given in the O.T.; refers to the time when they would be able to worship God in holiness and righteousness without fear; refers to John the Baptist as the one who would go before the Lord to prepare the way and to preach salvation and remission of sins through God's mercy as prophesied in Is. 40:3.
3. Lk. 2:13-14: the angels praised and glorified God for providing peace and good will toward men.
4. The shepherds went to see the infant, Jesus. As they returned to their flocks they shared the news of His birth with everyone they saw, glorifying and praising God, Lk. 2:17-20.
5. Lk. 2:25-35: Simeon praised God for fulfilling the prophecy of a coming Savior; speaks of the stumbling block He would be to Israel; of Israel's Millennial restoration; and of the sorrow Mary would feel when He gave His life to provide salvation for mankind.
6. Luke 2:36-38: Anna gave thanks and shared God's plan of redemption with others.
7. Matthew 2:9-11: wise men rejoiced; fell down before Him and worshipped; and gave Him gifts.

Conclusion: If we want to honor Christ we shouldn't let the 'décor' of the season be our focus. The best way to celebrate Christ is to trust Him as your Savior & Lord.
