9. ASK FOR HELP THIS HOLIDAY SEASON...BUT BE SPECIFIC

See if your spouse will lug out the decorations. Ask your sister to help you cook—or host the holiday dinner itself. Invite a friend along on shopping trips. People may be more willing to help out than you expect; they just need some guidance from you on what to do. If you need to talk to someone, call 1-800-273-TALK or 1-800-273-8255 or text "MT" to 741741. Call or text 24/7. Someone is always there to listen.

10. FIND POSITIVE WAYS TO REMEMBER LOVED ONES DURING HOLIDAY SEASON.

Holidays may remind you of the loved ones who aren't around anymore. But instead of just feeling glum, do something active to celebrate their memory. For instance, exchange favorite memories about a loved one with a friend or relative, or go out with your sisters to your mom's favorite restaurant and give her a toast. If you need to talk to someone, call 1-800-273-TALK or 1-800-273-8255 or text "MT" to 741741. Call or text 24/7. Someone is always there to listen.

11. DON'T STAY LONGER THAN YOU WANT AT HOLIDAY PARTIES

Going to a party doesn't obligate you to stay until the bitter end. Instead, just drop by for a few minutes, say hello, and explain you have other engagements. The hosts will understand that it's a busy time of year and appreciate your effort. Knowing you have a plan to leave can really ease your anxiety. If you need to talk to someone, call 1-800-273-TALK or 1-800-273-8255 or text "MT" to 741741. Call or text 24/7. Someone is always there to listen.

12. DON'T RELY ON HOLIDAY SPIRITS (OR OTHER SUBSTANCES.)

Christmas and New Years holidays are often a time of heavy drinking," says medical professionals. It's a common strategy for getting over anxiety about holiday parties or when feeling isolated. Remember alcohol is a depressant and abusing it will leave you feeling worse. It isn't safe for most people taking antidepressant medication. If you need to talk to someone, call 1-800-273-TALK or 1-800-273-8255 or text "MT" to 741741. Call or text 24/7. Someone is always there to listen.

MONTANA SECRETARY OF STATE COREY STAPLETON ANNOUNCES HE IS RUNNING FOR GOVERNOR IN 2020

Montana Secretary of State Corey Stapleton announced today that he is running for Governor in 2020. Stapleton, 51, is a Great Falls native and graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy. He was elected Secretary of State in November 2016.

"As Secretary of State and Montana's business officer, our Office has made it easier for small businesses to operate in Montana. Not only have we streamlined and simplified the dealings that business owners have with state government, we are leading the nation in modernizing the way businesses file online.

As Montana's Chief Elections Officer, our Office has tackled the most difficult issues in modern Elections. I'm proud to say that we have increased election security, increased the integrity of mail ballots, and increased voter participation. In short, we've made it easier to vote and harder to cheat!" Stapleton said.

In addition to improving elections and business services, Stapleton touted the significant reduction in spending at the Office of the Secretary of State since he took office two years ago.

Stapleton served eleven years in the navy as a Surface Warfare Officer, deploying overseas aboard the aircraft carrier USS John F. Kennedy (CV-67) and aegis cruiser USS Hue City (CG-68). He holds a bachelor of science degree in General Engineering from the Naval Academy, a master of arts degree in Political Science from Temple University, and a master of science degree in Financial Services from The American College in Pennsylvania.

"As Governor, I'd like to lead the conversation on how we steer towards a Montana that has stronger families and higher wages, lower taxes and smaller government, and how we can lead the nation in having greater freedoms for all of us. I'll work with anyone and everyone to help get us there."

Stapleton is a financial advisor and former state senator from Billings. He and his wife, Terry, have four children.

Letter to the Editor

It's going to be interesting when the new House of Representatives take office in January. With the majority being Democrats what will get done? What won't get done? President Trump has not been kind to the Democrats ever! But I know President Trump has not been kind to many people before he was President and while he has been President. It has been stated that Mr. Trump has insulted, belittled called names to some 550 individuals since he has been President.

Mr. Trump has proven to the world he cannot work with other people. I know Mr. Trump is a very caring person but the only person he cares about is himself.

So will the new house of Representatives investigate or will they legislate? Maybe they will do both.

Ask President Trump what is wrong with this country and he will tell you, "Democrats."

Have you ever seen so much chaos in Washington D.C.? Soon the new year, and we all hope it will be a Happy New Year? The American citizens need a "Happy New Year!"
