Donald Harvey Jones, 86

Donald Harvey Jones, 86, of Wise River passed away New Year's Eve, December 31, 2018 at St. Patrick Hospital. He was born March 22, 1932, in Butte, MT to Robert (Leslie) and Louise Jones.

He lived his entire life on the family ranch in Wise River. He attended grade school in Wise River, riding his horse to and from school every day and attended Beaverhead County High School in Dillon. He was drafted into the Army in 1953 and was based in Alaska. After his time in the Army he returned home to the family ranch in 1955. He married Elizabeth Pilling, June 5, 1960 and for over 58 years they ranched side by side, raised their family and were involved in several organizations within their community and Beaverhead County. Donald became a director on the Vigilante Electric Co-op board in 1961 and was an advocate of bringing quality service to rural areas for 53 years when he retired from the board in 2015. He also served on the state board of Rural Electric Cooperatives, Western G&T and Northwinds Publishing. He served on the school board in Wise River for several years, was a superintendent for the Beaverhead County Fair in sheep and hogs and was instrumental in getting a new fire hall in Wise River by donating the land and helped to get the building off the ground. Don was a member of the Elks in Dillon since 1962 and enjoyed the many membership benefits of being an Elk. He also belonged to the Masonic Lodge of Wisdom, was a member of Stockgrowers and the Montana Woolgrowers. In his early years he owned a small plane and often would be found flying in the fall looking for lost cattle on the forest permits.

Don was a third generation rancher following in the footsteps of his father and grandfather who came here in 1910. Hereford Cattle and sheep were always a part of the ranch and Don raised many fine registered and commercial Hereford cattle over the years. In 2002 he was named commercial man of the year by the Montana Hereford Association. Don was a true steward of the land and worked and managed his ranch tirelessly. In 2010 he and Liz celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary along with celebrating 100 years of the ranch being in the Jones family. Don took a lot of pride in those two accomplishments. Don loved to travel and spent a lot of time traveling with Liz and their special friends Jay and Jean

Clarence John Ruff

Clarence John Ruff passed away in the early morning hours of Dec. 26, 2018, surrounded by his family at Sacred Heart Medical Center in Spokane. He was 87.

Born in Mildred, Montana, August 12, 1931, to John and Christina (Gackle) Ruff, Clarence grew up on an eastern Montana farm just north of Mildred. This left him with a lifelong soft spot in his heart for cowboys and the farm/ranch way of life. He attended school in Terry, Montana, graduating high school there in 1949. Clarence's father passed away that same year, leaving him to assume the responsibility of helping his mother run the farm and ranch. In 1952, Clarence married the love of his life, Corolin Lauer. In 1961 he moved his young family which included three children to Beach, North Dakota, marking the beginning health crisis could significantly eat into your savings?

Do you fear the costs of healthcare will be more expensive than you anticipate?

How will I pay my bills if I am laid up and can't work?

Help eliminate your anxiety. The small steps you take today can have a huge impact on tomorrow. You shouldn't have to worry about paying for emergency medical bills before you even reach your deductible.
I can help you protect the unexpected. This can help you enjoy the of his nearly 35 year career in the fuel and petroleum industry.

A hard worker by nature and seeking opportunity, he and Corolin purchased the Exxon Bulk Plant and the College Exxon service station in Dillon, Montana, in 1965, which they ran for more than a decade. During their time in Dillon, Clarence was involved in the community and the Catholic Church, eventually serving as exulted ruler of the Dillon Elks Lodge. Their family continued to grow, expanding from three to five children. Itching to do something new, Clarence tried his hand at owning a trailer sales business in Dillon and then purchased the Log Cabin Restaurant in Choteau, Montana, before moving with Corolin and their two younger children to Spokane in 1980. There he resumed his career working in the petroleum and fuel industry until his retirement in 1996.

Even in retirement, Clarence always believed in keeping a healthy mind and a healthy body, never having a shortage of projects to tackle and always making time to work out. He also believed that enjoying a glass of fine wine or indulging in anything chocolate was always a good use of time.

Clarence is survived by his wife of 66 years Corolin Lauer Ruff of Spokane, Wash. and their five children: daughter Debbie (Max) Lapham of Jackson, Mont., son Ken (Rhonda) Ruff of Mesquite, Nev., daughter Donna (Frank) Marchesseau of Reno, Nev., daughter Kim (Don) Hooper of Spokane, Wash., and son Brian Ruff of Seattle, Wash. He is also survived by his ten grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his sister Lillian Ruff Ledyard.

Services will be held at 11 am on Friday, January 4, 2019, at Assumption of The Blessed Virgin Mary Catholic Church in Spokane with reception to follow. In lieu of flowers, the family requests making a donation to the charity of your choice.

Bible Truth..."Bible Believing Christians"

----We believe: (1) the Bible was given by inspiration of God, 2 Timothy 3:16-17; (2) all statements made in this article will be based on what the Bible says; (3) the Bible only is the reliable source of spiritual & doctrinal truth; (4) all beliefs in conflict with the Bible are false.

Two things I have noticed over the years about some "Bible Believing Christians" are: (1) many of them don't know very much about what the Bible teaches; (2) others don't believe it is important to maintain the doctrinal and moral standards for serving God that are taught in the Bible. This belief seems to be based on the fact that the doctrines for service given in the Bible are not necessary for salvation. While it is true that salvation is not based on keeping any commandments ["by grace you are saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: NOT of works, lest any man should boast," Ephesians 2:8-9], it is important that we know and keep His commandments following our spiritual salvation.

The following scriptures state the responsibility if all who claim to be "Bible Believing Christians."

Matthew 28:20, "Teaching them to observe ALL THINGS whatsoever I have commanded you...." Here Jesus commands His church to teach new members the importance of being obedient to all of His teachings.

2 Timothy 2:15 says that we are must, "Study to show yourself approved to God, a workman that needs not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." This states individual, personal responsibility and effort into serving God.

2 Timothy 3:16-17, "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God might be perfect [complete], thoroughly furnished to all good works."

John 14:21, "He that has my [Jesus'] commandments, and keeps them, he it is that loves me: and he that loves me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him."

John 15:14, "You are my friends, if you do whatsoever I command you."

You may be a child of God BUT...are meeting the requirements of a true 'Bible Believing Christian?'
