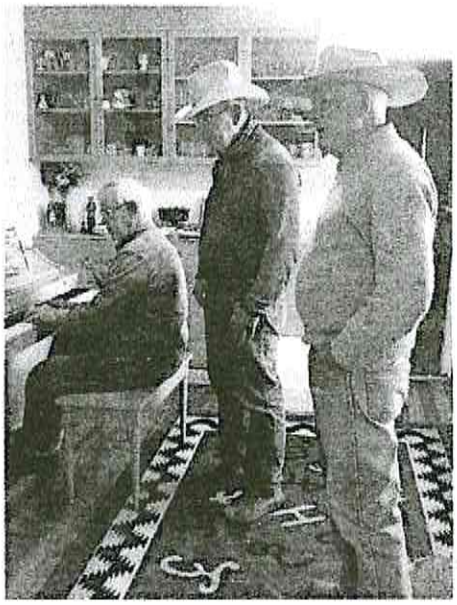
Lifetime Love for Western Culture



Celebrating a lifetime love for western culture, Rick Kuntz and friends, Val Prophet and Sandy James will be performing at the Old Depot Theater in Dillon, MT, January 11, 2019 at 7:00 pm for the benefit of the Beaverhead County Museum. All three performers are veterans of Cowboy Poetry gatherings.

Kuntz, local rancher, who suffers from Parkinson's disease, was inspired by Baxter Black and started writing his own poetry around 1992. He performs from memory and writes his own poems, as well as delivers the poems of other writers such as Wally McRae. Kuntz's daughter, Morgan Rose will make a guest appearance during the evening.

Prophet was inspired by Kuntz to take part in Cowboy Poetry gatherings about 20 years ago. However, he was writing poems and songs long before that. He jokes that he wrote his first music 60 years ago when his girl friend dumped him and ran off with a guitar picker.

James may be best known for his work as music director for the Dillon Junior Fiddlers, but he has been writing original songs for 30 years. He performs them with keyboard accompaniment. James has been featured in concert at the Elling House Arts and Humanities Center in Virginia City and was selected to perform on Montana Public Radio for a program titled "Expressing Montana".

The performers were perennials at the Dillon Cowboy Poetry Gathering that was an event for a number of years at the Old Depot Theater. They are all passionate about preserving historic western culture. Kuntz, the event organizer, feels his Parkinson's disease is "marching on", so he arranged this concert now while he can perform. "Anyway, we are all a bunch of old relics and so we should perform at the Old Depot Theater before they put us in the museum," Kuntz jokes. James and Prophet are happy to support his effort.

Tickets will be available at the Beaverhead County Museum for $10 per person starting January 3rd and at the door the night of the concert for $12.00. Call 683-5027 for information or reservations.

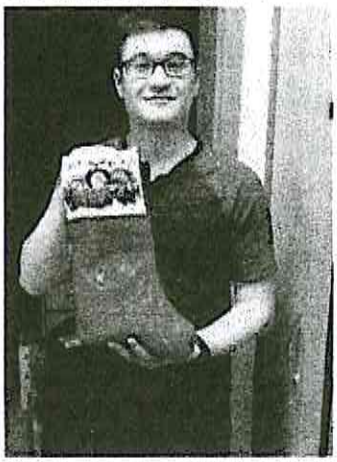
CHRISTMAS STOCKINGS FROM HOME



Derek Gore and his group of Military Police are stationed in Korea and had not received their USO boxes. Friends and family in Dillon, gathered items and sent 40 filled stockings to Derek to distribute.

"Everyone loved the stockings and send their appreciation! The sewing kits were a big hit they were excited for those to fix their gear. Please send our thanks to everyone who helped on those!!!!! It was all the small towns that helped people out this year here and that is amazing. Winter has only hit us with the cold here, no snow yet so we may have a mellow winter. Thank you again!!!!"

Thank you for your service Derek Gore and Thank your friends!

Montana Western Student Receives Civic Engagement Scholarship

Montana Campus Compact (MTCC), an eighteen campus higher education network, recently announced the inaugural class of the George M. Dennison Civic Engagement Scholarship winners. The award recognizes students pursuing a degree or certificate at MTCC affiliate campuses who have volunteered significant time, energy, and resources to projects that make a meaningful difference in the lives of others.

Half of the funds for each scholarship have been donated in memory of George M. Dennison by Jane Dennison and sons, Rick and Robert Dennison and their families. George Dennison was a tireless champion of service and was the co-founder of MTCC. The other half of each scholarship is matched by the winner's institutions.

This fall there was a highly competitive group of 36 students who applied for the scholarship, each displaying exemplary service by making significant, positive change in their institutions, communities, and the world.

Ten college students were selected as the scholarship recipients, one of them being Montana Western's own Shayla McGregor, a senior majoring in Elementary Education.

"As an elementary education major, my career aspirations are to truly inspire my students to develop a passion for lifelong learning," stated McGregor.

McGregor's volunteer efforts included time in Peers Advocating Towards Health (PATH), a health advocacy group that aids college students in making healthy and informed choices. One program implemented was titled "Sex in the Dark," an initiative that focused on sexuality and sexual health topics.

McGregor has also been instrumental in organizing events through her roles as a Resident Assistant, a Student Senator, and a mentor in the TRIO program. McGregor has a passion for education, which gives her drive to continue creating informational programs that could be useful to her community as well as her future students.

McGregor hopes to be an influence in the education system by inspiring and encouraging individuals to "come to their own thoughts and conclusions about the world."

Here's the Dillon Middle School News for the week of January 7th through the 11th, 2019

The lunch menu for this week is as follows: Today, Monday, we will enjoy fajita soft shell tacos with trimmings. Tuesday, beefy rice vegetable soup will be served with school made bread and WOW butter, and on Wednesday we will have a local beef hamburger on a school made bun with trimmings. Thursday, we will enjoy stromboli served with rotini and white sauce and on Friday, we will have a baked potato bar with trimmings and broccoli with cheese sauce.

We have the results from our food drive which took place before the Holiday Break. Over 1800 pounds of food were collected. The students enjoyed special incentives such as: wearing their hats in school and playing dodgeball for bringing in cans of food. The winning classes were Mrs. De los Rios' and Mrs. Tucker's combined 8th period. This class will be enjoying a pizza party. Second place went to Mr. Anderson's 8th period class. Thank you to all the students who helped those who do not have as much as we have. Thank you to Mr. Anderson and Mr. Moreni for running the food drive.

Sixth grade girls' basketball will begin today after school in the Parkview Cafeteria. Athletes wanting to participate must have a current physical and signed concussion packet on file. They must also have a signed permission slip that is specific to basketball.

The seventh and eighth grade girls' basketball players have been hard at work. The A teams will start off the season by traveling to Butte Central on Tuesday, January 15th. Games start at 4:00 pm, and the bus will leave at 2:30 pm. Please watch for schedules to come home with your child.

This week, each DMS student is participating in the school wide geography bee during their social studies classes. Students winning at the school level will go on to compete later this month in the county geography bee. From there, winners will move on to the state competition. Be listening for who will represent our school.

We will have no school Monday, January 21st, in observance of Martin Luther King's birthday. The second quarter will be ending January 18th. Second quarter report cards will go home with students Friday, January 25th.

As we move into the second semester, 7th grade and 8th grade students will switch their 8th period extension classes. Also, many of these same students have semester one classes that will switch. Please listen to the announcements carefully and check your schedule.

The Beaverhead ACEs Task Force is focused on building strategies to help families adapt to the challenges they face. When families and communities build resilience, children gain the tools they need to overcome obstacles and succeed in life. Healthy families are resilient families and they build strong communities.
