Montana Western Men's Basketball Team Volunteers

Montana Western Men's Basketball Team has logged over 120 volunteer hours since Mike Larsen took over as head men's basketball coach in May 2018.

Coach Larsen has kept team members engaged with their campus and community. The team helped with the Jaycee Park renovation, move-in day at Montana Western and they continue to actively volunteer at Stepping Stone Preschool once a week.

"We're not just trying to be good basketball players, we are trying to be good people," said Larsen.

Montana Western's block scheduling system offered through Experience One, has allowed Larsen to more effectively reach his program goals. At UMW, courses are taught one at a time for 18 consecutive days.

The flexibility this form of scheduling provides allows Larsen to assign different students to volunteer without interfering with classes, workouts, or practices. He plans to have the team earn more volunteer hours, even during the playing season.

Once during each block, all players, coaches, and student assistants write a letter to someone who has positively impacted their lives.

"We are trying to create an attitude of gratitude among the players," explained Assistant Coach Patrick Jensen.

Larsen was a successful basketball player throughout high school and college, but declined a professional basketball career to instead serve as assistant coach at Dakota State University (DSU) in Madison, S.D.

For seven years Larsen helped coach the DSU men's team before he was offered a head coaching position at a different school. Unfortunately at that time, the head coach he was under at DSU was diagnosed with cancer. Larsen turned down the position, feeling it would be best to continue on as assistant coach.

Larsen had to make a tough decision, stating "I can't preach being a good person if I don't actually practice it myself."

Larsen's mentor and head coach overcame his battle with cancer. When Larsen was approached by Montana Western to be their head coach he accepted the offer and achieved a lifetime goal.

Larsen hopes that the men's basketball team can lead by example and encourage others to give back to their community.

To reach out to the UMW Men's Basketball Team, please email michael.larsen1@umwestern.edu.

COMMUNITY ARTS EDUCATION PROGRAM FOR CHILDREN AND ADULTS

Tendoy Fine Art gallery in Dillon, MT, survived relocation from Idaho street in Dillon to a space shared with the Southwest Montana Arts Council at 120 N Montana street. The gallery walls are painted, and artwork is being displayed, so sustaining members of the cooperative gallery face a new challenge; how to setup a community arts education program for children and adults in Southwest Montana. The arts council, also focused on bringing quality arts to this area, is partnering with Tendoy Fine Art in this endeavor. Systems are now in place to coordinate the efforts of both organizations to present an after-school program and a host of lessons and workshops directed toward all ages. December's offerings included a free Saturday holiday craft making experience for families, a silk painted ornament workshop and the on-going oil lessons of Colleen Howe Cheney.

Plans for January include the start of the after-school program beginning Friday, January 18th, from 3 to 5 pm at ArtSpace, the room set aside for art education and invitational shows. The first three weeks will be "Beginning Painting" with Jean James, followed by three weeks of Beginning Drawing with Morgan Irons. Plans are to offer this kind of after-school instruction as continuously as possible at a cost of $30 for 3 weeks or $40 for 4 weeks for students 6 through 12 years old. The goal is to offer quality art instruction that encourages all students and for the ArtSpace room to be a nurturing environment for Dillon's youth. Further plans are underway to work with area middle and high school art teachers to offer instruction that will enhance what is already in place in each school curriculum.

For adults, Beginning Stained Glass, taught by Jean James, will start Thursday, January 24th and run for 4 weeks, covering the basics of copper foil glass construction. This will be followed by two 4-week instruction sessions covering lead techniques, design considerations and glass surface treatments. Enrollment is possible at any level, but students must have basic beginning skills to take the more advanced sessions. Classes are limited to 6 people and are $80 per 4-week session. Most supplies will be furnished for the beginning class, but students will need to have their own supplies for the advanced sessions. The classes are from 6:30 to 9:00 pm.

Sip and Paint will be back with Colleen Howe Cheney beginning Wednesday, Jan. 23rd from 6:30 to 8:30. It is planned that Sip and

NOW OPEN EVENINGS AND SATURDAYS!!!

Paint will be a monthly event happening every 4th Wednesday of each month with a variety of instructors. Enjoy snacks and drinks with friends (you may bring your beverage of choice) while creating your own piece of art with expert but light-hearted instruction. No experience required. Tendoy will supply all materials. The cost for a fun evening will be $25. Cheney is also teaching a morning oil painting class that is on-going and costs $100 per month. It is from 10:00 to 12:30 on Wednesday morning.

For information on all classes and workshops call Colleen Cheney at 406-925-9434 or Jean James at 406-660-2304, and/or to register use the following link, https://smac.submittable.com/submit.

Those interested in teaching classes or others interested in volunteering time at ArtSpace, helping the Southwest Montana Art's Council or Tendoy Fine Art can call 406-660-2304.

treeline

A Story Written in Rings
Directed by Jordan Manley

Join us for Treeline, a film celebrating the forests on which our species has always depended, and around which some skiers and snowboarders have based their entire lives. Follow a group of snow-seekers, scientists and healers as they explore the birch forests of Japan, the red cedars of British Columbia and the bristlecone pines of Nevada, delving deeper into the rich environments they call home. We'll be serving complimentary beer and snacks, and the first 30 arrivals will receive a limited-edition, screen-print poster.

Bible Truth...Hell is a real place [part 1] [Jan. 11, 2019: #107]

Note: (1) the Bible only is the reliable source of truth; (2) all beliefs in conflict with the Bible are false.

Because hell is described as place of indescribable torment, millions [including many professing to be "Christians"], either doubt or disbelieve its reality.

The false doctrine that "we are all the children of God" and will go heaven has replaced the Biblical teaching of John chapter 3. There it states that to become a child of God one must believe in the Lord Jesus Christ and be "born again" [spiritually].

The scriptures make it crystal clear that only believers go to heaven.

1. "...except you repent, you shall all likewise perish," Luke 13:3, 5; Acts 20:21.
2. "... it is appointed for men to die once, but after this the judgment," Hebrews 9:27.
3. "...God commends [demonstrates] his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us....being justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him." (Romans 5:8-9)
4. John 3:16, "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believes in him should not perish [judgment], but have everlasting life [deliverance]."
5. 2 Thessalonians 1:8-9 states that the Lord Jesus will come "In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power."
6. To escape destruction one must be saved by believing in Jesus Christ. There is no salvation in any other name, Acts 4:12. God gives power only to those that believe in His name to become the sons of God, John 1:12. Those who don't believe in Him are condemned and those believe in Him are not condemned, John 3:18.
7. The spiritually dead [those who don't believe in Christ] are ultimately judged and cast into a lake of fire Revelation 20:10-15.
8. Daniel 12:2 states of the dead that they who "sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt."

Conclusion: not believing in Jesus Christ will bring eternal punishment!
