June Willey Herman

June Herman passed in her home on the afternoon of December 28, 2018 in the company of her three sons and her caregivers.

She was born Marjorie June Willey on June 24, 1924 to Asa Charles and Elizabeth (Goldie)

Leonard Willey on their Johnson Creek ranch in the Big Hole, but was only known by the names June, Junie or June Bug. She was the fourth of five children. She began the 1st grade three miles away at Gibbons School, where she enjoyed the company of one other student, Annabelle Marsing. She always rode her horse, Bonnie, to school, and the two were inseparable. June's father insisted that she only ride bareback to avoid hanging up. June became an excellent rider and was said to ride like the wind without any daylight between her and Bonnie's back. By 7th grade June was the only student for miles, so her father donated a 10 x 12-foot building behind the house and her mother made room in the house for June's teacher Buella Dubler. During her high school years, June boarded with the Jackson's on Railroad Avenue in Dillon. She and Irma Jackson were lifelong friends. After high school, June attended the Butte Business School then landed a job at First National Bank and after a time, moved to the State Bank.

During WWII June moved to Portland to work at a barrel factory. She married Arlo Herman on Aug 3, 1946, in Butte, MT, and started their family in a little house on Idaho Street in Dillon. Together, June and Arlo opened and operated a burger joint called "The Snack Shack" on the last block on the south end of Montana Street. In 1963, she and Arlo purchased the home they would live in the rest of their lives and June returned to work at the State Bank and Trust Company. Here, June and Arlo enjoyed entertaining their many friends and family. In 1975, she and Arlo purchased a cabin in the Grasshopper Valley where they continued nurturing friendships old and new and spoiling their family. June loved creating things for the Grasshopper Ladies Club to generate money for scholarships. June worked at State Bank and Trust Company until her retirement in 1986. June and Arlo retired on the same day so that they could focus together on travel, friends, cards, and always family. June was where the heart was and made new friends until the end of her life.

June was preceded in death by her parents, infant brother Harold, and her sisters, Corrine and Elaine.

She is survived by her brother Chuck(Alexis) Willey, Missoula, Mt, sons Tracy (Vanessa) Herman, Spokane

I'M FREE
 Don't grieve for me, for now I'm Free
 I'm following the path God laid for me.
 I took his hand when I heard Him call,
 I turned my back, and left it all.
 I could not stay another day, to laugh,
 to love, to work or play.
 Tasks left undone must stay that way.
 I found that peace at close of day.
 If my parting has left a void,
 Then fill it with remembered joy.
 A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
 Oh yes! These things I too will miss.

Don't Quit
 When things go wrong as they sometimes will.
 When the road your trudging seems all up hill.
 When funds are low and the debts are high.
 And you want to smile, but you have to sigh.
 When care is pressing you down a bit.
 Rest, if you must, but don't you quit.
 Life is queer with its twists and turns.
 As everyone one of us sometimes learns.
 And many a failure turns about
 When he might have won, had he stuck it out:
 Don't give up though the pace seems slow –
 You may succeed with another blow.
 Success is failure turned inside out –
 The silver tint of the clouds of doubt.
 And you never can tell how close you are.
 It may be near when it seems so far:
 So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit –
 It's when things seem worst that you must not QUIT.

Letter to the Editor

"To wall or not to wall?" That is the question! And the answer is will it keep in the wallabies? What will we do about the wallflowers? Which one? The wallflowers in Washington D.C. or the wall flowers that are nice plants. Maybe they are both the same.

Will this wall be metal, cement or wallboard? You know what happened to Humpty Dumpty and the wall! You know he had a great fall but his winter was very lousy. Then there was Little Jack Horner. Sorry got off the subject.

Many are very concerned about wall diseases. Some are already using wall cream but it has not been effective. Others have tried wall pills but they are hard to swallow. Because of the high price of medicine their wallets are bare. Many now are wallowing in wallitis.

Now if we do build a wall who will be in charge of the construction? Will it be Walt the Wall Builder or Wallace, who got walloped hanging wall paper?

Many think we should have a steel wall. The President said we could steal many workers to build a steel wall. Undocumented wall workers could waltz right in and get the job done.

This whole wall thing is a mess! Should we shut the wall down and close the Government or should everyone just shut their mouths and build some sense? Sense! No one has a good answer. We are wallowing in a bunch of wall do do.

"To wall or not to wall"? Somebody please come to our rescue! Where's Waldo?

Here's the Dillon Middle School news for the week of January 14th through the 18th, 2019

The lunch menu for the week is as follows: On Monday, we will enjoy sloppy joes on a bun with cabbage salad. Tuesday, sub sandwiches will be served with trimmings, and on Wednesday, we will have a BBQ Pork rib sandwich on a school made bun with trimmings. Thursday, we will enjoy turkey noodle soup, with corn bread, applesauce and fresh veggies. And on Friday, we will have spaghetti with meat sauce and French bread.

Congratulations to our Yearbook cover winners: Moonyen Paloma and Quincey Andersen. Great job girls.

We have the results of our in-school geography bee contest. Students competed in their social studies classes, and the winners in each class will participate in a geography bee semi-final contest. Those winning the first round were: Bryce Hooper, Carter Curnow, Aden Harding, Taylor Handlos, Sean Regan, Max Davis, Neal Brandon, Laura Martin, Gavin Garrison, Jesse Hughes, Kaden Pittman, and Josiah Jones.

This Friday, January 18th is the end of the second quarter, and the end of the first semester. Report cards will go home on Friday, January 25th. Please call the DMS office if you have any questions.

Tomorrow, Tuesday, January 15th, the girls' basketball "A" teams will travel to Butte Central. The bus leaves at 2:30 pm. 7A plays at 4:00 pm followed by 8A at 5:00 pm. Team and individual girls' basketball pictures will be taken this Friday, January 18th, during practice. Look for your daughter to bring home a picture packet this week.

This week during 8th period, eighth grade students will participate in a dance odyssey. They will learn how to jitterbug, line dance, 2 step, box waltz and Virginia reel. Then, on Friday, they will teach these dances to the seventh graders.

The dance Odyssey will culminate in a dance for 6th through 8th graders on Friday, January 18th from 6-8 pm at the DMS gym. The students will have the chance to show off the dance moves they have learned this week. No early birds. Parents, please pick up your children at 8:00 PM.

The Beaverhead ACEs Task Force reminds parents: no child is destined for an unsuccessful future IF they're given opportunities to build resilience...Develop self-esteem...Master a skill...Given choices...and Learn to work as a team. Building resilience can be easy. Healthy families build strong, resilient communities.
