Dave Gilbert DuBois Jr.

Dave Gilbert DuBois Jr., was called home this January 14th of 2019. He was born into this world on June 7th of 1945, in Fort Totten, North Dakota, to Dave DuBois Sr. and Clemence "Cis" (Baker) DuBois Siebert. In 1960, when he was 15 y/o, his family moved to Dillon. Across the street, that same year, another family moved in and so began his life with my mother, Deeann (Erickson) DuBois. Married March 9th of 1965. Together they brought 7 beautiful children into the world.

At the age of 21, he joined and served 3 years in the army as a tank gunner in Germany. After he returned from the military, he spent his life as a truck driver; moving his family between Idaho, North Dakota, and Montana. He had several passions in life of which some included; his horses, saddle bronc riding, panning for gold in the hills, and his heritage. Just over a year prior to his passing he moved home to his family in Dillon. He passed peacefully in his sleep surrounded by loved ones.

He is survived by his Mother "Cis", Sisters, Shirley Christenson and Diane Fox, Brother Rick (Paula) DuBois, 6 of his children, Dave III, Lonnie, Candis, Jonathon, Kari, and Seth, 16 grandchildren, 13 great grandchildren, numerous nieces and nephews, Godson Wyatt DuBois, as well as his favorite and most frequent little visitor of whom he shared a beloved playful heckling of each other with - great grandson, Kaleb Poppe.

He is proceeded in death by his grandparents, his father Dave Sr., Brother Kenneth (Kenny) DuBois, Sister Marilyn Mertz, mother of his children Deeann, and infant daughter Jolene.

He will be loved and missed by all. Cremation has taken place, at his request there will be no funeral until he is buried in the spring. There will be a small Catholic memorial service at 11 a.m. with a pot luck reception to follow, Thursday, January 24th, 2019 at the Bicentennial Apartments in the Day Room to help his mother through her grieving process.

WEEKLY LEGISLATIVE UPDATE BY REP TOM WELCH MT HD 72

The second week of the Legislative session is traditionally very slow and this Session is not different. The normal legislative process, as defined by the rules we passed last week, requires that all Bills be introduced to the House via a "First Reading" before they can be assigned to their respective Committee for a public hearing. In turn, these public hearings require 72 hour (3 day) notice before they can be legally undertaken. Each of these processes, all of which were designed to promote transparency, require a fixed amount of time and the net result is a slow ramp up of Committee work.

Even though this Session began with a record number of Bill draft requests (over 3100) more than half of these (approximately 1700) are simply what we refer to as 'placeholders'. A placeholder is nothing more than an empty Bill with a title broad enough that it gives a Legislator the flexibility to react to a late arriving constituent's request or to some other immediate need uncovered during the Legislative process. Legislators are incentivized to request placeholders because of the compressed calendar (new titles for general Bills cannot be requested after January 22nd) and because, unlike the Federal government, of Montana's single subject requirement defined in Article 5, Section 11 of our State constitution. Our single subject law requires that a Bill's content align with the Bill's title and that the title does not address multiple, clearly unrelated issues or topics. Like previous sessions, a large number of these placeholder Bills will never be introduced, but they are available should a Bill title be needed.

Of note this week was the K-12 school funding Bill which had a hearing in the House Education Committee. It is a Republican goal this session to get this Bill passed and on the Governor's desk early. Local school districts are not able to finalize their budgets until the Legislature does their work. In previous Sessions, this Bill has been used as a political football later in the Session. The effect was that local school districts would be handcuffed finalizing their budgets until as late as May. Wanting to help out our local school districts, we are working to get this funding Bill out early in the process. Schools are not partisan, so putting politics aside, we hope to pass this Bill out of the House as early as next week.

I appreciate hearing from those of you willing to share your views. Additionally, it was nice to spend a little time visiting with Rod Siring and Rollie Miller of Vigilante Electric Co-op and Drs. Doug and John Creger during their Capitol visits this past week. My Legislative contact info remains tom.welch@mtleg.gov and 406 444 4800. Have a great week, stay warm and be safe!

Council meeting Jan. 16 2019

By MJ

Present: Seated at the table was the entire City Council, Mayor Klakken, City Attorney, Director of Operations and other city representatives.

LGBTQ, Non-Discrimination Ordinance/PFLAG: Council did not pass the Non-discrimination Ordinance that was presented to them for a vote by the Judiciary Committee. Council lady O'Rourke made a motion to send the ordinance back to the Judiciary Committee so that the committee could do some housekeeping, amending and make the ordinance more like Helena's ordinance. Note: Councilperson O'Rourke is a member of Judiciary Committee and made the motion to pass the ordinance onto the Council for a vote as it was originally drafted. Council members voting "Nay" were: Don Hand, Matt Kenworthy, Russell Schwandt, Dan Nye, Bill Shafer and Raymond Graham. The "I" votes were from Mary Jo O'Rourke and Cliff Stout. This issue is dead at this time.

Replacing Council members: Ms. Walker, an advocate for the ordinance was adamant about getting the names of the council members that would be terming out at the next election. It appears the group presenting the ordinance and/or other groups will be seeking people to run for a position on the council that may be more favorable to their cause. Note: This is how a healthy Republic functions. A Republican Government is a form of government in which the people elect, or choose, their leaders.

The council opened the floor to public members to come forward and speak. A considerable amount of information presented was repetitive of what had been stated at other meetings. The information offered was lacking in facts and figures specific to Dillon like; how many cases of discrimination has there been, where is the discrimination taking place, what type of businesses are participating, why has no person come forward to testify on their own behalf about their experience of discrimination, is a municipal court needed, is it legal for Dillon to pass this ordinance ...

Questions: Is it possible for a person that has not walked in the shoes of a LGBT person to really know what life is truly like for them? Is it only possible for a person to present their own opinions and emotions without that walk in another's shoes? Yes, there was a plethora of revealing information collected via studies that was presented to the council and committee members. This information had no facts of how Dillon would be affected or if this ordinance was truly needed in the city.

Over the past 6± months we have witnessed the council representatives, honoring the oaths they took to serve the community as Council and Committee members. They have spent 50± hours at public hearings and meetings listening to people presenting information for and against the ordinance. They worked with City Attorney Dolan in search of the legal ramifications this ordinance may have for the local government. There are many state, federal and local statutes within the essential supporting government structure that would need to be considered with this Ordinance. It looked as if the public was arguing the issue on the surface merits of the case and no consideration was given to what lies under the surface. A thank you goes out to the dedicated council for reaching deeper than the surface before they made a decision.

Sen. Jeff Welborn's Weekly Review.
 HELENA;

The second week of the Montana legislative assembly is traditionally very slow, and this one isn't any different. The normal process, defined by the rules passed last week, requires that all bills be introduced to their respective legislative branch via a first reading before they can be assigned to their respective committee for a public hearing. In turn, these public hearings require 72 hours notice before they can be legally undertaken. Each of these processes, all of which promote transparency, also require a fixed amount of time, which result is a slow ramp up of committee work.

Even though this session began with a record number of bill draft requests, more than half, (approximately 1700) of these requests are simply placeholders. A placeholder, is an empty bill with a title broad enough go allow the flexibility to react to an immediate need, uncovered during the legislative process. Legislators are incentivized to request placeholders because of the compressed calendar (new titles for general bills cannot be requested after January 22nd) and because of Montana's single subject requirement, defined in Article 5, Section 11, of our state constitution.
