Montana Western Student Interns with Travel Montana

Tate Langel, a junior majoring in Environmental Studies, was the Travel Montana Intern during the summer of 2018. The grant funded internship through Fish Wildlife and Parks (FWP) is offered as an extension of the Montana Wild Learning Center.

Langel spent his summer traveling around to Montana's seven FWP regions conducting fish identification presentations and fishing workshops to people of all ages. At one particular workshop, he taught nearly 800 youth over the course of three days in Billings, Mont., which Langel described as a unique experience.

"I built a lot of responsibility and patience this summer," stated Langel while reflecting on his internship.

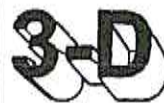

Another aspect of the internship was spending time at the Spring Creek Trout Hatchery in Lewistown, Mont. Langel worked with a team to clip the adipose fin, a small fin found between the dorsal and caudal fin, on nearly 100,000 trout. This fin is removed as a way to identify stocked fish from native fish in mountain lakes.

Langel had the opportunity to enhance his public speaking skills this past summer as well. He expressed that this part of the Travel Montana Internship felt natural to him because the instructors at Montana Western often require students to give verbal presentations in class.

Originally from Helena, Mont., Langel aspires to be a Game Warden once he graduates. It was Montana Western's block scheduling system, which allows students to take one course at a time for 18 consecutive days, that initially drew him to Dillon. This scheduling system, known as Experience One, has allowed Langel to gain valuable hands on field experience while learning from acclaimed educators.

"The professors here at Montana Western are vested in the student's success," Langel stated.

Langel credits the faculty in the Environmental Science department at Montana Western as the core inspirations that helped him find success in the Travel Montana Internship.

To find out more about the Montana Wild and Travel Montana programs, please visit the Fish, Wildlife and Parks website.

All-Northwest Performing Groups

Outstanding music students from Alaska, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, Washington and Wyoming have received top honors by being selected to participate in one of our 2019 NAFME All-Northwest performing groups. The students listed below will join over one thousand other outstanding high school student musicians in this gala event.

NAFME All-Northwest high school bands, orchestras and choirs will meet in Portland, Oregon February 14-17. They will rehearse and perform in concert under the direction of world-renowned conductors. These All-Northwest musicians were selected from over 4370 students who auditioned to participate in this outstanding event, which is managed by the Washington Music Educators Association.

Many professional musicians credit their All-Northwest experience as crucial in their decision to choose music as a career. Thousands of others whose career paths took them in different directions have great memories of participating in this inspiring and motivating musical experience and claim that it was a life changing experience for them. Well-known Northwesterners who have participated in past years' All-Northwest groups include trumpeters Doc Severinson and Allen Vizzutti, Pulitzer Prize-winning editorial cartoonist and columnist David Horsey, 2008 National Teacher of the Year Andrea Peterson, and jazz saxophonist Kenny G.

Republicans Advance Pay Plan for State Employees

Today in House Appropriations, Representative Julie Dooling, a Republican representing HD70, presented a bill to increase state employee pay. The specifics of the bill were negotiated by the public employees union and the Governor's office.

"Legislators requested that the increase be a flat dollar amount instead of a percentage of salaries. A flat dollar amount targets middle and lower wage earners instead of the top end, a targeted increase" Representative Dooling said. "This bill also gives a small bump in per diem for in-state travel. These per diem amounts have not been increased for 26 years."

Republican Majority Leader Brad Tschida said: "This negotiated bill is a reasonable increase considering that it targets our hard working mid-level employees who bring their expertise to the table and are often not compensated at market rates. Putting this bill on the Governor's desk early in the session is a priority for the GOP this session."

House Bill 175, known at the "Pay Plan", includes a .50 cent an hour increase in 2020 and .50 an hour increase in 2021. HB 175 is expected to pass with bipartisan support out of the House this week.

THANKS FOR THE MEMORIES DILLON

In 2018, my law firm celebrated its 38th year of providing legal services to our clients and I have been practicing law for 42 years. As we moved into 2018, I decided to sell my 1031 property exchange business, American Equity Exchange, to a friendly competitor, Accruit, LLC, and work for Accruit as Executive Vice-President and part of their executive management team.

As a result of that decision, three of my key staff, Michele Smith, Dana Huffaker and Shanda Turner are now also working for Accruit. Rosemary Griffin retired in June and Jeni Schmauch and Bobbi Konen chose to pursue other vocations. Accruit could have easily continued to service our clients from its Denver office but decided to invest in this community and is renting part of my office space in Dillon. Our exchange company is now part of a larger organization giving our property exchange clients more and better resources.

Karen Kipp continues to work with me in my law firm but in making the decision to join forces with Accruit, I also made the decision to wind down and eventually end my law practice. It's been a wonderful ride and I have a priceless tapestry in my mind of names, faces and stories which will be with me the rest of my life. I could certainly continue the practice but I no longer have the time and energy to run two businesses. I am excited about the opportunity I have to continue in the property exchange business and spend more time with my wonderful family.

Dana Pepper and Bina Peters at River and Range Law, P.C. in Bozeman will continue to represent our clients who are still involved in the water rights re-adjudication process. I am referring my other clients and friends who need legal assistance to highly qualified attorneys who can assist them with their legal needs. Karen and I will continue to work to deliver past and current files to our clients and ease their transition to other representation.

Thank you so much for your business and support over the years. I have been honored to serve you, your families and this community. My co-workers and I at Accruit-Dillon and my family will continue to be a part of this community. My family loves our home on Carrigan Lane and look forward to making memories there. My New Year wish for all of you is continued safety and prosperity in 2019 and the years to come!
