Iola "Olie" Else Honored at Montana Pro Rodeo Banquet

On Jan. 26, 2019 Iola "Olie" Else, retired UMW rodeo coach, was honored at the Montana Pro Rodeo Hall and Wall of Fame Fundraising Banquet in Billings, Mont.

Retired UMW head rodeo coach Iola "Olie" Else was honored at the Montana Pro Rodeo Hall and Wall of Fame Fundraising Banquet.

Upon receiving the Lifetime Achievement Award, Else received a standing ovation from the hundreds of people in attendance at this year's event.

Else was born in Salmon, Idaho and grew up in Tendoy where her parents ran the Tendoy Store. She attended school there through sixth grade and then went to Leadore for junior high and high school. Else has attended every Montana Western Rodeo Banquet since the inaugural banquet held in 1968 when she was a visiting recruit looking at what was then called Western Montana College. Else graduated from Leadore High School in 1969 and went to WMC that fall. She competed in barrel racing, breakaway, team roping, and goat tying. She was Homecoming Queen in 1971, runner up for Miss Western in 1971, and Miss Rodeo Idaho in 1973, going on to compete for Miss Rodeo America. She was a member of the Central Board and student government, Spurs (a service organization), a Resident Assistant and manned the college switchboard.

Else has been the faculty advisor for Montana Western Rodeo and took over as head coach in 1994. During her tenure as coach, Else cultivated several top notch rodeo competitors including seven National College Finals Champions and one National Finals Rodeo Champion. Rodeo Team members have held positions in national rodeo organizations and have received many awards including the Montana Western

Are you scared an unexpected personal or family health crisis could significantly eat into your savings?
Do you fear the costs of healthcare will be more expensive than you anticipate?

How will I pay my bills if I am laid up and can't work?
I'll eliminate your anxiety. The small steps you take today can have a big impact on tomorrow. You shouldn't have to worry about paying emergency medical bills before you even reach your deductible.
I can help you protect the unexpected. This can help you enjoy the moment, not fear the unknown. Let me know if I can help design an affordable solution for you and your family.

hero who breathes

under water.)

Based on a novel
by W. Bruce Cameron,
"A Dog's Way Home"
involves a dog named Bella who becomes separated from her beloved owner and begins an "epic 400-
mile journey" to reunite with him.

The movie resonates well with teens who undertake an epic 400-mile journey to carry the garbage out to the curbside. ("No, I didn't have to survive wolves and avalanches; but I was late responding to three texts and my classmates might have seen me and stuff.")

Anyway, the premise of "A Dog's Way Home" and similar films has gotten me started thinking about the amazing loyalty and directional skills of pets.

I can personally vouch for these attributes. When my wife and I moved into our home in 1993, we transplanted five of my parents' cats. Four of them adjusted well, but poor Lambchop was never happy and walked several miles back to his birthplace. He was supremely proud of himself, until he got run over a week later and learned too late that this "9 lives" propaganda is Fake News.

Dodsey was a feisty stray cat who adopted us and promptly started driving our other tomcats away, one by one. We gave him away twice. The second time, he returned after a week and forgave us for our transgressions. We surrendered, gave him a "forever home" and supplied him the additional name "Ulysses."

More amazingly, when my wife's grandmother moved from New Jersey to Florida, she took her cat with her. The cat ran away. Several months later, the feline turned up in the old Jersey neighborhood, its little paw pads worn down from hundreds of miles of walking and an estimated 3,276 slaps on the snooze alarm.

Whether its loyalty to individuals or loyalty to familiar surroundings, the lengths to which animals will go are indeed uncanny. If you've spoiled them enough with the "Good boy!" routine, they'll go to even greater lengths to impress you. ("I forgot to wear a Fitbit during my epic 400-mile journey. I'd better go back and do it again.")

Different people have different ideas about how animals accomplish their navigation. Some believe God gave them the instinct. Others believe it evolved over time. This is why so many pets make a detour on their epic journey home. ("The comfy sofa can wait! I wanna visit Charles Darwin's birthplace first!")

I rarely write sequels to columns; but if enough of you write to me with your own stories, I just might make an exception. Be sure to mention the newspaper in which you saw this essay.

Yes, pets are resourceful about triumphing over impossible odds; but the hope that springs eternal within the human breast isn't always justified.

I realize now that my brother and I were just grasping at straws when our childhood Boston terrier Pee Wee disappeared and we convinced ourselves that he had recognized a license plate and hopped a truck back to Kansas City.

Come to think of it, I'm starting to wonder why our childhood landlord would install a toilet that was a direct link to Goldfish Heaven...
