Christian Gilde Appointed Editor of Peer Reviewed Journal

Christian Gilde, Associate Professor of Business at Montana Western, has been appointed managing editor of the Journal for Advancing Business Education.

Montana Western Associate Professor of Business, Christian Gilde.

The Journal is affiliated with the International Accreditation Council for Business Education (IACBE). Montana Western is the first college in the state of Montana to be accredited through this organization.

Gilde received his M.A. from Boston College and his Ph.D. from the University of Bath in Bath, England. His teaching interests include marketing, consumer behavior, management, and operations management.

Gilde's research has been featured in numerous journal articles and books on business and higher education, making him a suitable editor of a peer reviewed journal.

"Right now I am more on the coordination side rather than the content production side of journalism," Gilde stated.

The Journal for Advancing Business Education is published online once a year and follows the general IACBE theme of "Moving. Forward. Together." The mission of the Journal is to publish the best practices and scholarship in business and business-related fields to improve business education and society.

While being the managing editor of the Journal for Advancing Business Education, Gilde also teaches many business classes at Montana Western, including BUS 304: Leadership. This course focuses on the three levels of leadership: individual, team, and organizational.

At Montana Western, courses are taken one at a time for 18 days allowing faculty to provide students a more immersive education. This hands-on approach to education, known as Experience One, allows Gilde to structure a comprehensive course that can be appreciated by business and non-business majoring students alike.

Students in this course start by taking a personality test to discover which style of leadership they are best suited for. From there they critique leadership approaches displayed in movies and work together as teams to summit Mount Everest through an online simulation. The course concludes with students assessing how NASA handled their space shuttle disasters.

"These are leadership skills I cannot teach the students; they have to figure out the skills by themselves," explained Gilde.

The Journal's focus is on business education so Gilde's experiences as an educator inform his efforts as an editor. The experiential learning offered at UMW allows Gilde to experience firsthand the teaching and learning dynamics associated with business education.

To learn more about Experience One, please visit the UMW website.

PINK ZONE PINT NIGHT AT BEAVERHEAD BREWERY

For the fourth year in a row, the Kiwanis Club of Dillon is teaming up with the Beaverhead Brewery and various corporate sponsors from the Dillon area for Pink Zone Pint Nights.

On Thursday, Feb. 7 and Saturday, Feb. 9, the Beaverhead Brewery in Dillon will donate one dollar for each pint sold. Members of the Kiwanis club will be in attendance selling pink paper ribbons in honor of breast cancer survivors or in memory of. The ribbons will hang throughout the weekend at the Beaverhead Brewery.

The "Pink Zone", formerly known as "Think Pink", was started in 2007 by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) as an initiative to raise breast cancer awareness in campus communities and beyond.

Since its inception, local Pink Zone fundraising events have raised thousands of dollars in Beaverhead County. Those monies are donated to the Southwest Montana Mammography Program (SMM) at Barrett Hospital in Dillon, Mont.

The Kiwanis meets the first three Wednesdays of each month at 12 p.m. at the Beaverhead Brewery, 218 South Montana Street in downtown Dillon. Visitors are welcome.

The Kiwanis Club of Dillon has been serving our community since 1940.
