Winter Trails Day at Elkhorn Hot Springs February 23

Come enjoy some winter fun at Elkhorn Hot Springs during Winter Trails Day on Saturday, February 23, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Several free activities will be available, including guided snowshoe walks, winter games, and learning about winter and snow safety. The Forest Service cabin behind the hot springs will be open with free coffee and hot chocolate, wildlife trivia game, and a table where children can make their own pine cone bird feeder. Elkhorn Hot Springs is also offering $4 for children and $5 for adults swim coupons for all participants in the Winter Trails Day event. There will also be one hour guided ski tours starting from the cabin at 10:15 and 1:00.

The U.S. Forest Service, Beaverhead Trails Coalition, Pioneer Mountain Education Foundation, and Elkhorn Hot Springs have joined together to host this local family event.

Elkhorn Hot Springs is located in the Pioneer Mountains, 13 miles north of Highway 278 on the Pioneer Mountains Scenic Byway.

Dillon BLM issues final reports on Rochester and East Bench watersheds

The Bureau of Land Management's Dillon Field Office has issued its final reports on public lands within the Rochester and East Bench watersheds.

The Rochester watershed is mostly located in Madison County, and a small portion of southern Silver Bow County, Montana. The watershed covers approximately 32,600 acres of BLM-administered land in 23 grazing allotments. There are about 3,030 acres within the watershed that are un-allotted.

The East Bench watershed is also mostly located in Madison County, with a small portion in Beaverhead County, Montana. The watershed covers 32,905 acres of BLM-administered land in 17 grazing allotments. There are 6,974 acres within the watershed that are un-allotted.

The two reports can be found online at the following websites: <https://go.usa.gov/xEQft> (East Bench) and <https://go.usa.gov/xEQMZ> (Rochester). To receive a copy of the watershed assessment report, call the Dillon Field Office at (406) 683-8000, or email MT_Dillon_FO@blm.gov.

The field office welcomes public comments to help formulate alternatives and define issues for the environmental assessments. Public comments should be submitted by March 29. Before including your address, phone number, e-mail address, or other personal identifying information in your comment, you should be aware that your entire comment – including your personal identifying information – may be made publicly available at any time. While you can request to withhold personal identifying information from public review, the field office cannot guarantee that it will be able to do so.

For more information, call the Dillon Field Office at (406) 683-8000.

American Disabilities Act compliant voting machines in Montana

Montana Secretary of State Corey Stapleton announced today he is requesting legislation that will resolve problems with the American Disabilities Act compliant voting machines in Montana. The current equipment, the AutoMARK, is available in all 56 counties but used by virtually nobody. Secretary Stapleton believes this is the right time to solve this issue coinciding with the receipt of the Help America Vote Act money, which was $3 million that the office recently received. Stapleton will be requesting the introduction of the legislation next week.

Health and Human Performance Department Highlights with Janelle Handlos

Faculty in the Health and Human Performance Department work together using Experience One's hands-on learning approach to offer students two degree options.

At Montana Western, classes are scheduled using the block system. Students take one course at a time for 18 days before moving one to the next course, providing them a more immersive education. Those enrolled in HHP gain experience before pursuing a job or graduate school options.

"The students have done the work already. They are able to develop those skills and we as advisers are able to see them do that," said Janelle Handlos, Assistant Professor of Health and Human Performance.

UMW Assistant Professor of Health and Human Performance, Janelle Handlos.

The HHP Department offers a Bachelor of Science in Health and Human Performance. The goal of this degree is to provide students with an in-depth understanding of human health and activity.

The Bachelor of Science in Secondary Education Physical Education and Health K-12 offers a major or minor for those who wish to become educators. Both degree options lead to licensure in the state of Montana.

Students enrolled in the HHP department gain a career foundation through experiential learning.

"It is important to us that people have access to top tier education so they can become qualified educators," explained Handlos.

Handlos notes that often students return to their hometowns or surrounding areas to teach or coach upon graduation from the program.

Students enrolled in the HHP department gain a career foundation through experiential learning.

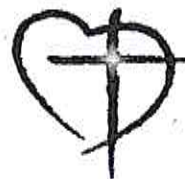

Additionally, the department is working with current educators who are looking to add a physical education or health endorsement to their teaching license. Facilitating distance learning opportunities for teachers allows many individuals to manage their education goals while simultaneously teaching.

"Our ability to meet the needs of these practicing teachers and address the teacher shortage in Montana is very important to us," Handlos stated.

The HHP Department curriculum is based on experiential learning, giving students the foundation they need to be successful. Be it a career in the health and fitness industry, or furthering their education in graduate school, students in the HHP department can count on their faculty and advisers preparing them for the future ahead.

Bible Truth...What God requires of man [Part 1]

[Statement of belief: the Bible only is the source of truth and all beliefs in conflict with the Bible are false.]

God gave us the Bible by moving on the hearts of [about 40] men to write the truths about how man should live and how he must prepare to die. The writing of the scriptures took about 1500 years to complete. This obviously couldn't have been done without error if there had been no divine guidance. The time span eliminates the possibility that a group of men met and consulted about what to write in order to avoid errors. Since the Bible is God's word to man regarding both how to live and how to prepare for death it would seem critical that we know just what God requires of us.

God inspired the prophet Micah to make the following statement regarding this subject in Micah 6:6-8, "He has shown you, O man, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?"

In order to get a true understanding of this statement we need to consider each element referred to. First of all the word 'good' means to be agreeable, right and appropriate. This goodness is determined by God's standards, NOT by the standards set by man because man's opinions differ extremely regarding what is good or bad. Many take the view that it's up to each individual to decide what is good or bad. This is precisely what has led to the condition of immorality, violence, disrespect for authority, lack of discipline, and disintegration of the home and family we see in our nation, as well as in the world.

The reason man's goodness won't meet God's requirements for going to heaven is seen in the following scriptures. Romans 3:23 states that "...all have sinned and come short of the glory of God." Jeremiah 17:9 reveals that, "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked...." Romans 6:23a says that the consequence of our sinful nature brings separation from God, "The wages of sin is death...."

[Next week: Making a deal with the devil won't succeed in bypassing God's requirements for man]
