Diane Pope Briggs

Diane Pope Briggs passed away peacefully on March 1, 2019 at St. Vincent Hospital in Billings, Montana from complications of congestive heart failure. She lived her life as a dedicated member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and as a devoted wife and mother.

Diane was a quiet, gentle soul with a steel determination. Her fondest memories were made in the Big Hole and Medicine Lodge Valleys of Beaverhead County. Many friends counted her as a mentor and advocate. She was born June 23, 1943 in Park City, Utah to Reese and Margaret Pope during a heavy snowstorm similar to the one occurring in Billings during her passing.

Diane knew hardship and faced many of life's challenges with optimism and a remarkable measure of endurance. She was an accomplished seamstress, musician, artist, and homemaker. Her most distinctive qualities were a love of literature and a passion for Gospel learning. Grandma Diane was devoted to her grandchildren, who hold precious memories of her tender care for them. She had a beautiful singing voice that seemed to make the world stop for a moment—soothing many a troubled soul in times of despair. Diane loved nature, spending memorable times with her family going on picnics enjoying wildflowers, wildlife, and mountain streams. She spent a good many years of her life a modern-day pioneer woman and endeared herself to countless hard-working ranch families.

She is survived by her loving husband, Boyd Briggs, son Milton (Stacey), son Bill (DeAnn), daughter SandyKay, son Mike (Kadie), and daughter Keri Wendt (David), brothers Dick Pope, Glenn Pope (Patrice), and Sister Colleen Cheney (Mel) along with her treasured grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Preceded in death by her parents and brother Steven.

Her family is grateful to the amazing doctors, nurses, and staff at St. Vincent Hospital, White Sulphur Springs Hospital, and emergency responders. Special thanks to Julie Briggs for her loving care of our mother at this time. Many thoughts and prayers were felt during her passing.

A memorial service will be held in White Sulphur Springs at 403 West Houston Street at 1:00 PM in the LDS Church Building on Thursday, March 7th. Visitation at the Lima LDS church on 31 South Harrison Street will be on Saturday, March 9th beginning at 11:00 AM. Her funeral service will follow at 1:00 PM. Interment at Lima Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to a charity of your choice. A guestbook is available at www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

Free Treatment for Problem Gambling is Available, Accessible in Montana

March is National Problem Gambling Awareness Month

As the nation observes Problem Gambling Awareness Month, the Montana Department of Justice (DOJ) and the Montana Council on Problem Gambling are partnering once again to remind the public that help is available.

The Montana Council on Problem Gambling, a nonprofit organization which funds outpatient treatment for problem gambling through contracts with over 20 providers in the state, reports the need for help has been steady. Last year, the Council served nearly 1,700 patients. Data shows each participating provider averaged one additional client served per month in 2018 compared to 2017.

DOJ's Gambling Control Division and the Council have collaborated for the past two years on an outreach campaign to increase awareness of problem gambling and provide free help for those in need of support. Materials advertising the Montana Council on Problem Gambling's free 24-hour helpline (888-900-9979) have been distributed across the state; they include coasters and window decals, magnets, and counter mats.

"The partnership between the Montana Council on Problem Gambling and the Department of Justice has successfully reached and helped individuals who need treatment," Attorney General Tim Fox said. "I urge Montanans struggling with problem gambling who haven't already gotten a referral for free treatment to call the Council's helpline at (888) 900-9979 today. Left unaddressed, problem gambling can ruin lives, tear families apart, and possibly lead to criminal activity," Fox added.

Brad Longcake, Executive Director of Montana Council on Problem Gambling, said "We continue to build and strengthen our network of counselors across the state. Many Montanans don't know about the Council, or that we offer counseling at no cost to clients. Oftentimes, individuals are identified in relation to other addictive issues through our counselor network." Longcake added, "Although problem gambling is not at the forefront of most people's minds, it's actually a common problem facing our friends and neighbors across Montana."

The warning signs of problem gambling include a preoccupation with gambling, a need to gamble with increasing amounts of money, and attempting to make up losses by additional gambling. Individuals who need help are encouraged to call the helpline at (888) 900-9979 or one of the Gamblers Anonymous hotlines available in Montana. For more information, visit <http://www.mtproblemgambling.org/> or www.dojmt.gov/gaming.

SPECIAL MEETING WAS RESCHEDULED

Because of road conditions, the Special Meeting of the City Council scheduled for last night was cancelled. It is tentatively rescheduled for March 20th at 6:30.

Montana Retired Educators Day

March 14 is proclaimed Montana Retired Educators Day. It is a day set aside in honor of those who have been involved in education and give support to education in the state of Montana.

As president of the Southwest Montana Retired Educators chapter I am well aware of the years of service that each of our members has dedicated to education. Being an educator is more than just being a teacher in the classroom. An educator is dedicated to making each child a better individual by giving him the tools to develop both physically and intellectually so that each individual will become a productive citizen.

This dedication to the betterment of all students is not something you really retire from. This is readily apparent within our local chapter as our members continue to contribute their time and talents to many worthwhile community and school district projects. This past year our local chapter alone donated over 8,000 hours of community service.

I urge you on March 14 to think for a moment of those teachers who made a difference in your life and if you can reach out to them and thank them for their dedication. But please know they are not resting on their laurels, they may be retired but they are still active still helping students and community.

Rocky's Craig Wilmore selected to compete in NAIA slam dunk competition

The NAIA announced that Rocky Mountain College's Craig Wilmore has been selected to participate in the 2019 NABC-NAIA Shoot & Slam contest.

The annual event features the best dunkers in the NAIA and will take place during the quarterfinals of the 82nd Annual Division 1 Men's Basketball National Championship.

The senior from Daytona Beach, Fla., was one of three basketball players chosen by committee. He will compete against Taylor Boley of Judson University and Patrick Burnett of York College. The final fourth dunker in the competition will be chosen via fan vote.

Scoring will be decided by a panel of judges who will evaluate the dunks on a scale of 8-10. Each dunker will be judged on two dunks per round and must complete a dunk within a two-minute span. The top two dunkers will compete against each other in the final round.

Wilmore had previously been recognized for his dunking ability with a spot in the Dark Horse Dunker contest. He competed against Montana State's Keljin Blevins in the first round of the online bracket-style competition.

The 2019 NABC-NAIA Shoot & Slam contest will begin at 4 p.m. on March 23 at Municipal Auditorium in Kansas City, Mo.

Postponed "Beaverhead in Color"

F. Lee Graves photography exhibit, "Beaverhead in Color", at ArtSpace in Dillon, 120 N. Montana St. opening reception has been postponed due to illness and weather conditions. The reception will now be held from 12:30 to 3 pm on Sunday, March 10th. Graves, a native son of a pioneering family that settled in Bannack in 1864, returned to his childhood home after living in Florida. Photography has been his passion for 40 years and returning to his childhood home opened a floodgate of inspiration for his artwork. He is the author of two books, Montana's Fur Trade Era and Bannack: Cradle of Montana, both of which contain his photographs.

The reception opening the Graves exhibit will include the opportunity to view some of the family artifacts from the Graves family history along with light refreshments and the opportunity to visit with the photographer/author.

Agricultural Safety Awareness

'Safety: Know Your Limits' is Theme of Agricultural Safety Awareness Program Week, March 3-9

— Across the country, county and state Farm Bureaus are making safety a priority through the Agricultural Safety Awareness Program. As part of ASAP, March 3-9 has been designated as Agricultural Safety Awareness Week. A different safety focus will be highlighted by SW Counties Farm Bureau and U.S. Ag Centers each day of the week:

- March 7 – Roadway Safety Friday,
- March 8 – Hearing Safety

During this week and throughout the year, Farm Bureau is encouraging farmers to make safety a priority on the farm.
