Walter "Jack" Smith, 89

Walter "Jack" Smith passed away at his home in Melrose on March 2, 2019.

Jack was born February 9, 1930,
in Bozeman, MT to Les & Lois Smith.
Jack attended Butte High School, and spent his childhood living in Homestake, kindling his lifelong love of the outdoors.

At the age of 15, Jack went to work for the railroad. A literal "Jack" of all trades, he spent various stages of his life working as a cab driver, insurance salesman, and restaurant entrepreneur. He spent most of his career working for General Constructors, where he oversaw many large projects in Butte and the surrounding area.

Jack went on to spend a decade serving as a building inspector for Butte-Silver Bow, before retiring at the age of 62.

Jack married Ruth Edwards on October 28, 1949. Together, they welcomed Judy, Butch, Les, and Pat. They owned a donut shop in Helena for a time, before Ruth's passing in 1961.

On April 18, 1962, Jack married Truda Snyder, welcoming Joel, Deannnda, and numerous foster children. They remained in the Butte area until after retirement, when they took to the open road in their motorhome.

In his spare time, Jack enjoyed spending time in his shop working on various projects, right up until his death. Many a home are adorned with his handcrafted treasures, the most precious being the rocking horses he and Truda lovingly constructed for their family and friends.

Jack also fancied himself an avid pilot, which in turn provided him with ample opportunities to hone his airplane repair skills.

Jack enjoyed the last 12 years of his life with his wife, Judy Ascherman, at their residence in Melrose. Jack continued to explore his interest in aviation, albeit from the ground.

Of all of the things he built, Jack was the most proud of his family.
He will be deeply missed. Jack is not only leaving his family with memories, but also handmade treasures that will be passed down for generations.

Jack was preceded in death by his parents, Les & Lois Smith;
wife, Ruth Edwards Smith; daughter, Judy Townsend; son, Walter
"Butch" Smith; brother, Jerry Smith; and sister, Rachel Osborne.

Jack is survived by his wife, Judy Ascherman; sons, Les (Carol) Smith (Butte); Pat (Paula) Smith (Seattle); daughter, Joel (Luke) Eighorn (Melrose); Deannnda Neuffer (Horseheads, NY); step-children; Brandy (Shane) Sorden (Melrose); John (Laura) Ascherman (Townsend); brothers Alan Smith (Portland, OR), Mike Smith (Merced, CA), Tom (Sandy) Smith (The Dalles, OR); 12 grandchildren, 11 great grandchildren, 9 great-great grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Services will take place at the Brundage Funeral Home in Dillon on March 16th at 2pm. Reception will immediately follow at the Hitchin' Post in Melrose.

Reminder to Prevent Frozen Pipes

The City of Dillon would like to remind homeowners to take measures to prevent their pipes from freezing. Here are several tips: (1) allow a small trickle of water from your cold water faucet in your kitchen to run to keep pipes from freezing. The cost of the extra water is low compared to the cost to repair a broken pipe; (2) keep garage doors closed if there are water supply lines in the garage; (3) open kitchen and bathroom cabinets to allow warmer air circulation around the plumbing and also remember to move any harmful cleaners and household chemicals out of reach of children; (4) If you will be going away during the cold weather, leave the heat on in your home, set to a temperature no lower than 55 degrees Fahrenheit.

Last winter was an unusual winter with so many service lines freezing throughout the community. The City of Dillon recommends to citizens to keep a small trickle running as a preventative measure to keep their service lines from freezing. If you have had problems in the past we encourage you to run a small trickle of water from your cold water faucet in your kitchen. This of course is at the customers discretion, as the cost of running water is at their expense.

Also, the City of Dillon would like to thank all the businesses and residents that have been shoveling their sidewalks this winter. We know that it has been difficult and we appreciate the effort to keep our community and citizens safe.

THANK YOU

The family of Will Richmond wishes to extend our deepest appreciation to the Barrett Hospice & Healthcare team and Dr. Anna Loge for their wonderful care and support during our time of need. Thank you!

Rodeo Coach Gears Up for Annual Rodeo Club Banquet

Kody Lahaye, Montana Western's head rodeo coach is getting ready for the Rodeo Club Banquet. The annual event will be held March 29, 2019 at 5:30 p.m. in the Keltz Arena. Lahaye rodeoed for UMW under former head coach Iola 'Olie' Else, and as he takes the reins from his mentor, Lahaye looks forward to continuing the program she built.

Lahaye graduated from Montana Western in 2014 with a degree in Business Administration. While attending UMW, Lahaye had a successful rodeo career. He was the Big Sky Region Champion team roper in 2011 and Reserve Region Champion tie-down roper in 2012. He also qualified for the College National Finals Rodeo (CNFR) four consecutive years and in 2013 and 2014, Lahaye finished in the top-10 in the nation for bulldogging.

After graduation, Lahaye worked in the admissions office at Montana Western and was the assistant rodeo coach under Else for two seasons. From there, Lahaye went on to assistant coach the Montana State University rodeo team for three seasons.

When the position for head rodeo coach came open, Lahaye decided to bring his experience and rodeo knowledge back to his alma mater.

With the annual Rodeo Club Banquet fast approaching, Lahaye is thankful for the rodeo programs continual supporters as they help him organize the event. Lahaye is inspired to work hard as the head rodeo coach because he sees how many people believe in the program.

"Without the Rodeo Banquet this program would not be able to keep doing what it's doing," Lahaye attested.
