Burning to Begin on the Madison Ranger District

Fire officials from the Madison Ranger District will soon begin prescribed fire activity which may result in visible smoke intermittently beginning March 27 and continuing through April 14, 2019.

Firefighters will be burning slash piles created from the "Ruby Moose Habitat Enhancement Project" in the Upper Ruby river area south of the Vigilante work center. Fire crews will burn under prescribed conditions and monitor these burns after ignition to ensure they stay within prescribed boundaries.

Travelers and residents in the Upper Ruby area may see smoke from these burns, however little impact from the smoke is expected. For more information regarding these prescribed burns, contact the Madison Ranger District at (406) 682-4253.

ICCW Seeking Nominations for 2019 Excellence in Leadership Awards

Do you know or work with a leader? Someone who recognizes the value of women in the workplace, and encourages women to move forward? Someone who makes a difference in the lives of others every day? If so, the Montana Interagency Committee for Change by Women (ICCW) invites you to nominate that individual for a 2019 Excellence in Leadership Award.

ICCW established the annual Excellence in Leadership Awards (ELA) in 1999 to honor three individuals for exemplary leadership, achievements, and outstanding efforts to assist women to excel in the workplace. The ELA recognizes individuals in the categories of State Government, Public Sector, and Private Sector.

To nominate a leader, complete the packet available on our website at hr.mt.gov/iccw, or Facebook page at Facebook.com/montanaICCW. Complete submissions require a nomination form, nominee description (outlined in the packet), short biography of the nominee, and letter of endorsement. Nomination packets must be postmarked by April 5, 2019, or received electronically (via email) by April 10, 2019.

An independent panel selects the award recipients for recognition, along with all nominees, at a ceremony in Helena at the State Capitol on Thursday, May 16, 2019 at 2:30 PM.

ICCW, established by Executive Order of the Governor in 1976, creates positive change for all state employees by promoting the full participation of women in state government. Along with the Excellence in Leadership Awards, ICCW carries out its mission through volunteer and civic activities such as Take our Daughters and Sons to Work Day, and participation in the Equal Pay for Equal Work Task.

For further information on ICCW, please visit our website at hr.mt.gov/iccw, or Facebook page at Facebook.com/montanaICCW.

Lowell Jaeger to Share Poetry at Dances with Words Series

Lowell Jaeger, a poet from Kalispell, Mont., will share poetry at the "Dances with Words" series on Mar. 21, 2019 at 7:30 p.m. Jeager 2 in article

Lowell Jaeger's book, "Earth-blood & Star-shine," is a collection of praise poems submerged with humor and appreciation.

"The struggles and challenges we all experience and endure come off the page clear enough to hear, smell, and see. This collection adds up to model a way of living: don't do it fancy, but look, sweat, smile, and dance," Adam Davis, Executive Director of Oregon Humanities, praised about Jaeger's work.

Aside from reading personal works, Jaeger enjoys reciting from memory the poems of Robert Frost, Donald Hall, Richard Wilbur and others.

Jaeger likes interacting with the audience at his readings and he wants those that attend to expect humor and serious reflection. His readings also challenge listeners to examine the"human condition" in all its marvelous complexity.

"Dances with Words" is produced by English Professor Alan Weltzien. The series, free and open to the public, provides the community with a unique opportunity to listen to writers reading their own works, including Montana Western student writers.

Each performance in the series takes place at The Cup, Montana Western's coffeehouse located below the library on the UMW campus.

Featured artists' books at Dances with Words are made available for purchase by The Bookstore and Deb Sporich.

For more information, please contact Alan Weltzien by email at alan.weltzien@umwestern.edu or call 406-683-7431.

Jaeger will read from his personal works at the "Dances with Words" Series on March 21.

Mark your calendars!!

Kids spend on average 6.5 hours a day on screens and that doesn't include classroom or homework screen time; boys spend on average the equivalent of 1.5 days on video games every week. If screen time is a struggle in your family or it seems like you (or your child) might be addicted to your screen, PAY ATTENTION. How much time do you spend per week on social media? How do you manage screen time in your family?

The Beaverhead County ACEs Task Force and Be the Change 406 invites you to join us as we view SCREENAGERS: Growing Up in The Digital Age. This documentary explores the impact of screen technology on kids and offers parents and families proven solutions that work. What started out as a personal story for one has grown into a national movement, helping millions of teens and their families navigate growing up in a world with instant access to screens. Recent studies show us that screen time increases dopamine production and causes behavior that mimics addiction. SCREENAGERS goes far beyond exposing the risks of screen time, it reveals multiple approaches on how parents and educators can work with kids to help them achieve a healthy amount of screen time.

Consider joining us on March 20, from 6:00 pm to 7:30 pm in the Sywsgood Technology Center on the University of Montana Western Campus. The event is free of charge and childcare will be provided.
