Patricia Dare Satterwhite Moore

Patricia (Pat) went to be with her Lord on March 16, 2019, after battling kidney failure for several months. Pat passed with family by her side at her home in Lauren Montana, her home of the past 22 years.

Pat was born in Beaumont Texas on January 13, 1938 to Collin Satterwhite and Wilda Daniels. Pat attended school in Texas. Her first school was Percilla Grade school, middle school at Grapeland Junior High, then high school at Pasadena High School.

Friends and family meant everything to Pat. Pat made life-long friends with several of her friends from Priscilla, Grapeland, and Pasadena. Over the years she stayed in contact with many friends but Pat and Martha, one of her friends from Priscilla, were especially close. Martha and Pat would talk once or twice a week for what seemed like, to Clint at least, an eternity! It was an eternity...an eternity of friendship.

Pat was also very close to, and enjoyed the company of, Pam's husband's mother, Teetsie (Alemia Spradley). Teetsie passed some years ago and since that time Pat has been looking forward to meeting up with Teetsie again in Heaven. Close friends make the world just a little bit better.

Pat's closest friend in her life was William Clinton Moore, whom she married in 1965. Pat and Clint have shared their lives, lives that have been full and rich, loving and caring, and perhaps most importantly, lives as best friends!

A quiet hobbist, Pat enjoyed penning the occasional poem and putting her talents into writings. She had a command of language and the ability to articulate her thoughts and feeling into a song, a song of the heart. Illustrating this ability and the deep love she had for Clint is the first paragraph of a romantic letter penned by Pat in 1999. Pat wrote, "Oh my darling Clinton how I wish you were here. I want to hold you in my arms as our hearts beat in a timeless dance of sweet wondrous love." We'll leave the rest of the letter between Pat and Clint.

An avid movie fan Pat loved Westerns, old Romance movies, "Gone with the Wind" was a favorite, and actors and actresses such as Shirley Temple, Betty Davis, and of course, John Wayne. It's likely Pat would be of the opinion that there wasn't a good movie made after 1960. ...well, with the exception of "Lonesome Dove" and the "North and the South". Pat was quite the film critic!

Perhaps of most importance was Pat's relationship with God! Throughout her life Pat held fast to living her life according to the Bible and the Lord's teachings! Doing so was paramount in Pat's life!

Pat is survived by her husband, Clint Moore and children Linda Anderson, Pam Spradley, Tricia Hall, Susan Pruitt, Mike Moore, and Debbie Scott. Pat's daughter, Cindy McCann, preceded Pat in passing. Pat is also survived by her brother Edward Satterwhite and his wife Carolyn. Pat is also survived by a multitude of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

As we all celebrate Pat's life we think about the impact she had on all of us. When you look at each of Pat's children, as you look at each of Pat's grandchildren and great grandchildren, you see so many of Pat's qualities displayed in each one. We are thankful for that. ...that's a legacy I'm sure Pat is proud of!

In remembrance and celebration of Patricia Dare Satterwhite Moore this 16th day of March, 2019.

Lindsey Palmer Issues Statement Thanking Community for Support

Lindsey Palmer, the wife of Trooper Wade Palmer, shared the following statement on Monday, March 18th, 2019:

"I want to extend my sincere gratitude to Montana and Utah for all of their support, and to all of the caring people throughout the nation that have offered prayers and positive messages. To all of the brothers and sisters in blue, words cannot express the appreciation we have for all that you have done and for reaching out. We are holding strong and the continued aid is greatly appreciated. Knowing that our communities are coming together at our time of need is a great comfort. It gives us the ability to focus our attention on Wade and family which is the most important thing at this time. Hold the line. Stay strong."

Trooper Wade Palmer continues to receive care in Salt Lake City. The Montana Department of Justice's investigation into the Evaro Hill shooting is still in progress.

language, and ideas on how we can fund an effective program, and who pays for its operation. As it stands now, full funding from the general fund is looking thin, so we are also working on a plan to use a mix that would access federal dollars through grants, levy some on effected interests, such as power generating hydroelectric dams, and recreation interests, then pull the remainder from the tourism promotion account, within the Department of Commerce, which is generated by the hotel bed tax. My feeling is that, to maintain a strong outdoor economy, it's only fair to use promotion dollars, to protect water resources that are vital Montana's economy. I also believe this is a fair funding mix, as it pulls revenue from all stakeholders groups, that rely on non-contaminated water, for irrigation, power generation, recreation, and tourism. I'll keep you updated as we move these proposals through the process.

Finally, I'm happy to report that Helena Republican Sen. Terry Gauthier's SB24, which creates a new trails grant program, has finally passed the Senate. This will help with a grant funding mechanism for all trail use groups, from hikers, to back country horsemen, to motorbikes and snowmobile travel, to cross country ski trails. I've had numerous conversations over the years with scores of local people, and I can assure you that trail access, maintenance, and availability is important, to a majority of people across my Senate District.

Thanks for engaging, and please stay in touch on the issues important to you.

LEGISLATIVE UPDATE BY HD 72 REPRESENTATIVE TOM WELCH 3/17/19

Medicaid expansion in Montana has about 96,000 individuals currently enrolled with over 150,000 people in total, including those currently enrolled, having participated at one time or another, over the past 2 plus years. Over 1000 residents of HD 72 are currently covered by Medicaid expansion.

Last November, following my re-election to the Montana House, I was asked what House Committees I preferred sitting on for the 66th Montana Legislative session. I chose House Taxation and House Human Services as I had served on both in the 2017 Legislative session and felt I had a good foundation upon which to build for the 2019 session. As things shook out, I was offered the Vice Chairmanship of another Committee which would have required me to give up my seat on the Human Services Committee. I turned down this opportunity and chose to remain on the Human Services Committee knowing that Medicaid expansion was sunset in June 2019 and that I would have a strong voice in what, if anything, took place in this year's Legislative session relative to the future of this program.

Fast forward to this past Saturday, when I joined my fellow members of the House Human Services Committee to meet for nearly 9 hours to hear the two introduced Medicaid expansion reform Bills, HB 425 and HB 658. We spent over 4 hours on each Bill listening to the sponsors outline their Bills, testimony from those in favor and those opposed to the Bills and asking questions of the sponsors, the proponents, and the opponents. Hundreds of Montanans showed up to testify or just simply view the Hearings. It was a long day but a very informative and worthwhile one.

HB 425 is sponsored by Rep Mary Caferro representing HD 81 which contains a portion of the Helena area. This Bill, in general, duplicates and extends most features of the expiring Medicaid expansion Bill. Rep. Caferro has been a tireless worker for those Montanans in need.

HB 658 is sponsored by Rep Ed Buttrey representing HD 21 which contains a portion of the Great Falls area. This Bill, in general, makes a number of modifications, including the addition of work requirements and participant payments, to those of the expiring Medicaid expansion Bill. Rep. Buttrey was the sponsor of the now expiring 2015 passed Medicaid expansion Bill.

Over this coming week, I and the other Human Services Committee members will re-read the Bills, digest what we heard on Saturday during the Hearings, consider possible amendments, and ask questions of those in the know on Medicaid matters. All of this is being done in anticipation of the Human Services Committee voting as early, as this Friday whether to pass one, none, or both of the Bills onto the House floor for further discussion and consideration by the entire House membership.

I would not be surprised to see a compromise version of the two Bills, wherein strong features of both are blended into whatever Bill actually makes it through to the House floor for further consideration. Also recall the 51-26-1 rule where, in order for any Montana Legislation to become law, 51 Representatives and 26 Senators must vote to approve a Bill and then the Governor still must sign it!

Quickly, the other important task the entire House will address beginning Tuesday, March 19th is the Budget for the next 2 years beginning July 1, 2019. We will spend a full day or more reviewing the proposed budget as prepared by the Appropriations Committee. I will address the Budget in a little more detail in a future Report.

By the end of this week we will have 60 of our allotted 90 working days completed in this Legislative session with much work remaining to be completed. Again, please reach out to me with your thoughts or questions at tom.welch@mtleg.gov or at 406 444 4800. Thanks for allowing me to be your elected Representative.

NO PRESENTER SCHEDULED FOR DILLON ROTARY WEDNESDAY

Bryce Angell

Hey, Bryce, I'm in my new Ford truck. I've tuned to CNN. This truck's equipped with everything. I think I could move in. When driving down our gravel road, I hardly feel a bump. The leather seats are soft and warm. They cushion this old rump. And the seats adjust to my sore back, much better than my bed. My sleeping bag can roll right out. This truck's messing with my head.

The worn out seat in my old truck had springs that poked up through. I'd show the new guy, "That's your spot." He didn't have a clue.

That old truck hauled a ton of hay. Had fenders caked with rust. And I had to roll the windows down or breathe alfalfa dust.

My truck had air conditioning called "two and forty five." Worked better with the windows down, the faster we would drive.

I'd pop the hood on that old truck and understand what's there. Now when I raise this brand new hood, all I can do is stare.

This new truck has a telephone with internet to boot. I almost feel like going home and putting on a suit.

My truck is nicer than our car. The Mrs thinks it's hers. I guess we better have a talk before a scene occurs.

The salesman said, "You'll like this truck and won't regret one bit." Bet he doesn't give the dangedest that my checkbook took a hit.

Well, harvest time is coming. Will this rig be up to snuff? It's sure a way to find out if this truck is good enough.

Right now I needn't worry. I've got time for one cigar. Then I think I'll order dinner through that fellow from On Star.

I'll try to make it up your way, I hope you like my truck. But now I'm having too much fun. I might just run amuck.
