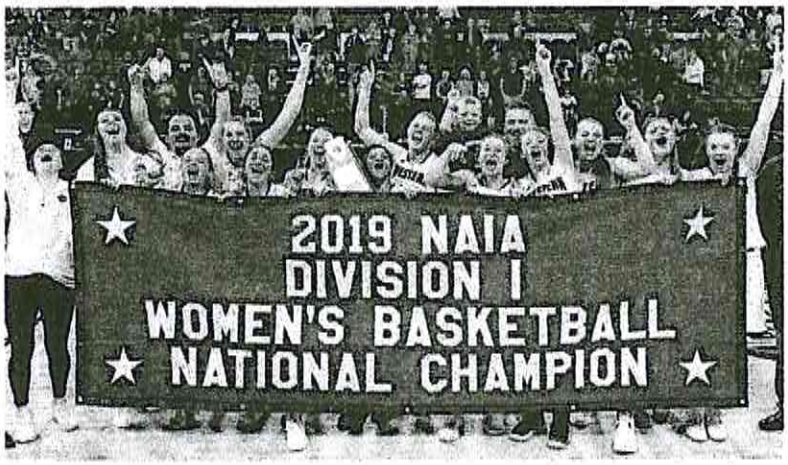
Congratulations from Chancellor Weatherby

Dear Montana Western Faculty, Staff, Students, Alumni, and Friends, Good morning! Please join me in loudly and proudly congratulating the Montana Western Women's Basketball Team on their great accomplishment!



Thank you for cheering on the team and for supporting them all the way along this journey. Even though the championship was in Billings, our team had the home-court advantage, by far. The Billings Gazette reported that 16,000 people packed the MetraPark, most of them wearing red and black.

Hearing that many people cheering "We are Western" is something I hope we will not soon forget. For the last few nights, we have truly been the State of Montana's championship team.

Dillon, Beaverhead County, students, faculty, staff, alumni, family and friends were all well-represented in the arena, and our phones were lighting up with texts from supporters here at home and around the country. In Billings, we could hear the cheers all the way from the Swysgood Technology Center watch party.

Update on Trooper Wade Palmer's Condition

Montana Highway Patrol Chief Tom Butler and Lindsey Palmer, the wife of Trooper Wade Palmer, provided the following statements today:

"There have been some false rumors circulating about Trooper Palmer's condition," Montana Highway Patrol Chief Tom Butler said. "While we understand that the chatter can arise from a place of genuine concern and goodwill, please understand that when Wade's friends and relatives see misinformation posted about his condition, it is very upsetting, especially when they have to take the time and energy to dispel the rumors. With that in mind, please do not circulate or repeat a rumor or information about Trooper Palmer unless it has been verified by the Montana Highway Patrol or Department of Justice."

Butler added, "The Highway Patrol has been overwhelmed by the support and encouragement seen in recent days. It is clear the silent majority supports their law enforcement officers. Please continue to keep Trooper Palmer and the Missoula shooting victims in your thoughts and prayers."

Lindsey, Trooper Palmer's wife, has shared the following update on Wade's condition:

"Trooper Palmer was shot three times in the head, face and neck. He is stable but his condition is still considered extremely critical. He remains in a medically induced coma at a Utah hospital. He has not regained consciousness since the shooting on Friday. Due to the nature and extent of his injuries, it may be some time before we know more about his prognosis. The family asks for the public's patience and for their understanding that updates will not necessarily be available on a daily basis. We will keep everyone updated as appropriate via the Highway Patrol and Department of Justice. We remain cautiously optimistic that Wade will continue to see steady improvements. We recognize, however, that the overall understanding of these improvements and what they mean in the long run is still evolving and unknown at this time. We are deeply grateful for the outpouring of support and prayers for Wade and for us."

Tiny Houses

By: MJ

On the agenda of the next zoning board meeting is the topic "Tiny Homes." With the average purchase price of a home far exceeding the wage increases it is difficult for people to buy a home. The average cost of a tiny home is $30,000± and affordable for many.

Tiny homes defiantly have their place in today's world. The homes could be of benefit for the homeless, be a blessing in an area where mass devastation has taken place, provide a home for senior citizens to remain close to family, a transition home for a young adult moving out of a family home, be the answer to college housing shortages…

Local government & zoning document: Questions: Would Dillon allow Tiny Homes on a 25 x 115 lot if the lot was in a residential zoned area? If a person is denied the option of putting a tiny home on their property would that be considered a "TAKINGS?' What is the average priced home in Dillon? Some say $170,000. What is the medium income? This is information that will be needed when deciding if Tiny Homes would be an asset to Dillon.

The discussion at committee and boards around trailers houses in Dillon has leaned toward being condescending. We need to beware of the needs of people. There should be room for everyone to find an area that affords them all the amenities they want. However, if we continue to judge and have nothing but contempt for people that have less, there will be no forward progress. I have heard a council member refer to a building plan as a possible reflection of a ghetto. NOTE: Ghettos are a part of a city/town in which members of a minority group live, typically as a result of social, legal or economic pressure. Does Dillon need to address the social, legal and economic pressures that would create a Ghetto instead of stomping on affordable housing with opinions/emotions without facts, their personal wants, rules and regulations?

I wonder if Tiny Houses will be accepted in Dillon as many have expressed disdainful feelings against trailer houses. The times are changing and Tiny Houses are a part of that change. People who live in a Tiny Homes are just as proud of their home as the person who owns a $4000,000± or historical home. Let us work for the future of Dillon and recognize the needs.

Questions to be considered: What would happen to the economics in Dillon if the hospital closed or the BLM and Forest Service moved their offices out of town?

Letter to the Editor

I'm just back, totally disgusted, from cleaning dog poop from the northwest corner of Jaycee Park, where the snow has melted and the messes were right beside the post holding lots of plastic bags, with a garbage container nearby.

It's you few with the attitude of "No one's gonna tell me where I can poop my dog 'cause I don't want that mess on my own yard," who make life difficult for others. You don't give a thought to the idea that your behavior impacts others negatively. You don't have respect for community property. You seem to think you can let your dog defecate then just walk away. Your behavior does have negative effects, causing nasty work for others and threatening the sanitation of the park and it's newly minted play offerings.

I'd like to think you will give some serious thought to what you are doing to city property and other Dillon citizens. I'd like to believe you'll take a different tack, either pooping your dog at home or being sure you clean up from it by carrying your own bags or using the ones volunteers are putting on 2 posts in Jaycee park. I'd like to believe that the goodness you exhibit in other parts of your life will expand to include thoughtful walking of your dog. I hope it doesn't come to surveillance and fines to deal with this.

Most sincerely,
Val Neeley

What is going on? I have lived in Dillon for 29 years. There was a time, once, that I remember, we would meet once a week at a different church to pray for an hour. What has happened? I am just one person, but we had better get back on the right page with the God of the universe, Jesus Christ. Revival is God's Work! He alone can give it, it must come from above.

About thirty six years ago I used to meet with four other men in the church I was attend one night a week to pray for at least one hour. The church had a phenomenal revival. Why not here in Dillon?? But it must be the call God on the hearts of every Christian to want to meet. I am calling this town to the commitment that the Berean's had. Many years ago, here in Montana, I was asked by a denominational leader in Missoula, "Is anything happening in Dillon?" Why not have it happen today???
