American History Essay Contest

Two Reichle students, Lily Rhodes and Faith Rongstad, placed first in their divisions for the American History Essay Contest sponsored by the Silver Bow Chapter of the daughters of the American Revolution(DAR). The students in grades 5-8 were eligible to participate in the contest.

The topic for the 2018-2019 was: The 19th Amendment, giving all women the right to vote and hold elective office, was passed by Congress on June 4, 1919. The students were to imagine that they were living in 1919, and they were to discuss the pros and cons of the new amendment as it was viewed at the time. Lily placed first in the 7th grade division, and Faith placed first in the 5th grade division. Besides winning first in the contest at the local level, both girls essays placed first at the State level. They will now be forwarded to the Regional level. New Firewood Permits Available April 1

New Forest Service firewood permits will be available for purchase beginning April 1. The annual permit allows firewood cutting April 1, 2019 through March 31, 2020.

The cost of a firewood permit from the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest is $20 for a minimum purchase of four cords. Additional cords may be purchased for $5 per cord up to a total of 12 cords per individual per year.

A cord is the amount of tightly piled wood in a stack four feet high by four feet wide by eight feet long. The permit allows woodcutters to remove downed timber or to cut down standing dead trees under most conditions in the national forests and grasslands in Montana, northern Idaho, and parts of North and South Dakota, and on lands administered by the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) in Montana and northern Idaho. If you plan to gather firewood from other National Forests or lands administered by the BLM, contact that forest or BLM office for their firewood gathering guidelines.

Woodcutters are reminded to be safe while cutting and gathering wood; keep vehicles on designated roads and trails; be sure your chosen location for cutting wood is not within the designated right of way of any major road or interstate; and please don't drive off designated roads.

For more information, check the firewood permit and the Forest Service's firewood handout available from agency offices and at www.fs.usda.gov/bdnf. Beaverhead-Deerlodge NF offices are located in Wisdom, Philipsburg, Butte, Dillon, Ennis, Sheridan, and Wise River. Permits may also be purchased from Bureau of Land Management offices in Butte and Dillon. Forest Service and BLM offices are open weekdays, from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The following businesses also have permits available to sell: Anaconda: Hardware Hank; Boulder: Hardware Hank; Ennis: True Value Hardware; Sheridan: McLeod Mercantile; Butte: Bob Wards and Butte Ace Hardware; Harrison: Wheat and Thistle General Store: Lima: Ralph's Exxon; Deer Lodge: I-90 Auto Truck Plaza; Drummond: Fic's Conoco; and Whitehall: Ace Hardware.

Agencies, county and recreation groups sign off on plan to keep popular access road open

Shed-horn and big game hunters, hikers, and other outdoor enthusiasts will enjoy continued road access to a vast swath of public lands in Beaverhead County, after county commissioners, citizens and conservation groups, and state and federal agencies agreed to a plan that will ensure the East Fork Blacktail Road remains available for public use. Agencies hope to complete the final stages of an easement transfer in time for the road to open on May 15, 2019, as it has for many years.

Historic use of the public road, which accesses lands managed by the Montana DNRC, Montana Fish Wildlife & Parks (FWP), the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and ends in the Beaverhead – Deerlodge National Forest, was in jeopardy after the US Forest Service determined two bridge crossings no longer met federal safety standards. USFS officials recognized the road would remain closed under their jurisdiction and worked with local, state and federal agencies to find a solution to keep the road open for public use.

"All the stakeholders agreed closing the road was not an option," said Tim Egan, a DNRC land manager based in Dillon. "Recreation is a big economic driver in Beaverhead County and the road sees a lot of use by outdoor enthusiasts."

Each year on May 15, the gated portion of the road accessing the Blacktail Wildlife Management Area is opened to public use. Egan said the area is so popular with shed-horn hunters that people towing campers and horse trailers are lined up days in advance, hoping to get a prime campsite at the East Fork Campground, located on BLM land at the end of the road.

State and federal agencies, the Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation, Beaverhead County commissioners, and the Beaverhead Recreational Users Group started discussing the issue in 2016. The Forest Service indicated a willingness to relinquish its interest in the road and easement, and much of the subsequent work involved legal review and discussion of whether the county or one of the other agencies was best-suited to take it over.

In January of 2019, the Forest Service offered to assign the easement to DNRC. Montana FWP had completed an engineer's assessment of the two bridges and determined they met all state standards, which differ from some of the federal standards the Forest Service was obligated to meet.

"There were definitely a lot of things to work through," Egan said. "Each agency uses the road for different management activities at different times of the year. The Wildlife Management Area is closed to public use from December 1 to May 15 to protect elk on winter range. If the road ownership changed, the BLM would have to acquire easements across DNRC's State Trust Lands. There was also the issue of road repair and maintenance and paying for that."

The stakeholders reached final consensus on March 8 with DNRC ultimately agreeing to assume ownership of the road. Egan said the bridges will need some minor upgrades but will be ready for the road's annual opening on May 15.

"Everyone involved feels really good we could get this resolved," Egan said.

Lowell Jaeger Shared Poetry at Dances with Words Series

Lowell Jaeger, a poet from Kalispell, Mont., shared poetry at the "Dances with Words" series on Mar. 21, 2019 at the University of Montana Western.

Jaeger is currently serving as Montana's Poet Laureate, an honorific position appointed by the Governor.

"Dances with Words" is produced by English Professor Alan Weltzien. The series, free and open to the public, provides the community with a unique opportunity to listen to writers reading their own works, including Montana Western student writers.

Bethany Blankenship, Montana Western English Professor, hosted this particular event. Jed Berry, English Instructor at Montana Western, introduced Jaeger, expressing that Jaeger's work is no different from a piece of music, as his poetry is timeless.

Jaeger's latest book, "Earth-blood & Star-shine," is a collection of praise poems submerged with humor and appreciation. "This collection is about aging. That thing that other people do that I haven't started yet," Jaeger humorously jested.

Jaeger, who enjoys interacting with the audiences at his readings, recited many poems from his latest book including "Wondrous World," "Genesis," "Tilt" and more.

"Poetry is an art. It awakens the senses and brightens the brain. It is my wakeup call every day," said Jaeger.

As Montana Poet Laureate, Jaeger has attended over 130 events in Montana and surrounding states.

Each performance in the "Dances with Words" series takes place at The Cup, Montana Western's coffeehouse located below the library on the UMW campus.

Featured artists' books at "Dances with Words" are made available for purchase by The Bookstore and Deb Sporich.

For more information, please contact Alan Weltzien by email at alan.weltzien@umwestern.edu or call 406-683-7431.

Bible Truth...Life goes better when the LORD is our God [March 29, 2019: #115]

[Statement of belief: the Bible only is the source of truth and all beliefs in conflict with the Bible are false.]

In Psalm 144:15 King David wrote, "...happy [blessed] is that people, whose God is the LORD." This statement indicates that happiness is based on one's choosing the LORD as God. "LORD" is "JEHOVAH" and refers to Israel's God, the God of the Bible. It doesn't refer to Allah, Krishna, Brahma, Apollo, or any of the thousands of gods named in religion.

Historical evidence reveals that when people lived by the guidelines given by the LORD they were happier and more blessed than those choosing other gods. Experience and statistics reveal that our nation was a more blessed & happier nation when more Americans were in tune with the LORD'S principles. Principles of morality, marriage & family, work ethics [if you don't work you don't eat], responsibility, kindness, reverence for God, respect for human life [pre-abortion days], and living by the "Golden Rule".

The following quotes by former President Ronald Reagan indicate that he understood the nations need to seek the LORD.

"Without God, there is no virtue because there's no prompting of the conscience. And without God, democracy will not and cannot long endure. If we ever forget that we're one nation under God, then we will be a nation gone under." [A continued atheistic path will eventually bring our nation down!]

"Abortion is advocated only by persons who have themselves been born." "We have the duty to protect the life of an unborn child." [Enough of justifying sin by saying an unborn person isn't a person!!]

"God's miracles are to be found in nature itself; the wind and waves, the wood that becomes a tree - all of these are explained biologically, but behind them is the hand of God." [Only a fool says there is no God, Psalm 14:1]

"America was founded by people who believe that God was their rock of safety. I recognize we must be cautious in claiming that God is on our side, but I think it's all right to keep asking if we're on His side."

How refreshing it would be if we had leaders and followers with Mr. Reagan's understanding!
