Service members, Veterans Cautioned About Companies Charging for Military Records Montana OCP Teams Up with Montana National Guard to Alert Military Consumers

The Montana Attorney General's Office of Consumer Protection and Montana National Guard want to alert consumers regarding the accessibility of military records free of charge for service members and their families.

Over the course of their lives, service members and veterans may need to request records of their military service. "Whether it's for a job preference, a home loan, or to receive certain benefits, military consumers may be asked to produce records detailing their service or discharge status," Attorney General Tim Fox said. "Military consumers need to know these records are free to request, and cost nothing to acquire from the government," Fox added.

Recently, the Montana Attorney General's Office of Consumer Protection and the Montana Army National Guard have been made aware of several companies who charge a fee to procure military personnel records, especially the DD214 (Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty). They claim to be "expeditors" who can speed up the process of acquiring your documents. Their advertisements show up on searches like: "How to get discharge papers" and "How do I get my DD214?" As a result, service members have been led to believe these services are the primary, or only way, to get those documents. However, they can be requested quickly and for no cost by submitting the forms yourself, either online or via mail.

"The Montana National Guard is committed to serving its current members and veterans with the support and respect they deserve," said Maj. Gen. Matthew Quinn, the Adjutant General of the Montana National Guard. "Service members shouldn't have to pay for something that they earned."

While service members and veterans are free to choose how they want to obtain their own records, they should be fully educated about their options. Many military service records are available for free through the milConnect website. The DD214 can also be acquired by mailing or faxing a Standard Form "SF 180" to the National Personnel Records Center or the servicing personnel office, such as the Montana Army National Guard G1 Retirement Services Office, which can be reached at 406-324-3084. Detailed instructions on how to request your service records are available on the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) website: <https://www.va.gov/records/get-military-service-records/>.

Both the Montana Attorney General's Office of Consumer Protection and the Montana National Guard offer educational tips on their websites about the availability of free military records for service members, veterans, and their families. Additionally, these individuals are invited to call the Office of Consumer Protection in Helena at 1-800-481-6896 with any questions about businesses advertising DD214 services or how to access milConnect's record request service.

Trooper Palmer Regains Consciousness; Condition Is Stable

Trooper Wade Palmer has regained consciousness after he was shot three times on March 15th, 2019, near Evaro, Montana. His medical status has improved from critical to stable condition and he has been moved from the University of Utah Hospital's Neurological Critical Care Unit to the Neuro Acute Care Unit. All of his interactions have been non-verbal, but he has shown recognition of certain people and commands. He is scheduled for reconstructive surgery for jaw injuries on Thursday.

"We are immensely grateful for Trooper Palmer's progress," said Colonel Tom Butler, chief of the Montana Highway Patrol. "We remain hopeful as we see Wade continue to heal and make positive strides, however, we are fully aware that he has a long journey ahead of him. "We will be with him and his family every step of the way and we thank the public for their continued support and prayers."

Trooper Palmer was shot in the neck, face, and head, after locating the suspect involved in an earlier shooting that injured two and killed one in Missoula. He was transported to Saint Patrick Hospital in critical condition and eventually flown to Salt Lake City where he continues to be treated.

For those who do not have social media accounts, the Montana Highway Patrol has created a webpage with information about the Palmer shooting. The page features:

- Updates on Trooper Palmer as they become available
- A list of all approved fundraisers that will continually be updated
- A synopsis of events
- Thank you's
- Photos integrated into the site from the "Back the Blue Wear the Green" campaign

Rumors on the Street:

By: MJ

There are always two sides to every coin and I would like to thank The Dillonite Daily for printing both.

VC responded to an article I wrote about people working together by listening to each other and coming up with positive solutions. Once again, I say "until we walk in some else's shoes, we have no idea what their life is like." Assumptions are not always correct.

I have attended hundreds of cities meeting over the past several years. I have watched and listened to the council seated and I have not seen a lot of close-minded ideologies being played out by the members.

We all have our opinions and feelings however when a council person is accepted, they take on oath to represent the community as a whole and not just a select group. That is why it is so important to be able to come to the table and have open, honest discussion.

There was many of statistics and other information presented by PFLAG group as well as other members of the community. One of the councilmen being accused of not reading the information took time out of his busy schedule, to have a one-on-one meeting with one of the members of the PFLAG group. It appears he was doing what he took an oath to do, represent the community. It appeared Councilman Kenworthy's questions were negated by the group and used against him. I was at that meeting and his questions seemed to be honoring the oath he took by asking questions on subjects he did not understand.

Yes, both of the gentlemen listed in VC's article will be terming out and will be up for election. Let us not function in an insidious way. Find out for yourself by attending a few city meetings if your council representative is honoring the oath they took.

Why Pick Up Dog Poop?

- * "I pay taxes, why should I have to pick up dog poop?"
- * "It's like fertilizer—it's good to let it stay there!"
- * "Dogs are part of nature—letting their poop stay on the ground is natural, too."

Have you heard or even thought of these excuses before? Approximately 40% of dog-owning Americans polled have admitted they don't pick up after their pet. Unfortunately, cleaning up after your dog is your responsibility as a pet owner. Even if you keep your dog contained in your own yard, taking the time to regularly clean up after your dog helps keep your family and community safe.

Service Award Winners

Dr. Jane Helm Maddock Service Award Winners Announced

On April 16, 2019 Montana Western will honor two outstanding community members for their service and support at the annual Dr. Jane Helm Maddock Service Awards Ceremony. The event will take place at 5:30 p.m. in the Lewis & Clark Room, located in Matthews Hall on the UMW Campus.

Dr. Jane Helm Maddock was a Professor of English at the University of Montana Western for 17 years. The award is named in her honor and given to those who have performed extraordinary service to the campus and community.

Lynn Welzien

Lynn Welzien created the Campus Counseling Program at Montana Western in 1992 and continued to lead the program until her retirement in 2016. She designed numerous health promotion campaigns and advocated tirelessly for the students, staff and faculty at UMW.

Welzien was influential in making Montana Western a tobacco free campus in 2012. In addition to her service at Montana Western, Welzien has used her energy, vision and networking skills to promote and advocate for mental health care in the community of Dillon.

It is an honor to award Weltzien the Dr. Jane Helm Maddock Service Award for 2019 because of her leadership and dedication to the UMW campus and community of Beaverhead County.

Mary Jo O'Rourke

Mary Jo O'Rourke moved to Dillon, Mont. in 1978 with her husband George Johnston. In the mid-1980's, O'Rourke collaborated with local residents and worked to "save our college," before Montana Western was established with the University of Montana System.

O'Rourke helped establish the Women's Resource Center, served on the Beaverhead County Museum Association Board and the local Tree Board where she co-wrote and was awarded a $10,000 grant for the City of Dillon. She has also served on the Vestry for the St. James Episcopal Church and Community Thanksgiving Dinner Committee.

Her list of service includes many non-profit and volunteer organizations. Currently, O'Rourke serves as a member of the Dillon City Council. O'Rourke's years of dedicated service to UMW and the community of Dillon make her a deserving winner of the Dr. Jane Helm Maddock Service Award.

Three UMW students will be acknowledged during the award dinner as well this year. Adrianna Pittman will be recognized for

9th Annual Hagenbarth Charity Pheasant Hunt and Raffle Results

The Ninth Annual Hagenbarth Charity Pheasant Hunt and the Barrett Hospital Home Health and Hospice Raffle were held near Glen Montana on Sunday, March 24, 2019. Fifteen 3 man teams, aided by man's best friend tried their skills in harvesting 10 pheasants from the cattails along the Big Hole River, breaking ten clays and retrieving 5 thrown birds. Don and Janet Richardson of Glen organized the event and secured the raffle sponsors. All ran smoothly with the help of family and friends. Special thanks goes to Janet, Don, Scooter, and Karen Richardson, Carol Bryan, Jolee Gillis, Laurie Hagenbarth, John and Liz Garry, Terry Hursh, Mike Marsh and Carter and Lori Butori. Three places were paid and the following teams earned the bragging rights, 1st Jarad Payne, Evan Peacock and Stephan Knight all from Dillon (311.71), 2nd Ron Adlington of Bozeman, and Lee and Abbey Richards of Belgrade (299.55), and 3rd Paul Cleary of Glen, Scott White and Steve Luebeck of Butte (294). A raffle was held with 22 prizes donated by 28 area businesses and individuals. Several individuals and businesses made cash donations. This year $7170 was donated to Barrett Hospital Home Health and Hospice. Murdock's won the sponsor's raffle, a 3 bird hunt. We thank KDBM, The Dillon Tribune, and The Dillonite Daily for donating advertising. We thank all the hunt participants, organizers, raffle ticket sellers and purchasers, those donating cash, and the participating area businesses and individuals for making this a successful and fun event. We are looking forward to next year.
