Peggy Mae Patrick Armstrong

Peggy Mae Patrick Armstrong, age 91, died Friday, April 5, 2019 at the Tobacco Root Care Center in Sheridan. Her daughter Bonnie was by her side as she made her final journey.

Peggy was born Cardwell, Montana to Josie and Sam Patrick on November 12, 1927. Peggy's maternal grandparents were custodians at the Cardwell School, where Josie gave birth to Peggy while staying with Grandma and Grandpa Kyle in the apartment which was attached to the school. The day after her birth, Peggy Mae was taken to the first grade class room to show the students, one of which was Harry Armstrong. Little did Harry know that he was meeting his bride-to-be at the School on that day.

Harry and Peggy were joined in marriage on December 5, 1946 in Bozeman, Montana. After they were married they lived in Cardwell, Anaconda and Sheridan, Montana as well as in Renton, Washington for a brief two years. Together they raised three children.

They were owners of the Standard Station and co-owners of the Texaco Station in Sheridan. Peggy later worked as Clerk of Sheridan High School.

Peggy's favorite memories were gardening and camping in an old school bus Harry converted into a motor home. The family enjoyed numerous camping trips in the big "Silver Bus."

Peggy was preceded in death by Harry, her parents, her brother, Chuck Patrick, her sister, Margaret Maeirt and great granddaughter Riley Grace Armstrong.

She is survived by son David (Janet) Armstrong of Helena, Montana; daughters Bonnie (John) Snelders of St George, Utah and Diane Armstrong of Dillon, Montana; brother Al (Bonnie) Patrick of San Leandro, California. She is also survived by 3 grandchildren Krista Ratterree of Caldwell, Idaho; Brian (Julie) Armstrong of Bozeman, Montana; Jason (Shanda) Armstrong of Helena, Montana; by 6 great grandchildren Cheyenne, Kaylee, MacKinzie, Kyler, Michael and Alyssa and numerous nieces and nephews.

Peggy loved to entertain family and friends, as her home was a favorite place for gatherings and celebrations. She was especially fond of the city park right across the street where picnics were frequent and fun.

Arsenic and Old Lace
The Southwest Montana Arts Council is reviving community theater in Dillon. The Dillon Community Theater will perform Arsenic and Old Lace as its first production this week.

The performance of this classic Comedy features talented actors from the community and BCHS students. Directed by Dillon resident Jessica Kidd, Arsenic and Old Lace performances will be this Thursday, Friday and Saturday, at 7 pm in the BCHS Theater. Tickets are $10 for adults and $5 for students at the door. Advance tickets are available online at smacarts.org, African Oasis, or Tendoy Fine Art.

Arsenic and Old Lace is a dark comedy play by American playwright Joseph Kesselring, written in 1939. Debuting on Broadway in 1941, it ran for three years and over fourteen hundred performances. The plot centers on the Brewster family, a once elite American bloodline that has now descended into homicidal insanity.

Mortimer Brewster, a drama critic and the most ostensibly normal of his clan, is forced to cover up for his sadistic kin while being torn between family loyalty and his desire to marry the woman he loves. Exploring themes including family loyalty, nature versus nurture, and whether we can ever truly break away from our family's influence, Arsenic and Old Lace was praised for its dark, screwball comedy tone with The New York Times theater critic declaring it one of the funniest plays he'd ever seen. Still widely read, studied, and performed today, it has been adapted multiple times including CBS and ABC TV movie adaptations. It is perhaps best known for the 1944 film adaptation directed by Frank Capra and starring Cary Grant as Mortimer Brewster. Revivals remain common today, and have been performed across the world.

Headed to Town

By: Bryce Angell

'Twas the end of the day, time for cowboys to play. The cows were all watered and fed. They hopped in the truck and headed for town. They were looking for fun up ahead.

The hour was right for those cowhands. The night was theirs to grab.

Two boys rode in the pickup bed, the others in the cab. A stop was made at Merkle's store for cans of Orange Crush. If they'd have known what lay ahead there would have been no rush?

With Henry driving, Terry shotgun, Dane and Hoss in back, the time had come for those up front to start some fun they lacked.

They had an extra Orange Crush just sitting on the seat.

What Terry did with that cold pop was really quite a feat. He stuck it out the window, let it pour out in the air. The two in back were promptly soaked from head to derriere.

So Hoss then thought the boys up front should get a drink as well. He reached to throw his soda pop, and off the truck he fell.

Henry still was driving when the rear-view mirror showed, poor Hoss no longer in the truck, but rolling on the road.

Dane was yelling. "Stop the truck. I think we've just killed Hoss.

He's bouncing down the pavement road. I'm scared his life is lost."

Now Henry was the shortest guy, but quick up on his feet.

He stopped the truck and headed for that mound of blood and meat.

To his surprise, Hoss stood right up, as proof he wasn't dead - Just scratched and scraped and traumatized from foot to top of head.

Now, Hoss was known throughout the town as one who liked to brawl. Would Terry and poor Henry be harassed for Hoss's fall?

But Hoss was glad to be alive and said he held no ire. The situation turned out well. Things could have been more dire.

The years went by; the time did fly. Those boys grew into men.

And did they ride in back again? Guess that'd be up to them.

BCHS Tennis

After overcoming snow, rain and cold weather conditions and 4 weeks of practice at the gym and home courts, the Beavs Boys and Girls Tennis Teams traveled to Polson for their first meet of the spring season. Our lineup was missing several varsity players due to District Music Festival, however with 22 boys participating this spring there were still strong JV players to fill the gaps. The opposite was true of the girls' roster with only 6 of 11 able to make the trip. Those six had plenty of play opportunity. Ashlyn Sandall and Nicole Fluckiger, both juniors, gave well over 100% effort playing 4 singles and 3 doubles matches in a day and a half!

We welcome fans for the first home meet, a make up match against Butte Central this Thursday, April 11 at 2 pm at the Middle School tennis courts.

Columbia Falls vs BCHS/Dillon

Bradley Rakich won 6-2, 6-0	Ashlyn Sandall lost 7-6, 6-7, 10-8 (TB)
Matthew Knight won 6-2, 6-3	Nicole Fluckiger lost 3-6, 6-4, 10-7 (TB)
Turner Sawyer lost 6-1, 6-2	Bella Glossa lost 6-0, 6-3
Marcus Sandall won 6-4, 7-5	Alana Rose (rain)
Kole Lappe/Jett Mosher 5-1 (rain)	Girls doubles - no play (rain)

Rotary Ice Melt

For the past 13 years the Rotary Club of Dillon has held their annual Ice Melt fundraising event. This year the ice at Logan's Lake stayed frozen the latest in the history of the Ice Melt Contest. On April 3, 2019 at 11:16:30 the ice thawed sufficiently to drop the weight through the ice and stop the Ice Melt clock. This year the Rotary Club raised approximately $6,200. The funds will be used to support the local community primarily through helping local youth learn, develop, and grow. The winners of this year's Ice Melt contest are:

1st Place - $500 - Charlotte Pence of Dillon, MT
2nd Place - $250 - Jo Ellen Ellis of Burlingame, CA
3rd Place - $100 - Dan Downey of Dillon, MT

Congratulations to the winners and thank you to the Dillon Community for supporting the Rotary Club of Dillon. Anyone interested in learning more about Rotary may come as our guest for lunch on Wednesday of each week. The Club meets in the Guild Hall of St. James Episcopal Church, 203 East Glendale St. For more information email David Brastrup at dbrastrup@gmail.com or Tina Giem at tgiem@barretthospital.org.
